WEST ENDERS INSIST

To Descend on City Council and Demand Improvement of Broadway.

WANT MACADAM IF NOTHING BETTER

Also Desire Sidewalks to School House and a Policeman at Night to Watch Over Cochran Park Grounds.

At the meeting of the West End Improvement club last night it was decided that the club descend in a body on the city council next Monday night and insist that the aldermen take some definite action in the matter of improving lower Broadway. In the event of the city council deciding that to pave Broadway with brick would be impracticable owing to the expense and the inability of the abutting property to bear the cost, the club will suggest that the center of the road be macadamised. The macadam, it is contended, could be placed over the present slag filling and a good, serviceable roadway thus formed. The club also discussed the question of better sidewalks in that section of the city and Alderman Crippen was requested to give this matter his personal attention. The conditions alleged to exist in Cochran park at night came up for attention. It was stated that the park was the resort of hoodlums and other objectionable characters and that decent people could not walk through it after dark. It was decided to ask the park board to place a policeman there at night or if it would prove too expensive to have the present policeman divide his time so that he could be there part of the day and part of the night.

The decree in the suit of the First National bank of this city and Dan Carrig against the Mechanics Savings bank of Providence, R. The decree vests the title to the strip in the defendant bank as against Carrig, but subjects it to the lien of $2,100 of the First National bank and interest, making a judgment in all of about $2,500 in favor of the plaintiff bank.

He was fined $5 and costs, but the fine was later remitted on payment of the fine. Stein is charged with keeping the dirt in front of his place, as evidenced by a complaint filed by Contractor Wickham. A dog at Stein's later was putting in the cement sidewalk.

NO PAINT NEEDED ON CANS

Story Causes Much Annoyance to the Secretary of State.

SPECIAL TAGS REQUIRED ON GASOLINE

Girl Who Was Reported Missing Has Been Found Working as a Domestic with Family at Valley Junction.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Aug. 4.—Special.—The secretary of state has been much annoyed lately by a large number of inquiries asking for the supposed new law requiring that cans or vessels containing gasoline should be painted red. It appears that the impression has gone out over the state that all gasoline cans must be of red color. The secretary of state is required by law to mark gasoline cans and vessels, and he has had all these made on red paper that they may be easily distinguished from other tags; but there is no law requiring the vessels to be of any color. It is believed that the story originated with enterprising makers of a patent gasoline can which they had painted red, and they started the story to sell their goods, making the claim that they were the only cans that comply with the law in full. But a great many inquiries have come in regard to the matter and it is evident the fake has got well distributed over the state.

Driven from Home in Storm.

At 3 o'clock this morning a severe electric and rainstorm passed over Des Moines, during which lightning struck the small residence occupied by Marion Fisher and family near West fair grounds. The family was unharmed, but when aroused found that the house had caught fire and it would be impossible to prevent its destruction. They escaped in the rain to the home of a neighbor, but the house was completely destroyed with all its contents.

Head of a Notary.

Attorney Opper at Des Moines has been asked to decide whether or not the bondsmen for a notary public may demand release from their obligation at any time. A young man in Davenport had been commissioned a notary for the benefit of his employers and they had gone on his bond. He then he has changed employers and the bondsmen desire to be released, but the state officials hold that the surety is for a definite term and the bondsmen have no right for themselves to demand release. The attorney general is in doubt as to the rights of the persons affected.

New Savings Bank.

The auditor of state today issued a charter to the Luther Savings bank of Luther, Boone county, capital $10,000, with O. M. Thatcher as cashier.

AMES GIRLS ARE MISSING

Have Been Gone for a Week and Cannot Be Found.

AMES, Ia., Aug. 4.—(Special).—The sudden disappearance of two Ames girls is shrouded in deep mystery. Fay Epperson and Sophrina Cameron, both of respectable families in this city, suddenly disappeared from their homes and friends Thursday last. What has become of them also was said they leave home are the two uppermost questions in the minds of their parents. The last seen or heard of them was Thursday afternoon, when the Epperson girl said that she and her friend, Miss Cameron, had planned to make a visit in the state, who lived near Ontario, a small station four miles west of Ames. It developed later that they never reached their destination. Although a thorough investigation has been going on for the last three or four days no clew has been unearthed that would lead to their whereabouts. Outlying towns have been searched and inquiries made at all railroad stations, but nowhere have they been seen or heard of. The theory has been advanced by some that they have been lured to go to St. Louis by some representative of that city, and a thorough investigation will be carried on to locate them. They are young women of 18 and 18 years of age.

Illinois Central Officers en Tour.

OMAHA, Ia., Aug. 4.—(Special).—A special train with the officials of the Illinois Central railway, including the general manager and assistant general manager, spent considerable time here inspecting their properties yesterday. Just what their particular business was was not seemed to know, and the officials did not state, but seemed to be giving a thorough look at everything around the yards. Their visit has revived the old talk of an extension of the road. When the Illinois Central line in here it was generally supposed that the road would be extended west at an early date, but so far, aside from rumors, there have been no indications of an extension. There has also been considerable talk of extending the road south to a connection with the Omaha & Fort Dodge line near Lincoln, Neb., and the extension of the line has caused considerable speculation as to the object.

A Vile Disease

Contagious Blood Poison has wrecked more lives and caused more misery and suffering than all other diseases combined. Some are inclined to treat it lightly, but these soon learn that they have to deal with a powerful poison that is slowly but surely breaking down the constitution. Contagious Blood Poison not only unites out punishment to the one who contracts it, but others may become innocent victims of it. If your blood is tainted you may live to see your children battling with the same disease—puny and sickly, made miserable by disgusting sores taking it my weight increased and my health improved in every way.

For years I was troubled with the most malignant type of chronic blood trouble. After trying various other remedies without getting any benefit, I was induced by a friend who was cured of a constitutional blood trouble, to take S. S. S. A few bottles cured me permanently. I also consider S. S. S. the best tonic ever made. While taking it my weight increased and my health improved in every way.

S. S. S. is the only antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It destroys the virus completely without injuring the system. It is a vegetable remedy, and we offer $1.00 for proof that it contains a single mineral ingredient. S. S. S. not only works the poison out of the blood thoroughly, but restores vigor and strength to all parts of the system.

Write for our special book on Contagious Blood Poison, describing the different stages and symptoms and containing much other interesting information about this most despicable of all diseases.
