ONE DEAD AND THREE HURT

Man Killed and Others Badly Wounded at Sarpy Mills.

GUILTY ONES NOT YET DETERMINED ON

Woman Identifies One of Prisoners Suspected as Man Who Fired the Fatal Shot - Police Are at Work.

Five men are confined in the city jail at South Omaha on suspicion of having participated in the killing of Charles Best, a grader, and the wounding of Frank Vincent, Patrick Cahill and Willie McNelll, a lad about 8 years of age.

Those under arrest are Charles McGrath, Dan Losey, Tim Carr, Jack Broderick, Tim Broderick and Mike McCann. Chief Briggs and Detective Eisfelder arrested these men at saloons in South Omaha Tuesday morning. The prisoners admit having been at Sarpy Mills park Monday night, but deny having had anything to do with the shoot-

Mrs. Patrick Cahill called at the South Omaha police station shortly after noon today and identified Tim Carr as the man who shot Charles Best. Carr lives at Thirty-third and R streets and has a long police record.

The remains of Best, the grader who was killed, were taken in charge by the coroner of Sarpy county. Vincent, another grader, is at the South Omaha hospital, pretty badly used up. He was shot in the back and the bullet has not been removed yet. Patrick Cahill is suffering from a bullet hole in his right cheek, but physicians say he will come out all right unless blood poison sets in. Tengedy a Mystery.

Just how the tragedy came about no one seems to know, Joseph Mailander, owner of the park, said: "I was just-about ready to close up my place when I heard a number of revolver shots fired in quick succession in my bar room. Several men were shooting all at five of the men arrested on suspicion were once and I saw a number run as soon as the firing began. There was so much ex- picked out Tim Carr. She said that Carr citement that it was impossible to find out anything about the affair. When Best and Vincent fell the others in the bar room ran and in less than a minute there was not one of the crowd about the place." "The deputy sheriffs who look after the order of the place on days when there is a big celebration had gone home and only a few men remained in the bar room. I was not personally acquainted with any of those in the place at the time the shooting occurred.

Chief Briggs said he was satisfied nearly all of the crowd belonged in South Omaha. "Some of those at the park are working in a grading camp near Sarpy Mills, but the majority belong to a tough gang here. I am now hustling for witnesses and ex-pect before the day is over, to be able to get the straight of the story."

Police Quit for Night. It was not until late last evening that the police of South Omaha quit work for the night on the Best murder at Sarpy Mills park. All of the afternoon was spent in hunting and examining witnesses. Sheriff McAvoy and County Attorney Patrick of Sarpy county were closeted with Chief Briggs for several hours.

Tim Carr was kept in the sweat box for an hour and a half. Carr stuck to his first statement that he had no revolver and did not fire any shots. In the evening

Carr was brought out from his cell and tioning. It was evident he was weakening as he contradicted himself many times. He first declared that he had no pistol and had not fired a shot; he later admitted that he carried a gun and might have shot a few rounds of blanks.

Relatives and friends of Carr made sev eral efforts yesterday afternoon to speak with Carr but Chief Briggs denied all, The other suspects in jail are to be held as witnesses and will, so it was stated last night, be called upon to testify at the coroner's inquest on Thursday.

Dr. Armstrong, coroner of Sarpy county, caused the remains of Charles Best to be removed to Brewer's undertaking establishment in South Omaha yesterday. Before having the body removed from the county the coroner impaneled a jury and announ ced last evening that an inquest would be held Thursday at 9 a. m. at Papillion.

In lookink over the effects of Best memoranda was found showing he had lived at Beemer, Neb., and that he had a son about 15 years old. This son was located at Stanton, Neb., by the coroner and notified of the death of his father. Best had only $3.50 in money and a watch. Attached to his key ring was a plate showing that he was, or had been, a member of Lodge No. 276, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Malvern, Ia.

Coroner Armstrong learned that Best had been working for some time for Frank Sharp, a grader who is doing some work in Sarpy county. Thursday last Best told Sharp that he wanted to lay off for a time and he was paid $75. The coroner searched diligently for money in the dead man's effects but located only the amount mentioned.

No arrangements for the funeral will be made until after the inquest. At the suggestion of Coroner Armstrong Undertaker Brewer will communicate with the Odd Fellows lodge, Malvern, and ascertain the wishes of the lodge in the disposal of the remains.

Easily Identifies Carr. When Mrs. Patrick Cahill called at the city jall in South Omaha Tuesday afternoon to identify the man who did the shooting brought out. Without any hesitation she had been around the park nearly all day hunting for trouble but that he did not become boisterous until after dark when some of those in the mix-up commenced to drink heavily. Mrs. Cahill declares that the park had been closed for the night and that those in the barroom were about to start for home. She says Carr made an insulting remark to her and this was promptly resented by her busband. It was then that Carr drew a revolver and fired. The first shot struck Best, who she asserts was standing at the bar minding his own business and was not concerned began in earnest. Henley Regatta Begins.

HENLEY, England, July 5.—The Henley regatta was opened today with unpromising weather. General interest in the event was hardly up to the average owing to the paucity of foreign entries. There were no entries from the United States and only two from Canada, those of the Winnipeg "four" and the Toronto sculler, Scholes. There were no other competitors from abroad. As the Winnipegs drew a bye they will not row until the final heat for the Stewards' cup Thursday. The spectators when the racing commenced were not so numerous as usual and there were fewer houseboats.

L. A. Scholes, the Canadian sculler, won his heat for the diamond sculls today, defeating S. R. Wells of the Bedford Rowing club by four lengths. Time, 9:32 Henley Regatta Begins.
