Decision for Milwaukee Club.

CINCINNATI, June 8.—The national base ball commission today refused to make a finding in the case of the Brooklyn National league club against the Milwaukee club for the sum of $1,500 for players Fultz and Anderson. The commission held that the dispute dates back long before any steps were taken for the adoption of a national agreement and that the present owners of the Milwaukee club know nothing of the transaction.

Washington Tightens Its Grip on the Tail End.

ST. LOUIS, June 8.—The St. Louis Americans defeated the Washington team here today by a score of 12 to 0. Glade, who twirled for St. Louis, was invincible and allowed only two hits. Only two of the Washingtons reached third base during the game. In a collision at the plate in the eighth inning between Lew Drill, catcher for Washington, and "Bobby" Wallace, St. Louis' shortstop, the latter had a rib on his left side broken. The injury will keep Wallace out of the game for some time. Attendance, 1,801. The score:
