WASHINGTON, June 24-A sweeping change in the cabinet of President Roosevelt was announced officially at the White House today. The announcement came in the form of a brief typewritten statement issued by Secretary Loeb, as follows:

"The following cabipet appointments are announced: William H. Moody of Massachusetts, attorney general; Paul Morton of Illinois, secretary of the navy; Victor H. Metcalf of California, secretary of commerce and labor." The resignation of Secretary Cortelyou and Attorney General Knox have been accepted to take effect July 1 For two weeks or more it has been known that these changes were impending. When Secretary Cortelyou was designated by President Roosevelt to be his campaign manager it was certain that he would retire from the cabinet upon his assumption of duties as chairman of the republican national committee. Just before he left for Chicago last Wednesday he placed in the hands of the president his letter of resignation from the Department of Commerce and Labor. It was understood between the president and him that the resignation was to be accepted to take effect at the present of the fiscal year, June 30, inclusive. The taking effect of his resignation at that time would afford him an opportunity to complete some work in the department which he had initiated and which it was important he should carry to a conclusion.

One week ago today Attorney General Knox formally announced that he would all parts of the globe. General Booth preretire from the Department of Justice probably at the end of the fiscal year. It extended address. was understood at the same time that Secretary Moody would succeed Mr. Knox as attorney general. The statement was made, however, that, while the transfer of Sec retary Moody to the Department of Justice was very probable, it was dependent, in a measure, on the president's success in securing such a successor for him in the Navy department as he desired.

Mr. Morton An Old Friend. gental man, President Roosevelt tendered the appointment of secretary of the navy to Paul Morton, first vice president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe ratiroad, Mr. Merton is a personal friend of the president of many years standing. He is a son of secretary of agriculture in President Cleveland's last administration. Mr. Morton has had experience in Washington, having been here with his father.

Since President Roosevelt has been in the White House he has made more than one effort to induce Mr. Morton to accept a position in his administration. Feeling that his life work in the railroad business, in which he has achieved success, might be impeded by his acceptance of an official position in the government, he uniformly has declined all such proffers. In conse quence with this feeling, he declined the proffer of the portfolio of the navy. He was requested by the president to consider his disinclination. He took dinner at the White House and the whole subject was considered, after which Mr. Morton had consulted with his personal and bustness friends and associates. At the conthe president he would accept the position in the cabinet. Then it was that the other changes, one of which, at least, was contingent upon Mr. Morton's action, was de cided upon definitely. It is expected that cabinet next winter. Postmaster General Payne will retire from the cabinet after the campaign. He will be succeeded by National Chairman Cortelyou. Secretary Moody will continue as a member of the cabinet only until the end of the present administration, on March 4 next, when he law in Boston. It is quite likely that other changes will take place in the event of Mr. Roosevelt being elected president; but no authority exists at this time upon which to base a forecast of them.

Cabinet Holds Meeting. Pelicitations on his unanimouts nomination by the Chicago convention were extended to the president today by the members of his cabinet assembled for the regular sami-weekly meeting. In addition to discussion of the political situation and at a storage warehouse here today by an exchange of congratulations the president and cabinet considered some important public business. It was decided that toms rates imposed by the Dingley tariff law should be imposed upon all goods imported into the American sone on the Isthmus of Panama, except on such goods as may be shipped there from the United The American sone is regarded as United States territory. The enforcement of the tariff law will be placed in the hands of Governor Davis. CHICAGO, June 24.—The United State Merchant Marine commission, created the late J. Sterling Morton of Nebraska, under the provisions of the Gardner bill, passed at the last session of congress, conferred with Chicago manufacturers, shippers, exporters and bankers today with a view to formulating plans for rehabilitating the merchant marine of this country on the high seas. After leaving Chicago, the members of the commission will visit the Pacific coust. It is the intention of the commission to formulate a definite plan for increasing the number of ships carrying the American flag and submit the plan to congress for consideration next session. Senator Gallinger in calling the meeting to order said it was a source of gratifi cation to the commission to note the great interest the movement had aroused among shippers and business men in all parts of the country.

John Barrett, former minister to Siam and Argentine Republic, and at present minister to Panama, was the first speaker.

