LAST GAME HARD FOUGHT AS THE REST

Despite Six Errors by Home Team it Wins, Des Moines Being Uanble to Hit Quick at Right Time.

Quick pitched a good game yesterday and your Pa added a third Hawkeye piume to bis well-feathered bonnet when Omnha won the last of the series from the Bill Hoffer crowd at a 4 to 2 gallop, Omaha picked fruit in the ninth when with one man out, two runs were whisked in. There was no use for further argument and Bobby Caruthers put up his shutters and Beckley, in. went home.

Until the last act the Probibs threw out the delusion that they were going to split even on their visit here. Omaha had made a run each in the third and fourth, but a couplet for the visitors in the fifth balanced those and it was all hands round until the eighth. Then Des Moines led to the center with another run | Boston field. The same Thiel gobbled it up before the ball could be fielded within bounds. Thomas had broken the fiftyyard record and tied the score. There were yet two men on bases and only one out when Carter aspired to make a hit and he did. Howard went to the bat with the bases full. He knocked to Lefield who fielded to George Clark in order to force Schipke out. But Clark not only dropped the ball, but interfered with the runner and Schipke scored and the day was Pa's.

It is only to be regretted that the most excellent series which the Prohibs brought to town with them couldn't have remained superfine until they left. But rank errors which butted into the game at frequent intervals spolled the good effect of the Quick conducted himself remarkably well in the face of such discouraging support, and that Des Moines made no more runs than it did is because it couldn't hit the ball when it would have found swats most timely. Of the seven hits which the guests made during the afternoon but two were counted up in one inning.

Lefield, too, peddled nicely until the ninth, when a stack of of three ripe hits, done to a brown, were turned over by Clark's poor behavior

There was but one earned run during the show, which Oninha made in the fourth. Welch thit and Dolan advancedhim to second by a pretty sacrifice. Doubting Thomas got a hunch that there ought to be something doing and lambasted the ball for a good two bases, scoring Welch. Score: OMAHA.
