PICKPOCKET ROBS A BOY

Takes Twenty-Five Dollars with Which He Was Sent to Make Purchases.

TALKS IN FATHERLY WAY TO YOUNGSTER

Affair Immediately Reported to Police and Good Description of the Thief is Furnished by Victim.

Mrs. William J. Lauterwasser, living at 1154 East Pierce street, sent her 12-year-old son Dean yesterday afternoon to the bank to get a check cashed, with the proceeds of which he was to pay the rent, make some purchases at a dry goods store and bring the balance home. Young Lauterwasser cashed the check and paid the rent without any mishap, but he never made any purchases at the dry goods store and he reached home without the balance of the money.

After paying the rent young Lauterwasser went to the dry goods store to make the purchases his mother had instructed him to make and was intently gazing into the show window, admiring the display, when he felt a hand placed on his shoulder. Turning around he noticed a kindly looking old man, who asked him what in the window had struck his fancy.

"Nothing particular," replied young Lauterwasser.

"What is this sticking out of your pocket? You should be more careful, as some one might steal it without you knowing it," said the elderly looking individual, as he patted the youngster's hip pocket. Young Lauterwasser naturally reached for his hip pocket and pushed the package he had there deeper down, but failed to take notice of the fact that the stranger had inserted his nimble fingers into his other pocket and abstracted the envelope in which was $25, the balance of the check after paying the rent. The elderly man made a few commonplace remarks about the heat and then walked away.

The boy went into the store, made the purchases he had been instructed to, but when he came to pay the bill he discovered the money was gone. It then flashed across the youngster's mind that the elderly, kind looking man, who had taken such an interest in him, had robbed him. Before going home and telling his mother he notified the police and gave a good description of the supposed pickpocket.

Program of Whist Tournament.

Official announcement of the midsummer meeting of the Central Whist association to be held in this city Friday and Saturday, August 12 and 13, is now being sent out to the several clubs comprising the league. As had been anticipated the committees in charge of arrangements has definitely decided to hold the tournament in the ballroom of the Grand hotel instead of at Lake Manawa as heretofore. This is the program arranged for the meeting:

Friday—2:30 p. m., pair contest; 8 p. m., pair contest.

Saturday—2:30 p. m., final pair contest; 8 p. m., free-for-all pair contest.

As has been the custom heretofore, handsome gold buttons will be awarded to the pair showing the highest plus in each contest.

These are the officers of the association: President, John P. Organ, Council Bluffs; vice presidents, J. Howard Gates, Sioux Falls; Michael Waters, Sioux City.

These cities have clubs in the association: Council Bluffs, Omaha, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Yankton, Denison, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Lincoln, Grand Island, Red Oak, Des Moines, Topeka, Leavenworth, Elk City.

From advices received by the local committee a large attendance is looked for and a special invitation has been extended to the women to attend and participate in the tournament.

Romance Ends in Divorce Court.

Another chapter in the romance of Raymond H. McNeill, the young soldier of the Twenty-second infantry who two years ago received considerable newspaper notority, is to be written in the district court here. Maude May McNeill, who before her marriage was Maude May West, and who became young McNeill's bride March 14, 1902, yesterday filed suit for divorce, alleging that her soldier husband has deserted her.

Young McNeill, before his marriage, it will be remembered, had quite a career in this city and Omaha, one feature of which was his arrest as a deserter. At that time the young man went under the name of McGinley, but when the law laid its hands upon him he claimed his right name was McNeill and that he was a member of a wealthy Chicago family well known in the packing business. His marriage to Maude May West, a young girl of this city, culminated the romance, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Henry DeLong.

George W. Points has brought suit for divorce from Leona Points, to whom he was married January 24, 1887. He charges his wife with cruel and inhuman treatment and alleges that she frequently threatened to end his earthly career with a revolver which she was in the habit of carrying around the house. Finally, being unable to longer stand her treatment of him, he fled from his home last month.

Do Not Want Reduced Toll.

The telephone toll of 10 cents between Council Bluffs and Omaha will remain in force. Although no formal request had been made of the telephone company to abolish this toll there was some agitation in this direction at the time the company installed its new system in this city.

