"Fainting Bertha" Trips Quietly Out of Jail After Reading the Bible.

"Fainting Bertha" Liebeck spent Tuesday evening in reading the good book presented to her by Rev. C. W. Savidge and started reforming yesterday by breaking jail. Having reached the conclusion that the county jail was no good place for turning over a new leaf, she took advantage of the mayor's absence for a moment and hurriedly left the county's free boarding place by way of the open front door.

Thomas Suggests Perjury.

"However, we expect to make a showing that will win the case in the district court, on next Monday we will produce evidence that will show conclusively that the police officers who testified as to Dennison's whereabouts between February 1903 and February, 1904, were either very much mistaken or wilfully committed perjury. We have documentary evidence to completely refute the statements made by the police officers on the witness stand. We expect to get all of our testimony in case that day and will probably rest our case that evening."

FAILS TO FIND A WITNESS

Attorney Thomas Goes to Iowa for Evidence Against Dennison.

HIS CLEW TURNS OUT TO BE USELESS

Civic Federation Lawyer Declares He Has Sufficient Evidence, However, to Refute Testimony Given by City Detectives.

Elmer E. Thomas, attorney for the Civic Federation, has returned from Des Moines where he went in quest of evidence for his side of the Dennison case. Mr. Thomas had heard that Morris Lynch, formerly connected with a gambling house at the Iowa capital, had recently declared that after the Pollock robbery Dennison appeared in Des Moines for the purpose of disposing of some of the stones. When he arrived in Des Moines Mr. Thomas learned that Lynch was not there and that the rumor in reference to Dennison trying to dispose of some of the diamonds there had grown out of a statement made by Lynch that he had had an opportunity to secure the stones.

"I ascertained that Lynch had left Des Moines," said Mr. Thomas, "and as I also learned that he was a good friend of Dennison's I concluded not to follow the clew. I did not get any evidence at all at Des Moines."

"The report in a Des Moines paper that I had confided to a friend there that I lacked confidence in the judges who are hearing the case is entirely without authority, as I passed no comment whatever in criticism of the court. I expect the judges will decide the case in accordance with their honest convictions as to the facts and their view of the law. I did say to the reporters at Des Moines that we would appeal if the district judges decided against us, and from this they may infer that I anticipated defeat in the lower court."

THREE GIRLS ARE GRADUATED

Complete Course at Sacred Heart Academy, Where Commencement is Witnessed by Bishop.

The twenty-second annual commencement exercises at Sacred Heart academy, Thirty-sixth and Burt streets, took place Tuesday afternoon. The exercises were conducted in the presence of Bishop Scannell and twenty-five of the clergy gathered from several states. A very pretty feature of the program was the rendition of a cantata founded upon the parable of Ten Virgins. The participants in the program were attired in accordance with the sentiment of the cantata, the five wise virgins being veiled in white and the foolish virgins in gay colors. The effect of the cantata was given with impressive significance and dramatic interest. The program was, in detail, as follows:

- Prayer—Andante in G major—Capriccioso, Op. 14 Mendelssohn
Salvatore—Missa H. Hacker
Præluie—Missa Minette Rousseau
Prologue—The Gospel Narrative
Cantata—Missa Alice Hayes
Cantata—Sophie Shirley, Mary Hillman, Wise Virgins: Misses Claire Helene Woodard, Sophie Shirley, Mary Hillman, Cecile Avalline, Helen Perry; Foolish Virgins: Misses Alice Kennard, Mabel Benjamin, Misses Alice Gassman, Helen Creighton.

Judge Munger Tuesday evening issued an order out of the United States circuit court to Receiver Charles F. Searle to advertise and sell the real estate in his possession at public auction to the highest bidder at Ogallala July 15, of the Valley Land and Cattle company and decreeing that no bid shall be received or accepted for less than $10,000.

The title of the case is Henry B. Read, plaintiff, against Riley H. Haswell and others, defendants. The order of the court also states that bids may be received for the purchase of the hay on said premises for the year 1904, in the event that the real estate is not sold, with the right to put and stack the same and remove it from the premises or to feed the same on the premises, except on hay land, the purchaser of said hay to surrender the premises to the persons entitled to possession thereof not later than May 1, 1905.

SUES FOR MONEY ON BONDS

Barber B. Conable Fights for Eighty-eight Thousand Dollars from B. & N.

Suit has been filed in the United States circuit court against Butler county (Nebraska) for $88,000 bonds issued in 1879 in aid of the Lincoln & Northwestern Railroad company, or the Blue Valley & Northwestern, part of the B. & N. Railroad company. Barber B. Conable is the plaintiff.

The petition states that on May 1, 1879, the Board of Commissioners of Butler county authorized the subscription of a proposition to issue and give its bonds in the amount of $83,000 to the railroad company to aid its entrance or construction through the county. The proposition was submitted, voted upon and carried and the road was constructed. Plaintiff states that he is the owner of seventy-six of such bonds of the denomination of $100 each and each has twenty interest coupons attached thereto, all of which are long past due, neither the face of the bonds nor interest having been paid, and that there is now due him from the defendant $83,000, for which he asks judgment against Butler county.
