LINCOLN PROTESTS ON RATE

Increase on Coal Also Hits the Capital City Hard.

STATE TO FIGHT NEMAHA COUNTY CASE Right of State Board to Raise Assessment of Any County Involved in the Injunction Proceedings,

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Aug. 18 - (Special.)-A strong protest will be filed tomorrow with Traffic Manager Miller of the Burlington, asking that the 20 per cent increase in coal rates recently put in effect he revoked and that the old rates prior to August 1 be restored. It is insisted that this increase in rates puts an additional burden of $100,000 a year upon the manufacturers and other coal consumers of the city and will mean the crippling of a number of industries. Most of the blame for the increase is put gists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. upon the new coal commissioner, Mr. Crane, and failing to get any relief from him it has been determined to appeal to higher officers. State Will Defend.
