PLAY GOLF IN DRIVING RAIN

Western Championship Games Handicapped by the Weather.

SAWYER AND EGAN ARE THE SURVIVORS

Fitted for the Finals in Today's Thirty-Six Hole Match.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—After two rounds of match play in the western golf championship today, H. C. Egan of the Exmoor club and D. F. Sawyer of the Wheaton Golf club are the survivors in tomorrow's thirty-six hole final for the title once held by Chandler Egan and lost in this tourney by his cousin, W. E. Egan.

McEwee was only square with the Home-wood youth. But continuing his play, which was almost equal to bogey figures, the veteran won by 2 up, totalling 81 for the eighteen holes.

There was little to the Chandler Egan-Balfour Hoggan match. The wizard of the links was out in 42, enough to get 2 up on the suburban champion and taking the next three holes, he could afford to lose the thirteenth by being bunkered.