The matter was discussed informally by the executive committee of the Commercial club and a canvass was made of the retail merchants of the city with a view of ascertaining their wishes. The canvass showed that the retail merchants generally were opposed to abolishing the toll on the grounds that it might tend to take considerable retail trade across the river. The Retail Grocers' and Butchers' association expressed itself as strongly opposed to it. This being the situation, the agitation died a natural death and no request was made on the telephone company to do away with the toll.

Elevator Contract Let.

A. B. Jaquith notified H. W. Binder, chairman of the executive committee of the Commercial club, yesterday afternoon that he had let the contract for the construction of the grain elevator which he intends erecting on South avenue.

The building will be 130 feet in length and 100 feet in width. It will be of the double-ended type, handling grain at both ends. The ground secured by Mr. Jaquith will give a site of 2,000x225 feet. The elevator will, as already stated, have three house tracks connected with a switch from the Great Western and a like number connected with the Rock Island. In addition to these trackage facilities connections will be made with the Milwaukee road, whose yards are adjacent to those of the Rock Island.

Mr. Jaquith, while notifying Mr. Binder of the fact that contract for the construction of the elevator had been let by him yesterday afternoon, failed to mention the name of the contractor.

Social given by the Ladies' Evangelical Aid society at 926 Third avenue July 21, 1904, afternoon and evening.

William Casey, a deserter from Company K, Thirtieth United States infantry, Fort Crook, was arrested last evening on Broadway by Officer Woods.

The meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church announced for this afternoon has been postponed until Thursday afternoon, August 4.

City Clerk Louis Zurmuehlen, S. B. Wadsworth and John P. Organ returned home yesterday from Iowa City, where they attended the democratic state convention.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lininger, 522 Washington avenue.

J. M. Campbell arrived home late Tuesday night from Yankton, S. D., where he registered for the land drawing. He returned with a broken arm as a result of a runaway accident.

Lewis Neely, a young colored man, whose actions have recently indicated that he was mentally unbalanced and not a safe person to be at large, was committed yesterday by the Commissioners on Insanity to St. Bernard's hospital for observation.

B. A. Peffering, charged with robbing Mrs. Jacobsen in Omaha and who was captured in this city after a long chase by Deputy City Marshal Crum, was taken across the river yesterday. A charge of grand larceny has been filed against him in Omaha.

Miss Julia Clark, aged 86, died yesterday at Mercy hospital, where she has been a patient since January, 1903. Andrew McIntyre, a brother-in-law of the deceased, is expected here today from Colorado Springs, when arrangements for the funeral will be made.

Mrs. Louise Templeman, aged 43 years, died yesterday at Mercy hospital. The remains were taken to Cedar Rapids, Ia., where the funeral will be held today. Mrs. Templeman had been a patient at the hospital since last October, suffering from rheumatism.

Edward Bigelow, a son of Mrs. Sales, living in the southern part of the city, was found to be suffering from smallpox yesterday and was removed to the Detention hospital. He has been traveling with a circus in Minnesota and when the character of his illness was discovered he was sent home by the circus management.

An information charging Lewis Cole with being a fugitive from justice was filed in Justice Ouren's court yesterday. Cole is serving a sentence for larceny in the county jail and is said to be wanted in Quincy, Ill., to answer to a charge of burglary.

The receipts in the general fund of the Christian Home last week were $738.18, being $538.18 above the needs of the week and decreasing the deficiency to $5,183.33 in this fund to date. In the manager's fund the receipts were $18.50, being $16.50 below the needs of the week and increasing the deficiency to date to $362.41 in this fund.

The terrific downpour of rain early yesterday morning flooded the excavation made for the foundation of the new boiler house back of the city jail and the contractors spent all of yesterday trying to pump the water out. The rain also caused the banks to cave in, and consequently there will be a lot more dirt to be dug out.

James P. Suttle, the Parker Amusement company spieler, charged with receiving and concealing part of the clothing stolen from Sheriff Gist of Dillon, Mont., by Harry Robinson, the Neumayer hotel thief, secured his release from the county jail yesterday by furnishing a cash bond of $75. The money was telegraphed here by the management of the Parker company.

James Sheldon, claiming to be a barber from Naperville, Ill., is under arrest, charged with the larceny as bailee of $10 from Thomas Lewis, a well known farmer of Neola, this county. Lewis is said to have given Sheldon a $10 bill with which to buy a bottle of beer. Sheldon kept the change, amounting to $9.75, and this was found on him when arrested by Officer O'Neill.

