(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 20 .- (Special.)-Now that the university has closed for the summer, the question has been asked whether the present board of regents will allow the book dealers of Lincoln to gouge the life out of students who have to buy books, as they have been doing in the past, or whether the regents will take it upon themselves to follow the law, which requires students. The regents in the past have ressor, one of them said, the legislature had set apart no money for the purchase of to be an excuse of any merit, as a prominent Lincoln attorney said the law provided that the money voted for the maintenance of the university was at the disposal of the regents to spend for the betterment of the school in any way they may

Last year this was published in this column at the instigation of a number of students who had been forced to pay large sums to the book dealers who have control of the matter, and the law was polytrd out, though the fusion board took no steps to remedy it or to save the boys from paying the exorbitant prices demanded. As a matter of fact one of the book dealers, or a very near relative, held a position in the university, and the facts as brought out at that time tended to show that a gigantic trust for the benefit of the book deafers

He was told that it would be better to pay the higher price than to get his books back home, for the reason that during the year It was probable the book dealer would be able on many occasions to accommodate him. The boy bought the higher priced books. Just what the new board of regents will do along this line is not known, but if they consider the wishes of the parents of university students they will take the university out of the hands of the Car Service is Poor. The National Holiness encampment in progress now at Epworth Lake park is attracting many visitors and doubtless would attract many more were it not for the poor car service being given by the last night was comparatively small the street car service, one of the attendants meeting. A twenty minute service had been hundred or two people lined up at the park exit to start back to town. They walted and others lined up, and after a delay of fully thirty minutes, with no car in sight when the first of the crowd began to arrive, the carrier came along.

The trip back to town, as described by one of those who took it, was worse even than waiting for the cars. After plugtake the back track. The outcoming car finally did, and when after several stops mile away was reached, the trip consuming about twenty minutes. Lined up in front of that park were over a half dozen cars doing nothing, while at Epworth was a platform full of people who had been waiting, some of them for nearly an hour to get

Telephone Company Protests. The Nebraska Telephone company filed protest with the County Board of Equalination against its property being assessed at $300,000, asking that it be reduced to $103,922. The company claims that the law authorizing the assessor to assess its proptional, in that it makes the legislature an assessing body. This is the first attack on those sections of the new revenue law grant the company relief the matter will go to the courts.

In the meantime a general kick is being made because figures of the city assessor more volumble than shown in the returns of the city susessor.

Officials Go to Convention. Governor Mickey will leave tomorrow for Chicago as will Attorney General Prout and Secretary of State Marsh to Join those gone before to attend the republican national convention. Deputy Land Commissioner Eaton left two days ago and Auditor Weston left last night. Superintendent Fowler is undecided whether to go, and Treasurer Mortenson has too much work to do to get away.

Many Teachers at Normals. Reports received at the office of the state superintendent show the attendance at the normal schools for the first week to be 600, which it is believed will be increased to 1,200 before the close. Last year the attendance at thes schools was 1.100. The attendance at this time is not large for the reason that many summer institutes are at present in progress and consequently many teachers are not yet ready to enroll Committee Gets Busy. Secretary Allen of the State Republican committee is sending out letters these days to county chairmen, hustling up the county organizations. He is receiving in turn the county nominations, though many of them have not yet been filed. In the meantime the date for the removal of the headquarters to Omaha is not being discussed and no one seems to know just when the transfer will begin. It is all up to Chairman Lehr and down here it is beginning to be wondered why he don't do something.

Determination was made to find the culprit, if possible, and last Saturday night, Alongo Wells and one of the clerks, W. L. Michaelson, secreted themselves in the store. About 3 o'clock Sunday morning parties were heard to enter the store. The watchers determined from their talk who they were, and saw clearly when matches were struck that the parties were Sherman and Croshaw. The former ran from the store when the watchers advanced.

Entry had been made, it is said, by the front door, with a key which was not in their possession by authority of the firm. The officers claimed that they had heard a noise inside the store and entered to investigate. Sherman, so they stated, ran

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 20.-In response to a telegram from an eastern newspaper asking for a statement from him body would have to declare the whole of Colorado in a state of rebellion and put the state under martial law, Adjutant General Bell has replied as follows:

Bell has repiled as follows:

The alleged interview is absolutely without foundation. I not only never gave out such an interview, but the idea is absolutely foreign to my mind under the past and present conditions.

There is no need of declaring Colorado under martial law.

The whole state practically has been cleaned up by my deportation system. There are but few anarchists and socialists left who can cause trouble.

However, should it become a military necessity the whole state of Colorado will be placed under martial law and all insurrection will be dealt with accordingly. I do not believe this will ever be necessary. In my judgment the Colorado labor troubles are at an end.

We have been making the fight for the whole United States and the Federation of Miners has been receiving financial support and other assistance from the country at large. Colorado is looking to other states to follow suit.

The spirit of resentment is strong in the breasts of the people; but not rebellion. That is a horrible phantssm, wrought from the weird brain of a military fanatic, who would rather hear the clanking of saber chains than angels music.

The question of martial law does not depend upon the justification, as General Bell blasphemously remarked, only I and the Lord know what the next move will be, and the Lord is not very sure about it.
