

BROWN LANDS HIS FIRST

Nine Hiss Made Off Him, but He Struck Out Eight Men.

HAS PERFECT CONTROL AND GOOD HEAD

Omaha's Little Behind on the Hitting Proposition, but the Swats Come in More Timely.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 8.—(Special Telegram.)—On a water-soaked field, with the clouds hanging black and low and another downpour threatening constantly, "Pa" Rourke's Omaha Western leaguers today took the measure of the Des Moines team by a score of 7 to 2.

Charles Brown, Rourke's latest pitching acquisition from Ames college, Iowa, where his splendid work in the box was largely responsible for the college championship of Iowa going to his alma mater this year, made his debut in professional company, and the young man made good. His delivery was not a great puzzle to the Des Moines crew, but he was able to keep the hits scattered and by his splendid control the muddied grounds and rough outfield made clean field play impossible, but both teams showed good ginger and the game left a good impression with the spectators.

A questionable decision by Umpire Cusack in calling Carter out at the home plate cut off Omaha's chance to score in the first, but the second was more fruitful. Thomas walked, moved to second on Shipke's neat little sacrifice and sprinted home on a slashing single by Freese.

Des Moines evened the score in the third, third on Freese's smart of Shipke's third strike. Clarke bunted to Brown and when the collegian sought to throw Thiel out at the plate Freese fouled and Thiel slid safely over the pan.

Omaha jumped into the lead in the fifth and thereafter was no headed. Freese worked Cushman for a free pass. Brown tried to sacrifice, but Catcher Towne refused to let him do it. Instead he scooped up the sphere in front of the plate and hurled it over Conner's head into right field. Freese moved up to third, although he would have perished but for Lobert's mist of the throw. Meanwhile Brown had ambled to second and both Freese and the ex-collegian cantered home on Howard's slashing single into right. Carter added another run to Omaha's total in the seventh. A base on balls put him on the first sack and singles by Miller and Welch baited in Omaha's last tally.

Des Moines gave Brown his only semblance of a thumping in the eighth. Shipke smashed out a single and McChesney soon followed with the ferocious drive of the game. The ball went sailing over Miller's head and rolled to the fence. Shipke fell down in the mud in an attempt to relay Miller's throw to the home plate and McChesney made the full circuit.

A double by Towne in the ninth raised Des Moines' hopes, but Brown settled down and retired Cushman and Thiel on strikes. The score:

Peculiar Performance of Power Leads to an Investigation. CHICAGO, June 9.—For an odd day the card at Harlem today was attractive. Power was making a medium of a coup in the first race, which she won easily. Badly beaten by cheap fields in her last two outs, her sudden reversal of form today brought about an investigation by the stewards of the Harlem Jockey club, with the result that J. Gray & Co. and their trainer, Fred Foster, as well as the horses running in the name of the firm, including Power, were suspended from racing for a period pending an investigation. Results:

Burlington Route J. B. REYNOLDS, City Passenger Agent, 1502 Farnam St., Omaha. Inquiry into Freight Rates. The low rates on cattle was competition, but that the competition was not such that it could bring about any decline in rates. The cattle raisers deny the existence of competition and insist that rates have been advanced by mutual agreement and conferences among the interested lines. Several witnesses testified that there had been such conferences, but denied any agreement in a legal sense. Tramps Fight at Huron. HURON, S. D., June 8.—(Special.)—Near the Great Northern railway crossing yesterday a gang of tramps got into a fight. One was cut with a razor across the face, the gash extending from the upper lip to the back of the head, splitting the left ear. Another cut laid bare the skull from the top of the head to the back of the neck, and another cut the left wrist to the bone, and the small finger on the left hand was nearly cut off. The man was found in a box car, almost dead from loss of blood. He was taken to the city prison and his wounds dressed, and he is likely to recover, but will always carry some very ugly scars. Three men were arrested and are now in jail pending investigation, but neither of them, nor the injured man, will tell of the fracas or give any account of themselves.