I have traveled around the world five times and have recently completed a trip of 50,000 miles in the interest of the St. Louis exposition, and in all my journeys I regret to say that I did not see one mer-chant marine ship flying the American flag. The speaker described the great wealth further changes will take place in the of the Argentine republic and expressed the opinion that the United States should establish a subsidiary line of ships between this country and the principal souther ports. Captain William B. Bates of Denver read a long paper on the rise and fall of the merchant marine.

Canadian Abbe Says Laymen Are Neglecting Religion. MONTREAL, June 24 .- At the celebration today of the feast of St. John the Baptist, the national holiday of French Canada Abbe Brosseau preached rather a startling sermon to thousands in Notre Dame. He said that a crisis had arrived in church matters, thanks to a lack of harmony between the Catholic clergymen and laymen. The laymen, he declared, were neglecting their religious duties more and more, the clergy were not up-to-date, and he expressed the desire of the archbishop that PROCLAMATION NOT CLEAR Blanks for Rosebud Registry Obtainable at Any Point Where Applicante Can Register.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, June 24.-(Special Telegram.)—An erroneous wording of the president's proclamation spening to settlement lands in Gregory county, South Dakota, ceded by the Sloux Indians to the United States, is causing the general land office officials no end of trouble. The sentence to which reference is made reads as follows:

"To obtain registration each applican will be required to show himself duly qualified by written application to be made on a blank form provided by the commissioner of the general land office, to make a homestead entry of these lands under existing laws and to give the registering officer such appropriate matters of description and identity as will protect the applicant and government against any attempted impersonation."

The language of this clause would seem to indicate that blank forms could only be obtained from the office of the commissioner of the general land office at Washington. Such, however, is not the fact. These blanks are really only obtainable at the registration points named in the proclamation, namely Chamberlain, Yankton, Bonesteel and Fairfax, S. D. The chief clerk of the general land office, Macey, today issued the following andeavor to clear up the misapprehension which has been caused by the careless wording of the proclamation:

proclamation:

Referring to the president's proclamation of May 13, 1904, providing for the opening of the Rosebud indian reservation in which it is stated at the bottom of page 3 that applicants to register must use a brank provided by the commissioner of the general land office, these blanks can be obtained only at the registration points in South Dakota named in the proclamation. The only blank given out from the general land office at Washington is the blank form of power of attorney for use of soldiers who desire to register by an agent.

The committee has clothed me with power to do what is best from the Chamber of Commerce building Fairbanks and until I have a comprehensive grasp of what is to be done, naturally, nothing can be said."

Get Busy in July, Mr. Cortelyou goes to Washington to-morrow, as will Secretary Dover, to arrange details at that end. Mr. Cortelyou will remain east for some little time after he leaves the Department of Commerce and Labor, on July 1, but expects to be in Chicago about the middle of July, when the active work of the campaign will begin. Chicago headquarters will be the Auditorium Annex, where they have been during the last two campaigns, and in New York they will be in the Manhattan Trust It is thought the visit of Eimer Dover to the national capital at this time in connection with Secretary Cortalyou is for the purpose of giving President Roosevelt firsthand information of conditions and to outline a plan of campaign with the nominee. The vice presidential nominee, Senator Fairbanks, will have very little to do with the running of the campaign and whatever after by his friend, Colonel Ransdell, sergeant-at-arms of the senate.

It was thought that Mr. Cortelyou's hurried return to Washington was for the purpose of arranging his family affairs and possibly sending his family to Hempstead, L. I., but this the chairman denied, stating that his family would remain in Washington, as he had taken the house he now occupied for a term of years.

Will Be Business Campaign. There is absolutely no change in George B. Cortelyou since the days when he was secretary of President McKinley. He has the same hearty handshake and goodnatured smile as of old, power and prestige, in no way having changed this man who has won every position he has occupied by sheer force of merit. There will be no lagging behind if Cortelyou can prevent it and the campaign will be a business campaign, every man connected with it being looked upon to do his share of

Japs Intend to Wear Out the Enemy by Continued Night Activity-

PRELIMINARIES TO THE BIG ASSAULT

Kouropatkin Said to Be Retiring in Order to Avoid a Meeting with Oku and Kuroki's Armies.

