The invitation extended by the president of the United States, under authority of law, to the mations of the earth to participate in the exposition, supplemented by the cordial co-uperation of our diplomatic and consular representa-tives abroad, secured the most extended participation ever accorded to any like undertaking. Moved thereto by the exam-ple of the national government, the states, territories and dependencies of the United States joined in the exposition with un-paraileled generosity and enthusiasm. The groups of palatial buildings erected by the foreign governments and by the states and minor subdivisions of our country, to-gether with the exhibits installed in the exposition palaces provided by the com-pany, bear amplest testimony of their eafrest desire to make the exposition a stock if he can get at it. "I did not get the work of assessing corporate stock finished last year." says Mr Fleming, "but I plan to complete it this year-that is, just as much of the share as I can bring to light. To accomplish this purpose and carry out the law I must have the co-operation of the Board of Review and the Board of Equalization. Last fall I was unable to do all along this line that I wanted to and submitted a list of 502 names to the Board of Equalization of persons who had failed to return schedules and who might be supposed to hold shares of stock in foreign corporations.
