Four and 5 to 1 could be had against Hermis, 5 against The Pickett and the same against Proper, while Africander and Major Daingerfield were without friends at 40 or 50 to 1. The pressure of offerings on Irish Lad was so heavy that 9 to 10 was asked when the contestants were called to the post. The field was lined up and sent away in perfect order by Starter Fitzgerald. Hermis, from outside position, shot to the front as if hurled from a catapult. Passing the judges' stand he had secured the coveted place on the rail, with Irish Lad and The Pickett close behind. The others did not appear to be in the same class. On the racers sped around the turn and down the back strech, never changing position for an instant.

Irish Lad challenged again and again, but to no purpose. He crept up on the flying leader repeatedly, but was unable to hold the terrific pace, much less overhaul him. The Pickett, the hope of the western and southern contingent, ran along unconcernedly in third place until the mile post had been reached. Then he drew up and crept Omaha Will Meet, Its Old Rival on Home Grounds, Opening on . Ladies' Day.

Omaha will welcome Denver again on the Vinton street park this afternoon, which will also be ladies' day. No greater attraction could be offered than a game etween these two teams, with music and presence of thousands of women. Omaha is playing a great game of ball just now, and is headed for a higher place in the standing table. To achieve this ambition it will be necessary to take the series from Denver, just as was done on the former visit. The teams will play here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The two south-paws, Companion and Pfeister will be put onto the slab against the visitors Friday and Saturday, respectively, while Brown will be the rock on which they are expected to split in the Sunday game. Speaking of the current rumors as to robable changes in the lineup of the team and that one or two of the players would be let go, while others, notably Dundor of the Chicago Americans had been signed Manager Rourke said: "There is nothing to this story about my having secured the relase of Dundon from Comiskey. I'm sorry there isn't some truth in it, for Dundon would be a welcome addition to my string, no matter how many men I had. Last spring when the Americans played here Dundon remarked that he would like to play in Omaha this season. I told him he wouldn't like to any better than I would like to have him and the upshot of our talk was that if anything happened that he left Chicago and was free to engage where he pleased he would give me first chance. Since that time I have had some corerspondence with him and with Comiskey regarding his coming to Omaha. The latter says there is no such thing possible and that if he let Dun-don go half a dogen of the big lesgue teams are looking for him."
