GREAT TUG OF WAR FOR ELEVEN INNINGS

Pa's Boys Outbat Colorado Springs and Put Up Fine Came in the Field Except Two Fatal Plays.

Jupiter Pluvius tried to stop a good game at Vinton street yesterday, but only managed to delay it for a few minutes after the second inning. After that the Rourkites and the Deported Miners went into the fray tooth and claw for nine more innings. The Springs crowd won in the eleventh, when two costly errors gave them as many runs. One would have been enough for that matter, as Omaha's last turn at the bat brought nothing of any value.

Each cohort went into the seventh inning with a run to its credit. They were abreast in the going until the eleventh, when things went 3 to 1 and the fans went Brown peddled the ball for Omaha and while he was wild at times he more than made up for that feature by striking out seven men, playing a good fielding game and pitching himself out of more than one hole. His work for the most part was superb. The support behind him until the fatal eleventh was magnificent.

Villaman twirled for the Springs crowd and well. He gave transportation but once and struck out five men. While Omaha plucked nine hits from his delivery cart he kept them pretty well scattered. In the eighth inning Jamesy Ryan displayed a piece of heady management work and retired McNeely, sending Graham to his field and putting Kahl at third. This change proved a material strength to the

The last and decisive inning will bear an autopsy, and not without interest. Ryan knocked to Howard, who made a beautiful run and stop, but in throwing to Gonding at first he came nearer rightfield and Ryan went on to second. Then big Jack Thornton essayed to hit and Captain Ryan scored. Blake went out on a fly to Carter and Radeliffe followed with a hit that should have been a put-out. Then Radcliffe made for second and in trying to catch him Freese threw the ball away and Thornton scored. Omaha took another bat, but failed to change the figures any. Omaha, with one earned run, had lost and Colorado Springs, with three runs, each and every one a present, took the Several of the "old guard" were heard to remark that Johnny Gonding is playing a great game at first and it is said that Pa has noticed something of the kind himself. Gonding is certainly keeping awake at the bag, a thing which more than one first baseman often falls to do. Attendance,

BETTING ODDS ARE ON YALE

Thousands of Visitors Filling London to see Big Race.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 22.—The annual regatta of Harvard and Yale oarsmen, scheduled for the Thames river course tomorrow, served to transform this town tonight. Throughout the afternoon and during the early evening thousands of visitors poured into New London.

Tonight the sky was overcast and a light fog drifted up the harbor. The prospects are for fair weather and exceedingly satisfactory water conditions. Prevailing odds are on Yale at 2 to 1.

At one of the hotels a slate of results that seemed to have some supporters had it that the four-oared race would surely go to Harvard; that there was every prospect of a fairly stiff fight between the freshmen eights, with probabilities in favor of Harvard, and that Yale 'varsity eight would win the big race after a grueling contest. WANT DIP ORDER CHANGED

Western Stockmen Make Appeal for Modification of Rule of March.

DESIRE TO SUBSTITUTE INSPECTION

Matter of Change is Now Under Consideration by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and the President.

WASHINGTON, June 29.-By an order promulgated in March by the secretary of agriculture, it is required that all cattle west of the Mississippi river intended for shipment should be "dipped" in a preparation prescribed by the department for the purpose of absolutely exterminating the skin disorder known as the mange, which has existed to a limited extent for many years in that section. This order, if rigidly enforced, would require that all beef cattle, whether affected by the mange or not, should be dipped twice before shipment. As it has been found impossible to make preparations and round up and dip the tattle within the limited time allowed numerous petitions have reached the department praying for a relaxation of the order. Today a delegation appeared before the secretary of agriculture and later called on the president, requesting the order be so modified as to obviate the dipping of beef cattle before shipment and in lieu thereof to institute rigid government inspection at the point of shipment before the cattle are loaded on the cars. The delegation consisted of former Senator Carter, Representative Dixon and Hon. Conrad Kohrs of Montana, Mr. Fuell of the Union stock yards of Chicago and Joseph Rosenbaum, representing the Chicago commission houses.

The subject, which is regarded as of the first importance, will be given careful consideration by the president and Secretary Wilson.

No News of Loomis. It was said at the State department to day that there was still no news from the department's agents in Europe respecting the whereabouts of Frederick Kent Loomis, who disappeared from the Kaiser Wilhelm II on June 20 off Plymouth. The affidavit of Mr. Flamm, the passenger who deposed that he saw Mr. Loomis land at Plymouth, has not yet reached the State department, but the officials have given close attention to the newspaper abstract of the affidavit, and are inclined to think that this is a case of mistaken identity on the part of Mr. Flamm, in view of the accuracy which has hitherto characterized the returns of the steamship company as to the boardings and landings of its passengers. However, ders the vaccinated person exempt from assuming that Mr. Flamm may be right, smallpox; or at worst, he never has say- the theory most generally accepted here thing but the lightest kind of a case. is that the missing passenger may have been concealed by some of his friends in a sanitarium until he shall have recovered from his fit of abstraction.

In addition to the trouble caused by the unexplained disappearance of his brother, Assistant Secretary Loomis has been further distressed by news of the alarming illness of his uncle on the paternal side. He has been obliged to leave Washington hastily for Marietta, O., where Mr. Loomis lies ill.