Martin P. Schmidt, foreman for the Milwaukee road, was severely injured yesterday while working at the scene of the Tuesday wreck, near Greendale, just east of the city. While one of the coaches was being hoisted back onto the track a chain slipped or broke and the car fell against Mr. Schmidt. While no bones were broken he was badly bruised and will be laid up for several weeks. He was removed to his home at 1430 Fairmount avenue.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, July 20.—(Special.)—The republican state convention today was far from being as prolific in interesting features as some of the conventions of the party at other times. It was a good deal of a party love feast, a gathering to jolly up the members and to applaud the national convention, a day for reviewing the achievements of the party, for congratulation on the ticket and for harmonizing differences which have appeared in the party in the state.

The ticket selection was one of the easiest on record. Never before in the history of the party had five unanimous renominations been accorded state officers. It was a tribute to the confidence which the party has in its selected officials that no opposition appeared to them at this time. The only contest was on one office, where the present incumbent had positively refused to be a candidate for a second term. Three of the state officials got third terms—Secretary of State W. B. Martin of Adair county, State Treasurer Gilbert S. Gilbertson of Winnebago and Charles W. Mullan of Blackhawk. Chief Justice Horace E. Deemer of Montgomery county, who has had a full term and nearly all of another, was given unanimous renomination. In like manner Beryl F. Carroll of Davis, who is serving his first term as auditor of state, got a second term with hearty enthusiasm.

For railroad commissioner a fine field of candidates had appeared. They were N. S. Ketchum of Marshalltown, Dr. Frank Porterfield of Cass, Chris Ottosen of Humboldt, Owen Lovejoy of Greene, Edward Sitz of Clay and Welcome Mowry of Tama. The fight between these had waxed warm for some time, but all in good nature. It had been evident for some time that Mr. Ketchum was in the lead, but there was much work done here.

The selection of presidential electors was made with very little effort. There were no contests in the caucuses and all district electors were chosen by acclamation. The caucuses were held in the morning.

Standpatters Gain One.

In making up the state central committee the standpatters made a gain in one district, securing the Fourth, where they elected R. O. Woodward of Fayette county, with one majority over J. G. Hempel of Clayton and J. H. Howland of Cerro Gordo. In the Second district the revisionists elected J. W. McCoy of Clinton over George Swords of Johnson and Arthur Huffman of Muscatine. In the Third district J. S. Stevens was elected to succeed Burton Sweet. Committeemen R. H. Spence, George Scott and Asmis Boysen were reelected. The state committee reorganized by electing Mr. Spence chairman for the fourth time, with Mr. Scott as vice chairman and George Estabrook as secretary.

In the Sixth district a contest was precipitated between the factions in selecting a committeeman on resolutions. George Seevers, revisionist, was elected over Fred Simmons, standpatter.

The caucus selections as to committee were:

Resolutions Committee—First district, J. D. McKenney, Jefferson; Second, Harry E. Hull, Iowa; Third, B. E. Sweet, Bremer; Fourth, H. H. Green, Winneshiek; Fifth, Henry L. Leyton, Linn; Sixth, George W. Seevers, Mahaska; Seventh, J. J. Crossley, Madison; Eighth, C. F. Skirvin, Union; Ninth, Thomas Arthur, Harrison; Tenth, Warrent Garst, Carroll; Eleventh, S. D. Reinker, Lyon.

Credentials—First district, P. M. McAden, Henry; Second, W. L. Lane, Muscatine; Third, Fred M. Kretchmer, Dubuque; Fourth, J. C. Crawford, Waukon; Fifth, E. M. Babcock, Jones; Sixth, George Robb, Monroe; Seventh, S. O. Conger, Dallas; Eighth, D. A. Brown, Decatur; Ninth, George S. Wright, Pottawattamie; Tenth, O. B. Fiske, Palo Alto; Eleventh, J. F. Morris, Sioux.

Permanent Organization—First district, Judge Bell, Lee; Second, David Brant, Iowa City; Third, E. H. Mallory, Franklin; Fourth, A. C. Wilson, Oelwein; Fifth, F. H. Henry, Benton; Sixth, John Morrison, Keokuk; Seventh, T. J. Edwards, Marion; Eighth, C. A. Baker, Lucas; Ninth, Senator C. G. Saunders, Pottawattamie; Tenth, Paul E. Stillman, Green; Eleventh, John M. McDonald, Woodbury.

