

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Present World Likely to Be Broken by Early and General Activity.

ALL CROP CONDITIONS ARE GOOD

Speculation Forces Are Quiet and Therefore the Pendulum of Trade Moves Only Moderately in Each Direction.

OMAHA, June 21, 1904. The Omaha market reflects the extreme quietness of the Chicago exchange just at present, but the prospect is there will be something doing all along the line within a short time in view of the favorable crop conditions that are reported from nearly all important points.

Wheat—The market is just as dull as the wheat market with receipts within a few days. Cash prices show a daily shrinkage. The corn market is just as dull as the wheat market with receipts within a few days.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Drifts at Times, with Periods of Entire Idleness.

UNDERTONE CONTINUES TO BE FIRM

Immobility of Union Pacific After Recent Feverish Fluctuation is Feature of a Quiet Market.

NEW YORK, June 21.—There was little more than a drift of prices of stocks today, interspersed with periods of entire idleness, not inappropriate to the summer months and the general quietness of the market.

The condition of the market after their recent activity and feverish fluctuations. This quietude was rather surprising in view of the fact that the market was not so quiet as it appeared.
