

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.50...

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Daily Bee (without Sunday), per copy, 2c...

OFFICES. Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building...

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Publishing Company...

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss. George B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

Net total sales, 87,374. Daily average, 29,112.

THE RIDDLE OF THE SPYRAX IS SOLVED. Escopus has spoken and St. Louis trembled.

Senator Tillman says he objects to political bosses. This will be news in South Carolina.

West Virginia coal miners will have something to say about that candidate from their home state.

The agitation for a sane and safe Fourth of July should be kept up until it is an assured fact.

Judge Parker has succeeded in creating more interest in the fate of Watson and Tibbles than was ever expected.

If all of Parker's utterances cause as much uproar and bickering as his first, where will the "united democracy" ever land?

The commercial agencies report a notable increase of confidence in business circles. The election of Roosevelt and Fairbanks is almost an assured fact.

Mr. Bryan delivered the west in 1890 and now it is up to David Bennett Hill to show what he can do in the east with his no longer silent candidate.

Parker could not be satisfied with a nomination. He had to hold a triumphal procession with the former free silver champion chained to his chariot.

What has become of the proposed readjustment of electric lighting lamps, and what has become of the ordinance providing for a municipal electric light plant?

Williams Jennings Bryan is a pretty good orator, but the greatest feat of his life is yet reserved for him, namely, straddling the populist and democratic platforms.

Three new elevators and at least one flouring mill are already in sight and more in prospect. That means more to Omaha than anything that has happened since the establishment of the meat packing industry.

The proposed extension of the Union Pacific branch lines from Norfolk into South Dakota by way of the Rosebud reservation will be hailed with satisfaction by Omaha business men and by the people of northeastern Nebraska.

VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.

The democratic candidate for vice president is not well known to the country and he comes from a state—West Virginia—that has only seven electoral votes and is classed as safely republican.

It is not remembered that Mr. Davis showed any marked qualities of statesmanship when he was in the national senate, or that at any time in his political career he manifested any ability beyond that of the ordinary politician.

The nomination of Henry G. Davis looks like a political mistake. It was supposed that the convention would select a candidate for the vice presidency from the middle west or the northwest.

AN HONEST FOREIGN POLICY. In his address at the semi-centennial anniversary of the republican party, Secretary Hay said in regard to the foreign policy of the United States:

The history of American diplomacy shows that our government has always pursued the policy of treating foreign nations fairly and honestly, and if this fact has been more conspicuous during the last five or six years than at any other time, it is because in this period our government has been called upon to take a larger part in world affairs than formerly.

What has become of the proposed readjustment of electric lighting lamps, and what has become of the ordinance providing for a municipal electric light plant?

Williams Jennings Bryan is a pretty good orator, but the greatest feat of his life is yet reserved for him, namely, straddling the populist and democratic platforms.

Three new elevators and at least one flouring mill are already in sight and more in prospect. That means more to Omaha than anything that has happened since the establishment of the meat packing industry.

The proposed extension of the Union Pacific branch lines from Norfolk into South Dakota by way of the Rosebud reservation will be hailed with satisfaction by Omaha business men and by the people of northeastern Nebraska.

In the morning Mr. Parker said, "I shall say nothing until I am formally notified of my nomination," but before the shades of evening fell he had said something and that something in no uncertain terms.

CHANCES FOR COLLEGE MEN.

Opportunities are many, but must be fought for. A young man who says he is a college graduate, presumably the year 1904, though he does not say so, writes to complain of the public taste as he has observed it.

Hobson's labor talk in the national democratic convention recalls forcibly the indirect utterances of the political preacher whose alliterative denunciation of rum, Romanism and rebellion lost James G. Blaine his election to the presidency.

RUSSIAN DISCONTENT ACUTE. Recent advices say that discontent in Russia has become acute and that the prisons are being filled with persons of intellectual note, while increasing numbers are being banished or deported to Siberia.