Calls for Cummins.

It was near the conclusion of the convention that the climax came when the convention demanded that Governor Cummins be heard. The resolutions had been read and at mention of the governor the crowd rose and shouted. The ovation was continued wildly until the governor responded. He did so in a few words. He said he had stated when the convention met here a few weeks ago that he was under the weather physically and politically, but hoped he would soon be better. The better day has come and he thanked the convention for showing it. He wanted to say that he stood upon the platform and that he endorsed every word of the able speech of the temporary chairman.

Convention Details.

The convention met in the Auditorium and the delegations were practically all filled, so that the convention in point of size and enthusiasm was fully up to the past experiences of the party. There was the usual music and decorations. Chairman Spence called the convention to order. Before this event Senator Allison and others appeared at the box and they were given hearty applause. Governor Cummins also appeared later and the applause was redoubled. The convention was in an entirely happy mood and everybody was given his share of attention.

Colonel W. P. Hepburn of Clarinda was made temporary chairman. He spoke at length reviewing the history and achievements of the party. He took hold of the tariff question and indicated that he was heartily glad that every republican in the state was in perfect harmony with the platform. He read from the platforms of the party and declared that the party had not changed, but is right where it has been all along. He declared for protection and for reciprocity, but so carefully worded his spoken speech that he won applause from the great majority of the convention, which was composed of revisionists.

Afternoon Session.

The credentials committee reported all counties represented and no contests. The following were made permanent officers:

Chairman, Charles G. Saunders, Pottawattamie; secretary, James Dewitt, Mahaska; assistants, William Gray, Cerro Gordo; E. E. Johnson, Calhoun; A. D. Daily, Clinton; reading clerks, J. H. Wilson, Appanoose and George H. Wilson, Adair.

The chairman did not deliver an address, and suggested that all speeches be dispensed with.

On motion of Senator Trewin a message of congratulations was sent to President Roosevelt on his nomination and his courageous and successful administration. At the suggestion of Major Lacey it was amended to include a greeting to Senator Fairbanks.

The following resolution was reported and adopted:

We, the republicans of Iowa, in convention assembled, do heartily endorse the platform adopted at Chicago June 21, 1904, by the republican national convention and do hereby declare our allegiance to the same.

We endorse the present republican administration of the affairs of the nation under President Theodore Roosevelt, and believe that the republican national convention acted wisely in nominating Theodore Roosevelt for president and Charles W. Fairbanks for vice president.

We approve the able, conservative and patriotic statesmanship of the Iowa delegation in the national congress.

We commend the able and business-like administration of Governor A. B. Cummins, and also the manner in which the affairs of the state of Iowa have been conducted under the present republican administration.

State Ticket.

With all speeches dispensed with the convention allowed merely the naming of the candidates for renomination for state office, and four were thus nominated by acclamation in a few minutes.

The contest on railroad commissioner came on without a single speech and the roll was called, resulting as follows:

N. S. Ketchum, Marshall, 519; Frank Porterfield, Cass, 329; Ed Sitz, Clay, 139½; Chris Ottosen, Humboldt, 110; Welcome Mowry, Tama, 99; Owen Lovejoy, 83¼.

No choice, as 652 votes were necessary to nominate.

The second ballot resulted as follows:

Ketchum, 778; Porterfield, 390; Ottosen, 48¾; Mowry, 21; Lovejoy, 54¼.

Ketchum was declared nominated.

The convention then nominated Colonel E. S. Ormsby of Emmetsburg and Ex-Senator James H. Trewin of Cedar Rapids for electors-at-large and adjourned.

Newspaper Changes Hands.

ONAWA, Ia., July 20.—(Special.)—The Blencoe Herald has been sold by Fred Wonder to Thomas E. Brown of Blencoe, who will continue the publication of the same. Mr. Wonder established the Herald about six months ago. Blencoe is not the largest town of Monona county, but is quite a lively burg and has achieved considerable reputation on the strength of its two leading industries, politics and baled hay. Both flourish there remarkably well and are cultivated to a considerable extent. Blencoe is the home of Senator E. L. Hogue, and Thomas E. Brown is his secretary and political manager, besides being assistant postmaster, insurance agent, etc. Last winter Mr. Brown was file clerk in the senate at Des Moines. As he is a pronounced republican, the paper will line up on that side instead of being neutral, and is likely to figure considerably in county politics.

