ONE LIFE IS LOST IN STORM

C. A. Swanson, Farmer Near Benson, Killed While Plowing in Field.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING AND DIES AT ONCE

Minor Accidents to Property as Result of Electric Storm, Which Brings Heavy Rain After Hot Spell.

The storm that followed the heat of the past few days left in its wake one fatality and several instances of damage to property caused by the lightning. C. A. Swanson, a farmer residing five miles west of Benson, was struck by lightning and almost instantly killed at a late hour Thursday afternoon. Mr. Swanson was plowing corn in a field when the bolt hit him. He is survived by a wife and four children. The funeral will be held at the home Sunday afternoon. At 5 yesterday morning lightning struck a chimney on a three-story dwelling house at 1414 South Fifteenth street. Several families occupying the house were asleep at the time of the accident and were badly frightened by the loud report of falling brick and the electric fluid. The bolt shattered the chimney to the second floor and damaged the roof more or less. Frank Roberts, who rooms on the second floor, was hit on the arm by a brick. Part of the chimney fell through into his room, where the lightning expended itself, knocking a revolver from a shelf and throwing it across the room. Several minor injuries to trees and sheds are reported from various parts of the city. Almost An Inch of Rain. The storm was accompanied during the night with considerable thunder and lightning. "The amount of rainfall up to 7 o'clock Friday morning was .58 of an inch," said Weather Forecaster Welch. "The rains have been general from the central valleys to the mountains, and today continue from the central valley to the lakes. The heaviest rains were in the southeastern and eastern portion of this state. However,

TWO PICNICS AT RIVERVIEW

Orphans from Benson Home and Children of St. Philomena's School at the Park.

It was a very happy thought that induced the Knights of Columbus to give an outing and picnic yesterday afternoon to the ninety orphan children of St. James' Catholic Orphanage of Benson at Riverview park. Cars were provided for the children at Benson and they left the orphanage at 11 a. m., about an hour before commencing the ride to Riverview park at the southeastern limits of the city. Abundant provision of cakes, ice cream, candies and fruits furnished by the Knights of Columbus and their wives added material pleasure to the outing. At the park the day was given over to picnicking, six of the sisters of the orphanage accompanying the party to assist in the care of the children. A grand picnic dinner was served shortly after noon, and the afternoon was spent in games, foot races and a good time generally. The foot races were by the children under the direction of several of the knights, and provision was made that every participant in the races should receive a cash prize. The impulse of foot racing was so contagious that Ed W. Simons and Father McGovern of St. Philomena church were pressed into service and ran a twenty-five-yard steeple chase, Simons winning by a foul, in trying to elbow Father McGovern off the track. The race between these two was declared a draw and the money, 10 cents, was divided between them. Following the racing, all of the children of the orphanage were called up into line and each of them was given a present provided by the knights and their wives. It is hard to tell which enjoyed the picnic the most, the knights or their little guests. Several group photographs were taken of the party before it dispersed. In another part of the park the children of St. Philomena school were also picnicking under the charge of Father McGovern, and they, too, had a most enjoyable time, there being about seventy-five of them. Both picnics passed off without an accident, and it was nearly 8 o'clock before the picnickers boarded the special street cars for their homes.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES

"The Charity Ball" at the Boyd.

What is really one of the finest of David Belasco's collection of comedies—although he had the assistance of Mr. DeMille in getting and arranging the material—was given to a large audience at the Boyd theater last night by the Ferris stock company in almost faultless manner. The character studies afforded by "The Charity Ball" are of the sort that appeal to the conscientious stage worker, and it would be a poor actor who could not feel the inspiration of a role in this play. Mr. Sullivan is a strong and virile John Van Buren and very nicely balances the contest between the enthusiastic churchman and the man who is merely actuated by his inheritance from Adam. Mr. Owen finds in the complex character of Dick Van Buren just such a bundle of contradictions as gives him delight in expressing and enters on the part more than his usual zeal. The fine scene between the brothers in the third act is splendidly rendered, while the finale to this act is given with the utmost dramatic intensity. Miss Pavey and Miss Hill assisting in the climax admirably. Mr. Caldwell gets the comedy out of Judge Peter Gurney Knox deftly and effectively. Ann Cruger is by far the best role Miss Pavey has had this season and she realizes it; it is the character of a strong, true woman, sorely tried but never wavering in her fidelity to a high ideal and she plays the part with great attention to detail and effect and her results are most satisfying. Miss Hill gives Phyllis Lee in her customary careful way and is splendid in the emotional scene in the third act. Miss Davis is a lively and lovable Bea and Miss Carmentelle is sweet and dignified as the mother of the Van Buren family. Mr. Long has staged the play with his customary care, and has given it almost appropriate setting. It went unusually well last night, the little jars looked for in a first performance being entirely absent and its reception was most cordial. It will be the bill until after the matinee on Sunday. What Follows Grip? Pneumonia often, but never when Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is used. It cures colds and grip. 50c, $1.00. For sale by Kuhn & Co.

WAR AND PEACE SCORES AGAIN

Combination of Band and Soldiers in Cheered by Immense Audience at Auditorium.

Innes and his band, the festival chorus, the vocal and instrumental soloists, the old and the new soldiers who took part in the musical allegory, "War and Peace," were given an ovation by an audience of just 400, exclusive of the soldiers and band, at the Auditorium last night. No larger audience has attended any of the dedication concerts, for it would be a physical impossibility to crowd any more people into the hall without perching them on the steel rafters. The program was the same last night as it was two weeks ago last night, with the
