So long as small boys and Chinese ingenuity combine to celebrate the day with red fire and noise, the family circle is in danger of depletion. The pistol that is "not loaded," the fire cracker that has refused to go off and demands relighting, the small cannon that is overcharged, keep the maternal bosom in a flutter from dawn till dark and set telephone and ambulance bells ringing. In the case of any wound following an explosion, cleanliness is of vital importance. The majority of deaths from Fourth of July injuries can be traced not to the actual explosion, but to lockjaw, which sets in from a carelessly dressed wound. This must be borne in mind by the mother or older member of the family who dresses the small boy's injuries, when a surgeon cannot be obtained at once.

No injury, especially if due to a pistol, should be regarded lightly, and the best of surgical attention is none too good.

and roil her on the grond. If the clothing sticks to the burned spot, wet it with water or oil and cut it away from the wound. If the burned space is large, dress a little at a time, excluding the air. This last is important, as the contract of air with the burned surface not only cause pain, but is largely responsible for scarring.

Cover the burn with a solution of linseed oil and lime water and swathe in the antiseptic gauze. If the patient suffers from shock this condition will be indicated by coldness of the entire body, feeble pulse and drooping eyelids, if not complete insensibility. Apply hot water bottles around the body, rub the arms and legs and apply mustard plasters to the wrists and soles of the feet. If the patient is conscious, administer mijk, tea or coffee, but do not give an alcoholic stimulant until ordered to do so by the surgeon, who should be indicated by the manager of Drury Lane Scarecrow, a dumine. They know that only in this way can the glad time be reached when Each for the joy of working, and each in his separate star.

This evening at the Boyd theater the Ferris flock company will present another of those interesting old plays, "Man and Master." This is a micodrama, but is written with care and gives splendid opportunity for the acting ability of the company. Its story is of the genuine sort, and has always proven interesting. Mr. Sullivan will appear as Gerald O'Neili, the many free weaks of the dome manufacturers is fully as good as could and fultire consumption as being considered with the merchants in the full unreaded. id cent from the high time. Jobbers say that at the present time there is nothing to justify high prices on either dried fruits or canned fruits.

Trade with local jobbers is reported as being exceptionally heavy for the time of year and considerably shead of last year.

cotten Goods Taxe a Drop.

The cotton goods market has reacted to some extent from the high prices that have been prevailing for some time past. The general feeling new seems to be that both cotton and cotton goods have been higher than the public would stand, and as a resuit certain reductions became necessary. The reductions made range from 7½ to 10 per cent on leading lines of staple cottons. Among t e most important is the decline on American prints, amounting to ½ cent on indigoes, mournings, grays, shirtings and long cloths. Manufacturers have announced, however, that these piloes are subject to change at any time without notice and it is thought by many that a reaction will take place in the near future. The consumption of cotton goods is said to be as great as at any former time and although the market is not as firm as it was sixty days ago, still manufacturers claim that very lew goods are in first hands.

In regard to the condition of trade locally jobbers say they have no cause for complaint. The demand for June has been largely in excess of a year ago and prospects for the future are much better. Advance orders are the largest they have ever been and indications are that there will be more buyers in the city this fall than there were last spring.

In speaking of fail styles in dress goods a local jobber said that it was predicted some time ago by critics in the east that mohairs and sicilians would not be as good this fail as they have been in the past. This prediction, however, has not proven true, as goods of this character in both plain and faucy weaves have been taken more largely than was predicted by a great many dress goods people and it stands to reason that they will be worn for skirt and coat suits more largely than has fail.

Broadcioths in both blacks and colors are stronger for the coming season than they have been for several years past. Their productions of the clinging, draping family are very good and promise to hold their own this fail and during the spring season of 1906.

The Drury Lane Scarecrow, a dupplicate in every detail of makeup and stage business of Fred Stone's imperishable creation, was a tremendous hit in London. Now some astute French manager has seized upon the Cowardly Lion in "The Wizard of Oz" and made this most original travestry of the King of Beasts the principal comedy feature in the latest summer "Revue" at the Folies Bergeres, Paris.

Victor Herbert last week completed the score for his new opera, "The Enchanted Isle," which Messra. Hamlin, Mitchell and Fields will present early in the season at the Boston theater. A party of Mr. Herbert's personal friends who are likewise his severest critics were privileged with a private plane hearing of "The Enchanted Isle," and one and all declared the music to be in his lightest and most sparkling vein. Victor Herbert is too ambitious a musician to make any concessions to degenerate popular taste and his work is always up to the highest scholarly standard. But in "The Enchanted Isla", he has caught some of the swing and spirit of Offenbach, that frothiest of operatic geniuses.

Leather Goods Selling Well. Leather Goods Selling Well.

Boot and shoe men are doing a vory nice business in the way of sizing up orders. Retaliers are now selling more stock than they have for some thine past and as a, result find it necessary to get new suppiles in the more popular lines. Future outsiness is also coming slong in very satisfactory manner and jobbers are beginning to fill orders to the more distant points.
Rubber goods are rather quiet, the same as usual at this time of year. Jobbers, though, are making use of the opportunity to get their fall stocks in shape and are beginning to make shipments to the far west or wherever the goods are wanted early.

ireak in Wire. Nails and Sheetiron.

There was a very perceptible weakness in the hardware market last week. It was particularly noticeable in wire and nails, on which a decline of 10c was announced. It was accompanied with a decline of 20c per 100 pounds on galvanized and black sheets. The immediate cause of this break in prices was a decline in pigiron of $2.00 per and a second will be followed by others, particularly in heavy hurdware where the gaw material is an important factor. It is now evident that the price of both the raw material and the manufactured lines has been too high in many gases and that trade has been restricted. Outside manufacturers in search of husiness have shaded prices until a general reduction has become necessary.

Locally, trade conditions are very satisfactory. Jobbers all agree that business is running considerably shead of last year and that prospects are very enournesing for the future. They are making preparations for the best fall trade that has been experienced in a long time.

A $4 gold coin belonging to Dr. Charles J. Lange is on exhibition at the Germania National bank in Milwaukee. The piece of gold is thinner than a $5 coin, but of the same diameter. It displays on the obverse side the "liberty head" without a cap and the thirteen stars, interspersed with "16387C" grams." On the reverse side is a nive-pointed star with this inscription: "One stella." and on the rim "United States of America, 4 Doi." The coin is valued at $500.

Rev. J. B. Shoup of Fitzgeraid, Ga., has started to waik from Cumperland, ind., to St. Louis, $60 miles. Mr. Shoup is quite an elderly man, being a union veteran of the civil war, but he is robust in spite of his age. He carries little more than a cuange of clothing, expressing his baggage from piace to piace. After spending some time at St. Louis Mr. Shoup expects to attend the mational Grand Army of the Republic encampment at Boston and then to go to Gettyaburg to the requision of his regiment, the Third Pennsylvania heavy artilizry, in October, after which he will return on foot to his home in Georgia.