CHICAGO, June 24 .- A special to the Daily News from Che Foo says: Another demonstration took place off Port Arthur yesterday. Firing began from the forts about 10 a. m. and continued until 1 p. m. The program was about the same as on the previous day. The destroyers and torpedo boats pursued the same tactics and an auxiliary cruiser lay off the island until the firing had censed, when it proceeded eastward at full speed. On the same evening firing began heavily distant firing was heard, evidently from the land side of Port Arthur, continuing until 2:30 this morning, with a brief renewal at 5 o'clock a. m. During that period there was an almost uninterrupted thunder as of field guns and volley firing, functuated with crashes as of siege guns.

It is probable that what took place was a general shore action, with a naval demonstration. It seems as though the Japanese intend to wear out the defenders by continued night activity before making a final simultaneous sea and land attack.

General Battle Expected. BERLIN, June 25 .- General Gaedke, correspondent of the Tageblatte in the far east, telegraphing from the Russian headquarters, says that on June 22 the Japanese occupied Kai Chau and that a decisive battle of the united armles of General Oku and General Kuroki with the Russian main army is expected shortly. Cavalry is Ineffective. GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUAR-TER'S IN THE FIELD, Via Fusan, June 22 .- (Delayed in Transmission.)-A Russian cavalry division, commanded by General Rennenkampff, opposes the Japanese right flank. The country is mountainous and almost impossible for cavalry operations, although it is ideal for infantry movements, hence the cavalry forays upon which the Russians have greatly depended to harass the Japanese have proved ineffective.

Kouropatkin is Retiring. ST. PETERSBURG, June 24.-5:47 p. m .-Today's news from the theater of war indicates that General Kouropatkin will not give battle to the combined armies of Generals Oku and Kuroki near Kin Chou, Doubt s now cast upon the impression prevailng for several days that the bulk of the Lino Yang army had been advanced southward, though it may that General Kouropatkin is concentrating his forces in the neighborhood of Hai Chang. The only thing that can be stated with certainty is that the information received by the war office shows that General Kouropatkin has no intention of seriously contesting the Japanese advance on Kin Chou, which would seem to carry with it the decision to practically abandon the entire peninsula to the enemy, and as a necessary consequence the withdrawal of the Russian troops from New Chwang.

According to the latest reports General Oku's outposts are four miles north of Senuchen and the Russian outposts are eight miles north of the same place and gradually falling back along the line of

It is likely that the Japanese will reach Kin Chou in a couple of days, General Kuroki's three columns seem to have sugpended their advance, pending General Oku's arrival at Kin Chou. They are occupying the three roads leading from Siu Yen to Kai Chou, Ta Tche Kalo and Hai Cheng, whence they can move forward simultaneously.

Japanese Position in Doubt. The exact position of the Japanese on the Ta Tche Kiao road is not known, but one column at Vandiapudze, forty miles from Hal Cheng, and another is at Chapanlin, twenty-five miles from Kin Chou, Mills tary critics approve of General Kouropatkin's decision not to fight at Kin Chou, which, they point out, is a particularly unfavorable position, exposed to a fignk from Kuroki on one side and to a possible landing at New Chwang on the other. The Japanese forces engaged in this movement are estimated at 150,000 men and an enormous number of guns. Apparently two divisions have left Port Arthur, which would account for the practical suspension of the siege operations, but which may also be due to the reported loss of the siege train on board Japanese transports, Although much interest is manifested in the foreign reports of the loss of these guns and in the reports from the same sources of the drowning of Commander-in-Chief Oyama and his staff, the admiralty, has no confirmation of these rumors.

BOT SKIRMISH WITH THE JAPANESIS

Russian Scouts Surrounded by Cavalry, but Cut Their Way Out. LIAO YANG, June 24.-Captain von Lang and twenty-six volunteer scouts have rejoined the command, arriving here after a ot skirmish with the Japanese rear guard Von Lang and his little command started out on horseback to investigate the numbers and movements of the enemy. rode clear around the Japanese advance and gained important information regarding the Japanese position. When in the rear of the Japanese main body they were sugrounded by two companies of cavalry, but they cut their way through with subree and poignards, losing scattered. They escaped to the hills, where the Japanese cavalry was unable to follow them, and they sucheded in rejoining the olors with much information Reinforcements are constantly arriving at Liao Yang. CASE TAKEN OUT OF PINNISH COURT