Heading for the Coast. The Milwaukee road must be going to Seattle after all. The purchase of tide lands, presumably for terminal facilities, has been announced.

Woolly Cry for More Money. The cry of the populists for more money has been answered. There is more money in circulation than ever before.

Drinking Men at a Discount. Total abstinence pledges, prohibition laws, the exhibition of "horrible examples" in dissection, have not been enough.

POLITICAL SNAPSOTS. Indianapolis News: And just to think, not more than three months ago many people were nervous about the Hearst boom.

OMAHA MUST HELP ITSELF. "Heaven helps those who help themselves." This applies as well to communities and cities as it does to every individual.

THE PEOPLE OF ARMOURDALE HAVE GROWN SO ACCUSTOMED TO THE ANNUAL UPSURGING OF THE KAW RIVER THAT IT HAS DOUBTLESS COME TO BE LOOKED UPON AS SOMETHING TO BE EXPECTED, SIGHED AT AND MEETICALLY ENDURED.

THE PEOPLE OF ARMOURDALE HAVE GROWN SO ACCUSTOMED TO THE ANNUAL UPSURGING OF THE KAW RIVER THAT IT HAS DOUBTLESS COME TO BE LOOKED UPON AS SOMETHING TO BE EXPECTED, SIGHED AT AND MEETICALLY ENDURED.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE WAR.

Mulden, the ancient capitalist of the Manchurian army, and toward which the Japanese armies under Kuroki are persistently moving, has a past that is a wonder.

Each side of the two walls is pierced by two windows, and at the top of the wall is surmounted by a roofed, flanking tower. Opposite the center of the outside wall of each side of the town itself, and distant therefrom about a mile, is a large pagoda.

Japanese Journalism is developing on western lines, and with surprising rapidity. The events of the present war are responsible for extras which are sold on the street in the American fashion.

A lady traveling in Japan gives the following sketch of an inn at which she stopped: "The landlord and his wife and the servants all come to talk to you and to inform you of the company that you are to have."

George Melas, writing about the private life of the czar in Success, says: "The czar earns a bigger salary than any other man in the world."

THE FOUR-YEAR TERM. Hard-headed business men complain about the immense sums of money that our national political campaigns cost.

THEY SAY IT IS A LIAR. His Methods and Means of Procedure. Old Gorgon Graham in Saturday Evening Post.

THEY SAY IT IS A LIAR. His Methods and Means of Procedure. Old Gorgon Graham in Saturday Evening Post.

THEY SAY IT IS A LIAR. His Methods and Means of Procedure. Old Gorgon Graham in Saturday Evening Post.

THEY SAY IT IS A LIAR. His Methods and Means of Procedure. Old Gorgon Graham in Saturday Evening Post.

OPINION OF THE STATE PRESS.

Norfolk News: After the rush is over at Rosebud and the other Rosebud towns the people who have gone there expecting to draw a fortune in Uncle Sam's lottery will be ready to take hold of some of the valuable offerings in north Nebraska.

Long Pine Journal: It is noticeable that there are a few knockers against Judge Kinkaid's 60-acre homestead law—just a few. It is further noticeable that these knockers are the men who have big tracts of government land fenced in their pastures.

NEBRASKA PERSONAL AMENITIES. Burt County Herald: What will the populists of this county think of their nominee for vice president, T. H. Tibbles, "Buck Tibbles," the squaw man?

PHILADELPHIA. Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

PHILADELPHIA. Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

PHILADELPHIA. Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

PHILADELPHIA. Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

PHILADELPHIA. Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

PHILADELPHIA. Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

PHILADELPHIA. Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

Secretary Morton made a good start by reprimanding, on his first day in office, an officer of the marine corps who committed an unprovoked assault on a negro.

WHITTLED TO A POINT.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.

Miss Passy—The idea of Mr. Hoamley asking me if I couldn't learn to love him is a pretty good idea. I never loved him before.