Jacksonians' Mascot Curls Up for Slumber During the Convention.

TWO HUNDRED BRAVES GO TO ST. LOUIS

All Wear Parker Buttons and Prepare for Good Time No Matter What the Convention

at 9:30 last night the Jacksonian club "kitty" nestled in the corner of a dark room and went to sleep with more than a reasonable assurance of being undisturbed for several days, for at that hour a special train pulled out of the union station with practically all of the friends of the "kitty" on board. The train headed for St. Louis and as it is a long ride the 200 Jacksonians took with them a well stocked commissary ear from which they may all draw an occasional life preserver. Just a cursory giance at the "baggage" taken along forces one to the conviction that the excursionists are not going awry on the irrigation question, no matter how they may go on matters of tarff and imperialism.

At the club rooms yesterday afternoon, while preparations for the journey were being made, Ed Berryman opened his gripsack and disclosed the presence therein of a nightshirt. Cries of derision greeted the garment and its owner and Ed P. Smith expressed the disgust of all the democrats gathered thereabouts when he said: "Who heard of anyone taking a nightshirt to a democratic convention; if that gets out on you, Berryman, you won't he allowed within two blocks of the headquar-

Dave Rowden, for many years one of Mr Bryan's best friends, pinned a Parker button on the lapel of his coat, and Will Herdman declared that the sight of Dave and the button would be the "last dreg in the bitter cup" to be forced upon William Jennings at St Louis.

Gets Some Sleep in Advance. "Bob" Achison did not reach the club ooms until late in the afternoon, after having spent the greater part of the Fourth

"You can't tell, you know," he explained, "how long a tellow will have to sit up in the smoking compartment tonight to get Charley Epstein then saw visions of nothing better than nine-spots and observed that he didn't care how he fared on the train, anyway, because "he had friends in Freddie Cosgrove and Johnnie Rine kept ussion of candidate and platform at the club rooms during the afternoon and evening: everybody was in a joking mood and it was evident that the Jacksonians were out for fun rather than serious consideram of the party's future. Of course the Jacksonian club went on record some months ago in favor of Parker for president, and the members will wear their badges at St. Louis with Parker buttons for pins. They undoubtedly will do some outing for the New York judge, just to let the convention know that Nebraska is not altogether in the hands of Mr. Bryan. C. J. Smyth of Douglas county, G. W. Phillips of Platte, J. A. Cowperthwaite of

Holt, Howard Whitney of Barpy, T. J. O'Keefe of Box Butte, J. J. Wilson of Custer and X. Piasecki of Howard are the Nebraska delegates who went to St. Louis re in Mr. Bryan's camp they wore the facksonian club badge without the Parker

> The Thousand Islands. may be somewhere on the earth a ore delightful region than that of the Thousand Islands, but if there is, it has not been discovered. It is the vanice of erics, but also has good hotels that can be kept warm if there shall happen to be a cold rainy evening. It is as fine as the Bay of Naples, with 2,000 picturesque/ islands scattered along the twenty-five miles of one of the most beautiful rivers in the world. You can find out a great deal regarding it in No. 10 of the "Four-Track Series," "The Thousand Islands." Copy will be mailed free on receipt of a 3-cent stamp by George H. KITTY MAY SNOOZE ALL WEEK ONCE OFFICER AT FORT CROOK Major Matthew Leepere's Death Attracts Sympathy of Friends in This City.

Major Matthew Leepere, formerly conract surgeon at Fort Crook, died suddenly at Glen Cove, N. Y., just two weeks following his return from the Philippines. of illness contracted in the islands. Major Leepers was formerly a lieutenant in the Fourth United States cavalry, resigning from that regiment a number of years ago. During the Spanish-American and Philippine wars he was appointed a major surgeon in the United States volunteers and was mustered out some two years or more ago. Shortly thereafter he was given an appointment in the civil medical department in the Philippines and there contracted an filness that resulted n his death. He was about 50 years of age and will be well remembered in Omaha Farnam street, Omaha, Neb. from his services at Fort Crook.
