ing with official denial by the Japanese government of the reports of mutilation A simple denial is not exculpation.

A simple denial is not exculpation. We do not deny that our wounded are well treated at Sasebo and other Japanese cities, where well organized hospitals are operated under the eyes of Burope; but on the field of battle, when the Russians are forced to abandon the wounded, a cruel fate awaits them, as their agonised ories there cannot be heard in Ehrope. An officer was found in a pitiable condition, but still breathing: He was restored to conscious-ness and said he had been fired upon de-liberately by a Japanose soldier. His deposition, signed by the Russian authori-ties and several military attaches, will so n be in our possession. General Romanoff has made a detailed report apon the subject to the Red Cross, and Prince Jaime de Bourbon has fur-nished testimony regarding the battle at Vafangow. We have reason to believe that the Japanese massacre and mutilate the wounded, but treat well for the eyes of Europe those remaining after the massacres. The proportion of dead to wounded will prove much that it is hardly possible now to determine; but sooner or later the truth will come out. During the Turco-Russian war the Turk-ish atrocities were incredible. When on the march General Skobeleff came upon half naked and horribly mutilated Rus-slans, who said to the English correspond-ents: "Behold, gentismen, an instructive spectre. Let the people of your country know what they are sustaining." In this dilemma the Japanese must prove, but not by affirmation, that the allegations suddenly from a state of cruel barbarism to one of civilization by means of purely technical skill, without passing through the incomparable school of 1,860 years of Christianity, which, perhape, is the most valuable possession of Europe. CHE FOO, July 2 -- 7:30 p. m -- Tt has been earned here that a big battle was fourbil on land near Port Arthur on June 16 and June 27. The Japanese were successful and on the morning of the 28th they occupied certain heights within ten miles of Port Arthur. The first Japanese division, which suffered so heavily at the battle of Nanshan hill, and the Eleventh division, fresh from Japan, were engaged. The Japanese louses have not yet been learned, but the Russians are said to have suffered very heavily. Refugees who left Port Arthur yesterday and who have arrived here declare that wounded Russians were being brought in by the hundreds. Other refugees from Pigeon bay assert that hundreds of wounded Russian soldiers were passing near the bay, being transported in numerous and various kinds of conveyances. The fact that the Russian wounded were seen at Pigeon bay, which is due west of Port Arthur, would indicate that the Japanese have advanced along the east and west coasts of the peninsula at the same time. The two divisions which attacked Port Arthur were composed of 40,000 men and an independent artillery corps.

As a matter of precaution the Japanes have landed a division of 10,000 men on one of the Elliott group of islands, and on June 28 they landed the sixth division of 10,000 men at Kerr hay. The Eillott islands Twenty Chinese were killed and twelve are about ten miles southeast of Pitaewo
