BOTH PITCHERS ARE ON THEIR METTLE

ST. JOSEPH, Aug. 1 .- (Special Telegram.)-In a hard-fought pitchers' battle, coupled with brilliant fielding by both teams, St. Joseph shut Omaha out this afternoon by a score of 1 to 0. Both Brown and Hodson were steady throughout and hits were few and far between. The superb teamwork of both clubs developed an writele of ball seidom seen on a Western league diamond.

The locals scored their only run in the fourth inning when Brown slacked up and allowed Kemmer to bounce out a single close to the left line. Legotte made a short hit and Webster flew out to right, allowing Kemmer to slide home for the Lord of the Vale, August Belmont's Colt, Wins Great Hace,

BARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 1.—August Belmont's Hastings colt, Lord of the Vale, came home winner in the Saratoga handicap here today, and as she flashed under the wire 12,000 people cheered thomselves hoarse. The handicap was the feature event at the opening day of the race season of 1894 at the Saratoga track. Weather was warm, but thousands went to the famous course to witness the unusually fine card of events. The Picket ruled favorite in the betting, having 3 to 5 chaiked against him when the field went to the post, but was beaten out of third money by Caughnawaga by a neck. James R. Keene's Sysonby won the Flash stakes, worth $5,000 to the winner, in hollow fashion. Results:

First race, six furlongs: W. R. Condon 20 to 1, won, Girdle second, Emergency third. Time: 1:18.

Wery Interesting.

Much progress was made in the city tennis tournament now in progress at the courts of the Field club last night. The last of the matches in the preliminary round were run off, the first round was finished all but four matches, three of which stand adjourned, and three matches were played off in the second round. It is expected that all the first and second round matches will be finished by the play this evening.

Several of the matches of last evening afforded much interest for the gallery. The event of the evening, probably, was the contest between Dr. Schneider and Art Scribner. It was one of the peculiarities of the drawing that these acknowledged crack players should meet in the first round and thus provide a battle royal at the very beginning. And it was a battle royal. Scrbner won the first set, outplaying the doctor, showing much brilliancy in form, and opening what looked like an easy victory. But the doctor had other notions, and in the next two sets gave Scribner much to think about and little time to do it in. It was noticed that Scribner's brilliant work did not hold out. The R. West-Haum match was another that was fought for most stubbornly, every set going to deuce. No especial brilliancy was shown by either, but the steady plugging by both players counted for much, and the games as well as the sets often ran to deuce. Baum finally succumbed. L. Wilson and A. Potter exhibited some very showy tennis, as well as an even match, although Wilson held out the better, and took the final set by a deuce score after a really brilliant raily. In the second round the matches were all one-sided. The results:

When a man is leading by six at the sixteenth hole and then bumps into a patch of long grass, requiring fourissen strokes in which to make a hole, whose bogey is four, and finally loses the game by a stroke, it is about as genuine a case of hard luck as ever a golfer ran up against.

This was the case in the match between W. A. Palmatier and J. E. Buckingham, who played off the tie in the contest for the loving cup given by the club, yesterday afternoon, and which Palmatier lost. Palmatier led off in excellent form and gained at every hole. At the sixteenth hole he

WARD AND WRIGHT AGAIN WINNERS

Play Semi-Finals in the Tennis Tour-BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Holcombe Ward of Orange. N. J., and Beals C. Wright of this city, who won the eastern tennis championship in doubles on Saturday at the Longwood Cricket club, won their matches today in the semi-finals of the singles event and will meet tomorrow for the honor of playing the present holder of the Longwood cup, William A. Larned.

Larned defeated William J. Clothier of Philadelphia in a well fought four-set match, principally through better headwork at critical times. Wright had by no means an easy match with R. C. Seaver and also was compelled to play four sets. Three of the four sets in the Ward-Clothier match necessitated extra gaines and the first went to 14-12 before Wardwon.

MRS. SHIELDS COMES OUT AHEAD

Wins First Match for Caddle Bas with Miss Frederick.

The monthly golf contest at the Fleid club for a caddie bag donated by one of the members, which was begun last week, was continued again yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Shields and Miss Frederick played, the game going to the former by two up. This was a surprise to everyone, as Miss Frederick was expected to win easily. But it was her off day and she only succeeded in winning three holes and halving the fourth. Mrs. Shields received a handicap of a stroke at the third, sixth, eighth and ninth holes, but she managed to win the third and eighth holes without the extra stroke.

Both the contestants ran, up against a bunch of difficulty on the seventh green and wandered long and wearily about the railroad tracks in their attempts to get across. Mrs. Shields will have to play either Mrs. Mills or Mrs. Dunn before she can claim the bag. with Miss Frederick.
