

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.00...

ROOSEVELT'S RUNNING MATE.

It has been settled for some time that Roosevelt's running mate will be Charles Warren Fairbanks, now serving as United States senator for the state of Indiana.

states in the choice of president alone enables the democrats to wage a hopeful contest for political supremacy. Were the constitutional provision for a reduced representation in ratio of abridged citizenship enforced the democratic party would today be unable to make even a decent showing in the electoral college.

ARMY GOSSIP IN WASHINGTON.

Matters in Interest Gleaned from the Army and Navy Register. Lieutenant General A. R. Chaffee, chief of staff of the army, and General C. F. Humphrey, quartermaster general of the army, will make an extended inspection tour of army posts in the United States, leaving Washington on June 23 and returning the latter part of August.

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

helps housekeepers more than any other article in the household. Its use protects the health of the children.

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER. helps housekeepers more than any other article in the household. Its use protects the health of the children.

OFFICES.

Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building, Twenty-fifth and M Streets. Council Office—10 Pearl Street. Chicago—142 Unity Building, Second and New York—322 Park Row Building, Washington—100 Fourteenth Street.

STATION OF CIRCULATION.

Table with 2 columns: Station Name, Circulation. Includes entries for Omaha, South Omaha, Council Office, Chicago, New York, Washington, and Total.

SOUTH OMAHA'S OMNIBUS BOND SCHEME.

The promoters of different propositions for which they wish the taxpayers of South Omaha to authorize bond issues seem to have devised a plan to merge their various schemes into a sort of omnibus bill in anticipation that the supporters of one can in this way be brought to vote the blanket ballot for all.

The Fight Two Weeks Hence.

The republicans will have a nice, quiet convention at Chicago this week, but just wait till the democratic brethren get together at St. Louis on the 8th of July.

Efforts of the Railroads to Restrict

Chicago Record-Herald. After a struggle lasting five months the western railroads have decided to again issue return transportation to the shippers of live stock.

THE NATIONAL PLATFORM.

The platform adopted by the republican national convention at Chicago is what the occasion demands—a formal yet explicit declaration of the principles upon which the party invites the continued confidence and support of the progressive people of the country.

THE SHAME OF ILLINOIS.

Chicago Chronicle. That the state of Illinois should instruct its delegation to the democratic national convention to support the candidacy of William H. Hearst for president is nothing less than disgraceful.

Democratic Endorsement of Hearst Proposed.

Chicago Chronicle. That the state of Illinois should instruct its delegation to the democratic national convention to support the candidacy of William H. Hearst for president is nothing less than disgraceful.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Japanese who commit hara-kiri must not realize how much trouble they are saving the Russians by killing themselves.

OUR PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGNS.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic. Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic.

Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

FORCEFUL AND INFLUENTIAL.

Lincoln Star. It is just thirty-three years since Edward Rosewater founded The Omaha Bee. The Bee is almost unique among great newspapers in having been under the same editorship and management for a third of a century.

SCHOOLMASTER FROM NEBRASKA.

How Mr. Bryan Chastises Unruly Democratic Kids. New York World (dem.). Mr. William J. Bryan, who has led the democracy to defeat in his own state, county and town, and who has won the imperishable distinction of being the only democratic presidential candidate since the birth of the republican party to lose New York City, has been good enough to write a letter instructing New York democrats in their political duties.

GOVERNOR BOYD AS A PROPHET.

Pittsburgh Dispatch. Ex-Governor Boyd of Nebraska turns up in Chicago boomer on our own Robert E. Patton. Is Boyd the Junius II who is writing apocalyptic postal cards? The cards read: "Ex-Governor Robert E. Patton of Pennsylvania will be the next president of the United States. JUNIUS II."

REFORMS FAIL TO REFORM.

Chicago Record-Herald. After a struggle lasting five months the western railroads have decided to again issue return transportation to the shippers of live stock.

THE SHAME OF ILLINOIS.

Chicago Chronicle. That the state of Illinois should instruct its delegation to the democratic national convention to support the candidacy of William H. Hearst for president is nothing less than disgraceful.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Japanese who commit hara-kiri must not realize how much trouble they are saving the Russians by killing themselves.

OUR PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGNS.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic. Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic.

Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

FORCEFUL AND INFLUENTIAL.

Lincoln Star. It is just thirty-three years since Edward Rosewater founded The Omaha Bee. The Bee is almost unique among great newspapers in having been under the same editorship and management for a third of a century.

SCHOOLMASTER FROM NEBRASKA.

How Mr. Bryan Chastises Unruly Democratic Kids. New York World (dem.). Mr. William J. Bryan, who has led the democracy to defeat in his own state, county and town, and who has won the imperishable distinction of being the only democratic presidential candidate since the birth of the republican party to lose New York City, has been good enough to write a letter instructing New York democrats in their political duties.

GOVERNOR BOYD AS A PROPHET.

Pittsburgh Dispatch. Ex-Governor Boyd of Nebraska turns up in Chicago boomer on our own Robert E. Patton. Is Boyd the Junius II who is writing apocalyptic postal cards? The cards read: "Ex-Governor Robert E. Patton of Pennsylvania will be the next president of the United States. JUNIUS II."

REFORMS FAIL TO REFORM.

Chicago Record-Herald. After a struggle lasting five months the western railroads have decided to again issue return transportation to the shippers of live stock.

THE SHAME OF ILLINOIS.

Chicago Chronicle. That the state of Illinois should instruct its delegation to the democratic national convention to support the candidacy of William H. Hearst for president is nothing less than disgraceful.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Japanese who commit hara-kiri must not realize how much trouble they are saving the Russians by killing themselves.

OUR PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGNS.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic. Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic.

Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

FORCEFUL AND INFLUENTIAL.