Omaha Indians' Powwow.

ONAWA, Ia., July 20.—(Special.)—The annual powwow of the Omaha tribe of Indians commenced yesterday on their reservation, about two and a half miles west of the Omaha agency, and will last for a week. Next Sunday is expected to be the big day and there is likely to be a large attendance. Under instructions from the agent or board superintendent, the celebration this year will be in charge of the "Omaha council," which has named Carey La Flesche as secretary, and who, with the president, will have charge of the festivities, which bid fair to be up to the usual standard. There will be Indian dances, horse races and sports galore. An effort was made by the agent to have the annual powwow abandoned, but the Indians refused to sacrifice their custom and gave the agent to understand that this is their week to celebrate.

KEEPING UP THE LAND RUSH

Over Forty-Six Thousand Registered at Yankton, and Other Places Busy.

YANKTON, S. D., July 20.—(Special Telegram.)—The registration at Yankton today swells the total to 46,670. As the end of the period draws near the excitement increases. Only three days remain. The new registration office makes it possible to register all who come. All comers were registered today save those who were on late trains. The railroads report a vast number coming in the next two days. All roads promise extra facilities to handle the crowds. Yankton still leads the other three places combined by almost 10,000. The lead is increasing at the rate of 2,000 daily. The city has not yet been so full that those who wanted beds could not get them.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., July 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Registrations for the Rosebud drawing continue on the increase at this point. Today the number was nearly double those of yesterday, and the trains tonight brought in nearly 1,200 people. But few of yesterday's arrivals left today, but are staying over for the drawing, and tonight the town is a living hive of excited landseekers. It is estimated that fully 10,000 people will witness the drawing, which begins here on July 28.

BONESTEEL, S. D., July 20.—As the time for closing the registration for the Rosebud land opening draws near the excitement increases. Two and three sections of each passenger train are bringing thousands of belated but hopeful aspirants. The outgoing trains are also daily taking away hundreds of those who have already been placed upon the lists.

Considering the excitement attendant upon the last days of registration there has been more or less trouble. An attempt was made last night to rob a farmer. Four thugs attacked him, but he made such excellent use of his fists that they fled. Later they returned, armed with empty beer bottles, and renewed the attack. Again the farmer, who was a strapping, strenuous, elderly man, proved too much for them. He seized a couple of the bottles and felled two of his assailants, whereupon the four ran and were not captured. Ordinary street brawls are of frequent occurrence, but nothing serious has occurred during the past few days.

Price of State Lands on Rosebud.

PIERRE, S. D., July 20.—(Special.)—The state superintendent of schools has returned from Gregory county, where he put in part of last week with State Auditor Halladay and the superintendent of schools of Gregory county in placing minimum selling prices on lands which it is proposed to offer for sale on the 26th of August. The minimum prices fixed for the different locations are: Section 28, 96-71, $40 per acre. This section adjoins the one on which the new town of St. Elmo is located. Section 25, 96-71, $35 per acre; section 16, 97-72, $30 per acre; section 36, 96-73, $25 to $28 per acre; section 16, 97-73, $25 per acre. While these lands will be offered as are all other state lands, the general understanding is that they will be taken, if sold, by townsite speculators and new towns located on them.

Cavalry Goes to Casper.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., July 20.—(Special.)—The two troops of cavalry at Fort McKenzie, near here, have been ordered to proceed to Casper and there participate in the military encampment which will be one of the features of the industrial convention and exposition in September. Major Robert D. Read of the Tenth cavalry, Fort McKenzie, has been instructed to take command of the troops while in camp at Casper.

Primaries Name Ticket.

PIERRE, S. D., July 20.—(Special Telegram.)—At the republican primary election in this county yesterday for the selection of a ticket the nominees selected were: Treasurer, E. P. Parr; sheriff, Sam Logan; register of deeds, Archie Potter; auditor, W. A. King; attorney, L. L. Stephens; superintendent of schools, Ida P. Hatch; county judge, J. K. Breden.

