ONE DAY IT DID NOT RAIN

Grocers and Butchers Actually Hold Picnic Under Clear Sky.

OLD LEGEND AT LAST IS EXPLODED

Two Thousand Omaha People Attend the Outing Held at Blair, Which is a Success in Every Way.

The next day it did not rain. The next day was Thursday, when the Omaha Retail Grocers' and Butchers' association gave its eighth annual picnic at Blair. That the heavens did not baptize the picnic was cause for much gratification. It showed that Mr. Welsh, who gives Nebraska its daily weather, is as good as his word. It also will have a tendency to reassure the seven original jokes, the association of a grocers' and butchers' picnic with a rainy day. The day at Blair was almost an ideal one for a large picnic and conditions generally were favorable to the success of the occasion. It requires no play of words to say that the outing was a success in every sense of the word. Even those who failed to ring a cake or hit the colored man's head with an egg would not be such ingrates as to say they did not receive many times their money's worth before they returned to the Webster street station.

As early as 7 o'clock yesterday morning merry groups of excursionists began to make the Webster street station a scene of life, color, lunch baskets, smiling and pretty faces and baseball bats. Most of the grocers and butchers congregated at sixteenth and Farnam streets and marched

Only Drawback is Fight.

The only drawback to the day's pleasure was a free-for-all fight that took place in the railroad park, where many women and children were assembled, between a lot of toughs, who were later arrested on suspicion of being pickpockets. Blair officials had been warned early in the morning by policemen of Omaha who accompanied the excursion that some of the worst characters and thugs from Omaha were present, and advised a general roundup, but the advice was not heeded. Thirteen men were arrested. Most of them were released tonight. Gamblers swarmed in here yesterday, and were given a free hand for a time to run a wide open town, which action is in strong contrast to the promises made by the present administration and is strongly condemned by the business men of Blair. Over fifty gambling devices were arrested. When some of the business men threatened to have them all pulled, and Mayor Williams ordered it stopped, which order was only partially complied with. There is a strong feeling there against a repetition of such wholesale gambling being allowed on a picnic day in Blair.

Mahoney's Fine Residence.

T. J. Mahoney has secured a permit from the city for the erection of his Essex brick residence at Thirty-seventh and Farnam streets. Other permits have been issued to William G. Chambers for two brick flat buildings at Twenty-third and Douglas streets, each to cost $200; G. Gardner, $100 frame building, Tenth and Cass streets; Ella W. Tschuck, $100 frame dwelling, 11 South Thirty-fourth; G. Wolf, $150 frame dwelling, 139 South Twenty-sixth street.

Sports of the Day.

The afternoon base ball game and the most important single feature of the day was played between the grocer clerks and the Blair team. The Omaha players won to the tune of 4 to 1. The Blair team was completely outclassed. The batteries were: Grocer clerks, Howell and Brown; Blair, Goshart and Plat. Hits: Clerks, 13; Blair, 4. Struck out: By Howell, 6; Goshart, 1. Sid Knapp umpired both games.

The other events were won as follows: Horse race: Caplin first, Blain second, 3 to 1. Slow mile race: William Witt first, Fred Smith second. Dog race: 20 pounds or over: N. Sutherland first, A. Behler second. Back race: Allen Woods first, Percy Dawson second.

Three-legged race: Nichols and Blain first, Green and Brennan second. Young woman's race: Mrs. C. Lewis first, Miss Clara Cody second. Douglas county gardeners' race: M. P. Gould first, William Webster second, E. C. Hansman third.

Saltwater jumping contest: Had Marsh won, one prize. Various prizes were distributed to the successful contestants in the sports. The entertainment committee was: J. B. Cunningham chairman, Myron Howell, D. J.

GOVERNOR TO THE WOODMEN

Pays Tribute to the Good Done by the Fraternal Orders.

GIVES SOME GOOD ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN

Touches on the Labor and Other Social and Sociological Questions Now Prominently Before the People.

Governor Mickey was the guest of honor at an open meeting of camp No. 10, Woodmen of the World, held at Patterson's hall Thursday evening.

The governor, who is an honorary member of this camp, was escorted from the Burlington depot by the drill team of the camp and a reception committee headed by J. C. Kuhn. After an interesting musical program an address on the work of the order by Sovereign Commander Root the governor was introduced. His address was largely impromptu and while he paid many tributes to the order his speech was particularly directed to young men and their duties to the state and their fellow men. He said:

"All know that I am reputed to be a Methodist, but I believe in the kind of theology that does things for others. It is a well-established doctrine that we are our brother's keeper, not that we should help worthless men, but that we should help to become useful, valuable citizens. We should help the most worthless to become worthy. You do not get much out of life and it is what we do for others that stays with us. The harder you put your shoulder to the wheel the more you will get out of it."

"I know what your order is doing, that it is sending hundreds of thousands of dollars to the widows and orphans and lifting many mortgaged, and you and your fraternal organizations are working in the cause of civilization and humanity."

The speaker paid a graceful tribute to the memory of President McKinley and the policy of his administration toward the integrity of China, and said: "The American flag means much to the nations of the world, and it will mean more in future years."

Earn What You Get.
The speaker advised the young men to be independent and recalled Sam Jones' assertion that "The world rather sits on your back than on your feet, and it is better to make $1,000.00 a day on the Board of Trade." Following in this line Governor Mickey said:

"What we get out of this world we want to earn. It is a poor rule for any young man to spend more than he makes; he would better go with patched trousers and in fifty years he would be on top," a sentiment that met with the approval of his hearers.

"I would rather sit by the side of some honest farmer out of debt than by the side of some rich man. The farmer's children will follow in his footsteps. They are the men that will save the nation. Out of 2,800,000 men on the union side during the war of the rebellion 8 per cent came from the farmers. Do you wonder that the nation was saved? Be good citizens. You know the sacrifice and blood that it cost our forefathers to save it; you know the great perils of the civil war and the perils are not over."

Justice Can Settle Labor Question.
"The race and labor questions can only be settled in one way, and that is on the lines of eternal justice and right. I have heard objections about my being a Christian, but I will tell you that the man that has to look after the welfare of 1,500,000 people must go to a higher power before he answers some questions. Abraham Lincoln was a praying man. He led the union forces through the long four years' struggle, and had it not been for Lincoln's prayers we might not have saved the country. He wanted to do what God wanted him to do.

He knew that slavery was wrong—just as wrong as it is today. If any man works for you and you do not pay him what is right it is slavery. Eternal justice and right should rule. (Loud applause.)

"Fraternity honestly taught and lived up to will prevent the creation of criminals. The husband, the father and the wife have a grave responsibility. Commence in your own homes. Let your boy and your girl see what a true man you are and there is little chance for them to go wrong."