Lincoln Star. It is just thirty-three years since Edward Rosewater founded The Omaha Bee. The Bee is almost unique among great newspapers in having been under the same editorship and management for a third of a century.

SCHOOLMASTER FROM NEBRASKA.

How Mr. Bryan Chastises Unruly Democratic Kids. New York World (dem.). Mr. William J. Bryan, who has led the democracy to defeat in his own state, county and town, and who has won the imperishable distinction of being the only democratic presidential candidate since the birth of the republican party to lose New York City, has been good enough to write a letter instructing New York democrats in their political duties.

GOVERNOR BOYD AS A PROPHET.

Pittsburgh Dispatch. Ex-Governor Boyd of Nebraska turns up in Chicago boomer on our own Robert E. Patton. Is Boyd the Junius II who is writing apocalyptic postal cards? The cards read: "Ex-Governor Robert E. Patton of Pennsylvania will be the next president of the United States. JUNIUS II."

REFORMS FAIL TO REFORM.

Chicago Record-Herald. After a struggle lasting five months the western railroads have decided to again issue return transportation to the shippers of live stock.

THE SHAME OF ILLINOIS.

Chicago Chronicle. That the state of Illinois should instruct its delegation to the democratic national convention to support the candidacy of William H. Hearst for president is nothing less than disgraceful.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Japanese who commit hara-kiri must not realize how much trouble they are saving the Russians by killing themselves.

OUR PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGNS.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic. Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic.

Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

FORCEFUL AND INFLUENTIAL.

Lincoln Star. It is just thirty-three years since Edward Rosewater founded The Omaha Bee. The Bee is almost unique among great newspapers in having been under the same editorship and management for a third of a century.

SCHOOLMASTER FROM NEBRASKA.

How Mr. Bryan Chastises Unruly Democratic Kids. New York World (dem.). Mr. William J. Bryan, who has led the democracy to defeat in his own state, county and town, and who has won the imperishable distinction of being the only democratic presidential candidate since the birth of the republican party to lose New York City, has been good enough to write a letter instructing New York democrats in their political duties.

GOVERNOR BOYD AS A PROPHET.

Pittsburgh Dispatch. Ex-Governor Boyd of Nebraska turns up in Chicago boomer on our own Robert E. Patton. Is Boyd the Junius II who is writing apocalyptic postal cards? The cards read: "Ex-Governor Robert E. Patton of Pennsylvania will be the next president of the United States. JUNIUS II."

REFORMS FAIL TO REFORM.

Chicago Record-Herald. After a struggle lasting five months the western railroads have decided to again issue return transportation to the shippers of live stock.

THE SHAME OF ILLINOIS.

Chicago Chronicle. That the state of Illinois should instruct its delegation to the democratic national convention to support the candidacy of William H. Hearst for president is nothing less than disgraceful.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Japanese who commit hara-kiri must not realize how much trouble they are saving the Russians by killing themselves.

OUR PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGNS.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic. Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic.

Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

FORCEFUL AND INFLUENTIAL.

Lincoln Star. It is just thirty-three years since Edward Rosewater founded The Omaha Bee. The Bee is almost unique among great newspapers in having been under the same editorship and management for a third of a century.

SCHOOLMASTER FROM NEBRASKA.

How Mr. Bryan Chastises Unruly Democratic Kids. New York World (dem.). Mr. William J. Bryan, who has led the democracy to defeat in his own state, county and town, and who has won the imperishable distinction of being the only democratic presidential candidate since the birth of the republican party to lose New York City, has been good enough to write a letter instructing New York democrats in their political duties.

GOVERNOR BOYD AS A PROPHET.

Pittsburgh Dispatch. Ex-Governor Boyd of Nebraska turns up in Chicago boomer on our own Robert E. Patton. Is Boyd the Junius II who is writing apocalyptic postal cards? The cards read: "Ex-Governor Robert E. Patton of Pennsylvania will be the next president of the United States. JUNIUS II."

REFORMS FAIL TO REFORM.

Chicago Record-Herald. After a struggle lasting five months the western railroads have decided to again issue return transportation to the shippers of live stock.

THE SHAME OF ILLINOIS.

Chicago Chronicle. That the state of Illinois should instruct its delegation to the democratic national convention to support the candidacy of William H. Hearst for president is nothing less than disgraceful.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Japanese who commit hara-kiri must not realize how much trouble they are saving the Russians by killing themselves.

OUR PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGNS.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic. Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

How They Exert a Wholesome Effect Upon the Body Politic.

Century Magazine. Our presidential campaigns, it is generally considered, occur too frequently in regard to the peace of mind and business interests of the community.

At the Soda Fountain

At the Soda Fountain. There are many things to drink—many do not quench the thirst—many are not good for you—you are safe in ordering DEBORAH Ginger Ale.

At the Soda Fountain

At the Soda Fountain. There are many things to drink—many do not quench the thirst—many are not good for you—you are safe in ordering DEBORAH Ginger Ale.

At the Soda Fountain

At the Soda Fountain. There are many things to drink—many do not quench the thirst—many are not good for you—you are safe in ordering DEBORAH Ginger Ale.

At the Soda Fountain

At the Soda Fountain. There are many things to drink—many do not quench the thirst—many are not good for you—you are safe in ordering DEBORAH Ginger Ale.

At the Soda Fountain

At the Soda Fountain. There are many things to drink—many do not quench the thirst—many are not good for you—you are safe in ordering DEBORAH Ginger Ale.

At the Soda Fountain

At the Soda Fountain. There are many things to drink—many do not quench the thirst—many are not good for you—you are safe in ordering DEBORAH Ginger Ale.

At the Soda Fountain

At the Soda Fountain. There are many things to drink—many do not quench the thirst—many are not good for you—you are safe in ordering DEBORAH Ginger Ale.