Name Candidates for Judge.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., July 20.—(Special.)—The democrats of the Seventh judicial circuit have nominated Judge Levi McGee to succeed himself as judge of this circuit. Hon. S. E. Wilson of this place is his republican opponent. The district is republican by a safe majority, although heretofore party lines have not been very strictly drawn in judicial campaigns.

Many Visitors at Hot Springs.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., July 20.—(Special.)—There are numbers of people coming to this place now. The season has been rather backward and cool, but is now exceptionally delightful and the remainder of the season promises to be full of life. About the middle of August the Black Hills companies of the state militia will hold their encampment at this place.

Get Bad Men at Aberdeen.

ABERDEEN, S. D., July 20.—(Special.)—Two crooks arrested in Aberdeen, circus day, for picking pockets are "bad" men from Minnesota and are wanted in that state for their crimes. Extradition papers will be secured.

Fraternal Societies Will Build.

ABERDEEN, S. D., July 20.—Special.)—Five fraternal societies will unite in building a fraternal temple in Aberdeen to cost $25,000. The Ancient Order of United Workmen contributes one-half of that amount.

DEATH RECORD.

J. L. McGee.

BEATRICE, Neb., July 20.—(Special.)—Word was received in this city yesterday announcing the death of J. L. McGee, for the last nineteen years a resident of this city, which occurred in Chicago, where he and his wife went several months ago to spend the summer with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Woods. Mr. McGee located in Brownville, Neb., at the close of the war and operated a ferryboat and general merchandise store there for many years before coming to Beatrice. In 1876, while attending the Centennial exposition he was overcome by the heat and lost his hearing, and a few years later he was run down by an engine at Brownville and sustained permanent injuries to his feet which crippled him for life. Mr. McGee was 71 years of age and is survived by his wife and two children, a daughter and son. He leaves quite a valuable estate. The remains will be interred at Chicago.

Mrs. Mary Hinchey.

Mrs. Mary Hinchey, widow of Patrick Hinchey, died at 9 a. m. yesterday at the residence, 1120 Arbor street, after a long illness. Mrs. Hinchey was born in New York City August 15, 1840, and came to Omaha in June, 1879. She is survived by the following children: Michael Hinchey and Mrs. Bernard Melia of Omaha; Mrs. Joseph Melia, Maurice P. Hinchey, Daniel J. Hinchey and J. J. Hinchey of South Omaha and Mrs. J. J. Collins of Greeley, Neb.

The funeral will be held from the residence to St. Patrick's church, Fourteenth and Castellar streets, Friday at 8 a. m. Interment at St. Mary's cemetery, South Omaha.

Mrs. Gertrude H. Hunt.

Mrs. Gertrude H. Hunt, wife of C. G. Hunt, 2101 Ohio street, died Tuesday night after a lingering illness and patient suffering. Mrs. Hunt was 46 years of age and is survived by her husband and one son, A. C. Hunt of St. Louis. She was a member of George Crook post relief corps and Ivy Rebecca lodge. The bereaved husband is the senior member of the firm of Hunt & Elliott, painters, 1906 Cuming street. Mr. Hunt was a member of the volunteer fire department here years ago. The funeral will be held from the residence Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m.

Funeral of Edgar Morledge.

HASTINGS, Neb., July 20.—(Special Telegram.)—The funeral of Edward Morledge, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morledge, who was killed at Colorado Springs Sunday while on duty as fireman, was held here this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family home. The funeral was in charge of the Masonic lodge, of which order deceased was a member.

Hon. Richard Dobson.

GENEVA, Neb., July 20.—(Special.)—Hon. Richard Dobson died yesterday morning at his home in Bennett precinct, eight miles west of Geneva. He was sick only four days. He will be buried in Grafton cemetery Thursday morning, where his wife was interred a few years ago.

IF YOU HAVE THE NERVE.....
Nothing is impossible. The heroic age never passes away. Now the basis of "Nerve" is health and strength and the basis of health and strength is pure food and drink is a combination of the finest malting barley and the extracted tonic juice of the famed hop-vine. It is extremely wholesome and nourishing, because it facilitates the digestion of solid foods. Indeed, it is both food and drink combined, and an ideal summer beverage for the family circle.
MALT MARROW
