

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.00...

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Daily Bee (without Sunday), per copy, 5c...

OFFICES. Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building...

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company...

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Total, Less unsold and returned copies, Net sales. Rows for various dates from June 1st to July 15th.

What about that municipal paving plant? If we cannot have meat every meal...

Eastern democratic papers are extending much editorial space to prove that Bryan has been extinguished.

It cost Hearst $16,000 in hotel bills alone to run second at the St. Louis convention.

Great Britain must be getting ready to do something in Tibet or some other remote part of the world.

Eastern democratic papers are extending much editorial space to prove that Bryan has been extinguished.

Panama objects to the presence of an American customs house in the canal zone.

Bellevue college is really almost as much of an Omaha institution as if it were located within the corporate limits.

Novel schemes for advertising have not all been exhausted.

After all Omaha is not so badly off as St. Louis, judging by the following paragraph in the Republic.

Russian official announcement of trial by jury for political suspects contains an "exception clause."

It is easy to understand France's refusal to perfect a treaty providing for the return of persons accused of bribery from that country to America.

Having rejoiced for twenty-four hours over the report of the loss of 30,000 Japanese soldiers in battle the people of St. Petersburg are now anxious to ascertain how much of truth the report contains.

Manifestly those railroad tax agents and lawyers who are preparing for an onslaught on the state board of equalization next week are trying to set themselves right with the railroad magnates.

"Calinity" Weller is preparing for one of the old-time populist campaigns in Iowa.

It is in accord with the eternal fitness of things for the local scavenger sheet, that clips all of its dispatches and most of its local news from the morning papers.

PARTY RECORDS AND PLATFORMS.

The records of a political party are more important than platforms and in the coming campaign the American electorate will consider what the parties have done rather than the promises they now hold out.

The democracy has been uniformly the party of obstruction and reaction. It has persistently put itself in the way of the country's advancement.

With such a record what claim has the democratic party to the confidence and support of the American people? It is now willing to renounce what it had professed to hold sacred.

The record of the republican party is one of such great and splendid achievement as to appeal alike to the pride and patriotism of the people.

DEATH OF OOM PAUL KRUGER. The aged man who died yesterday at Clarens, Switzerland, had for a time been prominent in the world's attention.

Dispatches from Chicago indicate that the strike of the packing house workmen will be settled by arbitration.

LIBERTY TRANSFORMED INTO A RIOT OF RECKLESSNESS. The Fourth of July celebration of Liberty having transformed itself into a riot of recklessness.

CONTROL OF THE FOURTH. The Fourth of July celebration of Liberty having transformed itself into a riot of recklessness.

NOT A DEAD ISSUE. When the proposition to establish a municipal lighting plant was up for discussion two years ago.

Down in Lancaster county the execution of the scavenger law has been abandoned for a year because the treasurer found himself unable to prepare the tax record in time to file the suit.

The principal feature of the celebration of the French national holiday in Paris was the free performances at the theaters.

It is in accord with the eternal fitness of things for the local scavenger sheet, that clips all of its dispatches and most of its local news from the morning papers.

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK.

Hippies on the Current of Life in the Metropolis. "It would not be true to say that the good priest is laughing yet."

Cuba has let a contract for the removal of the Maine from the harbor at Havana. Until the hull of that vessel is exposed it will be hard to determine if the act is one of friendship or hostility to the United States.

Pat's Trust in Trusts. Baltimore American. New Jersey's trust in trusts yields that enterprising little state over two millions, besides the prestige of engineering a corner in monopolies.

DEMOCRATS AND THE MERIT SYSTEM. The St. Louis platform says the democratic party "stands committed to the principles of civil service reform."

Returns Not All Is. Cleveland Plain Dealer. After all, the rate of life casualties are only a few less than those of 1903.

Usual Trek of the Lawyers. San Francisco Chronicle. When one reads the speech of John Sharp Williams, delivered as the keynote of democratic policy in the national convention at St. Louis.

Risks Taken with Human Lives. Baltimore American. The accidents which seem to be making themselves a feature of the year emphasize the fact that wholesale slaughter of passengers will continue until criminal carelessness or willful neglect on the part of operators and owners of transportation facilities is made subject of penal legislation.

Why Teachers Are Scarcer. Boston Transcript. Teachers were never so hard to get, it is said, as this summer.

Extraneous Harpoon. Boston Transcript. Some cases of heroism in great emergencies are larger in fact than they are in appearance.

Former Senator J. M. Thurston of Nebraska was walking down Broad street, New York, the other day with a friend when his attention was called by his companion to the mirror.

AN AWFUL FIRETRAP. The St. Louis Casket Co. calls out a few remarks. Springfield Republican. The aftermath of the St. Louis convention affords various reflections.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.00...

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Daily Bee (without Sunday), per copy, 5c...

OFFICES. Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building...

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company...

