

Mme. Yale's Almond Blossom

Complexion Cream

GREATEST TOILET LUXURY MADE.

Cleanses, softens, purifies, whitens and beautifies the skin. Soap and water only cleanses superficially. Mme. Yale says: A little Almond Blossom Complexion Cream should be applied every time the face and hands are washed. It removes the dust, soot, grime, smut, and smudge from the interstices of the skin and makes the surface smooth as welvet. A daily necessity at home and abroad; a treasure when traveling by land or water, or when on an outlog of any kind, and particularly prized at a seaside or mountain resort. Protects the skin from cutting winds, burning rays of the sun and every injurious effect of the elements. Prevents and cures abnormal redness of the nose or any part of the face, and that purplish hue due to exposure to cold, also chapping, chafing, cold sores, fever blisters and all irritation of the skin. It is the greatest known specific for burns; takes the fire out more quickly than anything else, soothes, heals and prevents scars and suppuration. Indispensable for use of infants and every member of the household. An exquisite natural beautifler. A grateful application after shaving. Excellent for massage purposes. Now in two sizes; Mme. Yale's Almond Blossom Complexion Cream is sold by

WAGNER BY THE INNES BAND

Popular Conduc or Renders Well the Great Composer's Music.

'PARSIFAL" MAKES HIT OF THE EVENING

Enthusiastic Audience Exceeds the Limit of the Conductor's Patience in Its Demand for Encores, but Gets Enough.

It was with the wonderrul music of Richard Wagner that Innes and his band and the festival singers conjured at the Auditorium Friday. The splendid interpretaerously all around. From the first bars of the stately overture from "Tannhauser" until the last grand ensemble the auditors were all attention-all imbued with appreciation and a desire to show it.

The supreme majesty of Wagner's music was shown to splendld advantage in the "Tannhauser" overture, the climaxes being reached in splendid fashion and the intricate harmonies delicately woven. Following an arrangement carried out through the evening, Inness responded in most part with popular music to the demands for encores and for the first he gave his own omposition, "Love is King."

Mr. Shaw's beautiful voice excited in ense admiration in "The Meistersingers," his singing being filled with noble feeling and expression. He gave a well known aria from "Martha" by way of encore.

"Parsifal" is Popular, The "Parsifal" music brought perhaps the heaviest applause of any of the instrumental work done. Innes gave Meyer-Helmund's "Serenade Rocco" for the first response and "The Gondollers" as the second, and it was only by standing firmly on his rights that the bandmaster was al- will be made welcome. lowed to proceed without further alterations in the program.

Mayor Koutsky was in receipt of a letter yesterday to the effect that Spitzer & Co. of Toledo would accept the South Twenty-Alliance are obtaining the signatures of fourth street and Railroad avenue paving business men to the boycotting agreement. bonds. This issue is for $59,000. As the issue was made under a recent law, there was some apprehension as to whether the issue would pass muster. Spitzer gave the city a premium of $500, and has now given notice that the bonds will be taken. Only one or two trifling matters, such as the Anti-Clerical Sentiment in Franc proofs of publication, are needed. Last night the mayor said that he would notify Dan Hannon, the contractor, to get ready and go to work on Monday or Tuesday at the latest, as he is confident from the letters he has received that the bonds are sold at the price bid. These bonds run twenty years and bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent. With the sale of the bonds and the commencement of grading, the street railway to be stopped.

Company will start the laying of double Marx, the a tracks from Q street on the south to the county line. All that has been holding this work back has been the opinion of attorneys on the bonds. Now that the issue is declared valid, it is expected that the contractor will proceed immediately to do the grading, curbing and paving. Of SIGNAL GUNS CAUSE TROUBLE the cost of these improvements the street railway company will pay $14,000, the abut-

"There is need of both a plumbing and a building inspector," said the mayor last night, "but I have not been able to secure a suitable man for either place. If it can be done, I would like to combine the positions, but I cannot find a plumber or a builder who will take the place." Continuing, the mayor sald that the plumbers needed looking after and also builders. He cannot make an appointment until some one competent expresses a willingness to do the work for the compensation offered. As both are fee offices, builders and plumbers say that they have no time to waste on a position of this kind just now when they have all
