City Trensurer Says Investments Pursuant to Scavenger Act Are Perfectly Safe.

City Treasurer Hennings is anxious to save it understood that it is perfectly safe to invest in sales of property under the scavenger law this fall. He has been frequently asked the question by prospective nvestors and has been rather at a loss to eply until he happened to notice a clause in the scavenger law. This clause, which is No. 42, he says, insures absolute security to an investment of this kind. In fact, according to the treasurer, it is simply impossible for the purchaser to lose. The clause reads:

Whenever a treasurer's sale shall not be confirmed the amount of the purchase price, with 7 per cent interest thereon from the

"This clause should mean thousands of dollars to the city and county," says the treasurer. "It makes the investment perfectly safe. You either get your property or your money back with interest. One would have to look a long time before finding a safer investment than this. The fact should be made known everywhere at once, as it will count heavily in the sale of

DENIES HE IS A COUNTERFEITER Man Arraigned in Federal Court

Pleads Not Guilty of Being Mansfield's Accomplice. Bernard Keegan, living in Sheeleytown vas arraigned before United States Commissioner Anderson on the charge of being onnected with the passing of certain cour terfeit silver deliars at Krug park July 5. He pleaded not guilty and was placed under $1,000 bonds for his hearing at a later date, which has not yet been definitely fixed on account of the difficulty in secur-

MAYOR PAYS ENTIRE CLAIM Gives Check in Full Settlement of Bill to Clerk of the District Court.

Mayor Moores Thursday paid to the clerk of the district court the sum of $4,420.81 in full settlement of the judgment held against him by the school district, for witness fees taken in while he was cierk of the district court.

This finally closes the controversy and releases the mayor and his bondsmen from any further obligations. In the settlement which was made the mayor receives about $30,000 fees due him, while the county recovers only about one-fourth of the amount sued for. The mayor claims still about $25,000 in unpaid fees.