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Total, Less unsold and returned copies, Net sales. Rows for various dates from June 1st to July 15th.

What about that municipal paving plant? If we cannot have meat every meal...

Eastern democratic papers are extending much editorial space to prove that Bryan has been extinguished.

It cost Hearst $16,000 in hotel bills alone to run second at the St. Louis convention.

Great Britain must be getting ready to do something in Tibet or some other remote part of the world.

Eastern democratic papers are extending much editorial space to prove that Bryan has been extinguished.

Panama objects to the presence of an American customs house in the canal zone.

Bellevue college is really almost as much of an Omaha institution as if it were located within the corporate limits.

Novel schemes for advertising have not all been exhausted.

After all Omaha is not so badly off as St. Louis, judging by the following paragraph in the Republic.

Russian official announcement of trial by jury for political suspects contains an "exception clause."

It is easy to understand France's refusal to perfect a treaty providing for the return of persons accused of bribery from that country to America.

Having rejoiced for twenty-four hours over the report of the loss of 30,000 Japanese soldiers in battle the people of St. Petersburg are now anxious to ascertain how much of truth the report contains.

Manifestly those railroad tax agents and lawyers who are preparing for an onslaught on the state board of equalization next week are trying to set themselves right with the railroad magnates.

"Calinity" Weller is preparing for one of the old-time populist campaigns in Iowa.

It is in accord with the eternal fitness of things for the local scavenger sheet, that clips all of its dispatches and most of its local news from the morning papers.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.00...

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Daily Bee (without Sunday), per copy, 5c...

OFFICES. Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building...

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company...

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Total, Less unsold and returned copies, Net sales. Rows for various dates from June 1st to July 15th.

What about that municipal paving plant? If we cannot have meat every meal...

Eastern democratic papers are extending much editorial space to prove that Bryan has been extinguished.

It cost Hearst $16,000 in hotel bills alone to run second at the St. Louis convention.

Great Britain must be getting ready to do something in Tibet or some other remote part of the world.

Eastern democratic papers are extending much editorial space to prove that Bryan has been extinguished.

Panama objects to the presence of an American customs house in the canal zone.

Bellevue college is really almost as much of an Omaha institution as if it were located within the corporate limits.

Novel schemes for advertising have not all been exhausted.

After all Omaha is not so badly off as St. Louis, judging by the following paragraph in the Republic.

Russian official announcement of trial by jury for political suspects contains an "exception clause."

It is easy to understand France's refusal to perfect a treaty providing for the return of persons accused of bribery from that country to America.

Having rejoiced for twenty-four hours over the report of the loss of 30,000 Japanese soldiers in battle the people of St. Petersburg are now anxious to ascertain how much of truth the report contains.

Manifestly those railroad tax agents and lawyers who are preparing for an onslaught on the state board of equalization next week are trying to set themselves right with the railroad magnates.

"Calinity" Weller is preparing for one of the old-time populist campaigns in Iowa.

It is in accord with the eternal fitness of things for the local scavenger sheet, that clips all of its dispatches and most of its local news from the morning papers.

Every Hospital of prominence in America uses... LITHIA WATER. THE RICHARDSON DRUG CO., 22 JACKSON STREET, DISTRIBUTING AGENTS.

CHARACTER TO THE FRONT. Intellectual Leaders Consider It the Solution of National Problems. The keynote of all the addresses that have been made lately at college commencements and at meetings of business men's associations has been the development of character.

POLITICAL SNAPSHOTS. Kansas City Star: The "statement" William Jennings Bryan has published can hardly be called a Card of Thanks. Baltimore American: It is a shame to submit the country to the harrowing ordeal of a campaign where there is no doubt as to the outcome.

San Francisco Chronicle: The democrats make a great deal of fuss about trusts in their platform, but it is noteworthy that the men who are backing Parker are up to their eyes in the trust business. Portland Oregonian: No doubt there will be appeal in many quarters for Judge Parker, on the ground that he is better and safer than his party.

PERSONAL NOTES. Fred M. Warner, republican candidate for governor of Michigan, is of English birth. Senator T. C. Platt has purchased Villa Eden, at Highland Mills, N. Y., to please his wife, who says she is tired of "living around in hotels."

THE ECHO OF A SONG. J. W. Foley in New York Times. To my fancy, idly roaming, comes a perfume of the lilac and the rose. Comes a fragrance from the blossoms of the lilac and the rose.

AN AWFUL FIRETRAP. The St. Louis Casket Co. calls out a few remarks. Springfield Republican. The aftermath of the St. Louis convention affords various reflections.

AN AWFUL FIRETRAP. The St. Louis Casket Co. calls out a few remarks. Springfield Republican. The aftermath of the St. Louis convention affords various reflections.

AN EYEGLASS SALE. HUTESON OPTICIAN. 213 So. 16th St. Paxton Block. KODAKS AND CAMERAS.