This is desired in order that one paving district may be made of the territory from Thirteenth and Missouri avenue to Twentyand referred to the judiciary committee for a report. Another ordinance pertaining to intersection paving will come up. When the ordinance was passed declaring the necessity for paving Thirtieth street from Q to Y streets no thought was given to

Investigation of the records yesterday showed that only $3,268 remains in the intersection paying fund. It will be neces-eary for the council to pass an ordinance for $6,000 worth of Intersection paving bonds at once in order that the work may not be These bonds will run for ten years and draw 5 per cent interest. Both of these ordinances will be read tonight and

Tuesday night there will be another called meeting, when the judiciary committee will report and the ordinances read a second Wednesday evening there is to be a meeting for the third reading and final passage of the ordinances in question. These ordinances will be signed by Mayor Koutsky as soon as passed, so that the publication can commence not later than

Thursday.

Then there is talk of holding a called meeting on Thursday night for the purpose of allowing June bills and salaries. If this is not done the clerk could not issue warrants for such accounts against the city until after the meeting to be held Temperance Convention Closes. Last night's exercises at the Methodist Episcopal church closed the annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union of Douglas county. No services were held in the other churches in order that those who desired might attend the closing meeting of the convention.

Mrs. E. M. Covell, county president, delivered the address of the meeting. Her theme was "County Work." Under this topic Mrs. Covell told about what had been done during the last twelve months in working temperance reform among the restdents of the county. She said that among young people, especially, the work had been remarkably successful. In predicting for the coming year Mrs. Covell said she oped to be able to state at the next convention that many converts to the cause ad been made.

Rev. Dr. R. L. Wheeler, pastor of the First Presbytarian shurch, delivered an adfrees, his theme being "Watchman, What of the Night." This address was in the nature of a straightforward temperance lecture and told of the scenes the night watchman is compelled to witness and the nduct of those under the influence of liquer, Dr. F. M. Lankton of Omaha spoke on "Non-Alcoholic Medication."

The following officers will conduct the affairs of the county union for the coming years Mrs. H. M. Coyell, Omaha, prestdent; Mrs. George W. Whitmore, Valley, vice president; Mrs. E. P. Whitney, Ell City treasurer; Mrs. G. P. Carley, South Omaha, recording secretary; Mrs. William Todd, Waterloo, corresponding secretary.

Republican Rally Tuesday Night On Tuesday evening of this week the recently organized Roosevelt and Fairbanks Republican club of South Omaha will hold meeting at lorgenson's hall, Twentyfifth and N streets. At this meeting it is expected that a permanent organization will be parfected. As matters now stand the club has a good sized membership roll and the chances are that many will join on Tuesday night. This club is the first sevelt-Fairbanka club to be organized n the county and the members propose to push it along.

Hay Arrested Again. ree days ago Judge King sentenced Bob to thirty-three days on the rock pile on a charge of vagrancy. Ray had been out of the city for some time, but drifted back to his old haunts on lower N street and Railfoad avenue. When arrested Ray used to make it hot for the police for faring to place him in a cell, but he stayed in a cell until Judge King sentenced him to the rock pile. He promised that if let this time he would go away from South mha and stay. Judge King thought it otter to run chances than to have the city feed the man for a month and so he let him go with the suspended sentence over his head. Yesterday asternoon Ray toward his old resorts when Captain Shields happened along. He put Ray under arand this morning the young man will start out for the rock pile. In order to make sure that Ray will stay around awhile a forty-pound ball and chain has set aside for him. The police say that they will not permit Ray to remain in the city unless he is in sustody.

As it is, the bridge is being constructed rapidly and the expectation is that it will be open for traffic in about six weeks. "While the bridge may not be entirely completed by August 1," said one of the officials of the railroad company in charge of the construction, "we intend to have the viaduct open for traffic on or about that date. Of course there will be the painting and a lot of things to be done to complete the bridge after the roadway is opened. The people can rest assured that the Union Pacific and the Union Stock Yards officials are doing everything possible to hurry matters slong.

Will Sign Bonds Today. A package of blank bonds from Spitzer & Company, Toledo, arrived Saturday and will be signed by the mayor and city clerk today. These bonds are for the improvement of South Twenty-fourth street and Railroad avenue. The package contains fifty-nine bonds of the denomination of fourth street. This ordinance will be read $1.000 each. As the signatures of the mayor and clerk are lithographed on the interest coupons the officials mentioned will be required to sign their names only fifty-nin timer. As soon as the bonds are signed they will be turned over to the Packers National bank here. Cashier Morierty will notify the purchasers and when the money is paid the bonds will be shipped by express to the state fiscal agency in New York City.

Curbing Commences Wednesday. City Engineer Beal stated yesterday that all arrangements had been made for the commencement of the laying of curb stones on South Twenty-fourth street and Rallroad avenue. Work is to commence on Wednesday. Material is now on the tracks and the cars will be unloaded as rapidly as workmen can set the curbing. The grading of the streets is a small matter as compared with the curbing and paving. Contractor Hannon asserts that he will finish the paving inside of three months.

These were some of the epigrammatical itterances of Max Morris of Denver, fourth vice president of the American Federation of Labor, secretary of the Retail Clerks' National Protective association and editor tiser, at the biennial meeting of the International Association of Journeymen Horseshoers, which convened in Labor temple yesterday morning for the week. Some sixty Morris said: "Organized labor stands for justice and pholding the laws and constitution of the United States. Do not let it be said by any resolutions that may be passed by to meet force with force. By observing a just appreciation of the laws and advocating the faithful observance of law we will find that public opinion is with us. Continue absolute friendship within our lines and conduct our business on a conservative basis. Resolve to continue your rganization in such a way that it will forever be a credit to labor unions.
