

IOWANS SHUT OUT OMAHA

Des Moines Takes Last Game of Series, Three to Nothing.

QUICK IS TOO LIBERAL WITH BALLS

Sends Six of the Prohibits to First Base—Cobbey Carries Stars by Cutting Off Two Runs at the Home Plate.

It was bargain day yesterday on the Vinton street campus, where the Des Moines aggregation turned the tables on Pa's children with a score of 3 to 0. The fastest can justify, however, he said to Mr. Quick, who pitched a poor game for the Rangers and, besides, made two egregious errors. Quick allowed seven men of the "reprobationists to beat their way to first and permitted them to make eight base hits and two sacrifices. In the fourth Quick trifled with Hoffman's ascent hit in the sixth he let Conroy's net get off the hook. Conroy was later caught out, thanks of the quick action of Howard and Dolan. But Hoffman scored when Scholz made a two-base hit. With the exceptions of the second and sixth innings, Quick passed one man to first each inning. Altogether twenty-one of the visiting batters arrived at first base during the game in different ways, while but nine of the local team reached there in happiness.

Quick received excellent support. The first inning passed away for the Des Moines in one, two, three order. McConney opened the second with a two-base hit, but was caught trying to force his way from second to third. Then Miller and Scholz went out on a pair of inept flies. In the third Josh Clarke sent a two-bagger out to center field. Hoffer had previously walked and tried to tramp home on Clarke's hit. Hoffer reached third and was on the next tack for home when Dolan, who had just received the ball from Welch, sent the little sphere to Goding in apple order. Hoffer lost out and Clarke was left on the base. In the bloody fourth Lober, the first man up, was transported to first without charge. Hoffman was the next man, to be monarch of all he surveyed on first, reaching that happy destination by virtue of an error already mentioned. McConney came to bat and sent out a single. This made three men on bases, no outs and Dusty Miller at bat and gloating with great gobs of joy. Miller did send out a good one, but it fell into Nick Carter's fine Italian hands. But Carter did not want the ball when he caught it. He sent the ball back to Goding like a shot out of a repeating rifle and put out Lober, who thought he could run from third base home before Carter could throw the ball in. But Carter made a splendid double play.

Repeats it in the Eighth. And that is not all, in the eighth he made an exactly similar play. Brother Conroy was the next man to bat in the eighth. He hit the ball right out of the park and went out to Carter, who fired the ball in to Goding almost before he had caught it, and got McConney out just in the manner that Lober saw his finish. Thus Nick cut off two runs and the Iowans by his remarkable speed and throw. But to go back to the gory fourth. After Lober and Miller had been retired on the double play, this left Hoffman and McConney on bases. Scholz came to bat and could see that two men were on bases and that a long hit might bring results. Scholz had it all figured out. His babe showed it. He raised his bat and sent out a two-base hit, on which Hoffman and McConney made rapid strides for home. Then Conroy went out and Scholz was left to mope on second.

In the fifth, Lober and Hoffman made hits and brought in Clarke, who had been anchored at first by an error of Thomas. After that the Iowans made a few hits, but did not increase their captive stock. The grounds were wet and the skies threatening. It was ladies' day and a generous representation of the fair sex watched the game. Pa's boys accompanied the Des Moines team to board the lions in their dens for three days. Then Pa's loved ones go to Sioux City to take two games and return here next Sunday for a series with the Sioux. Attendance, 1,500. The score:

DARIEL SETS A NEW MARK

Lowest Pacing Record for Mares Without Aid of Pacemaker.

LAST QUARTER DONE IN THIRTY AND HALF

Opening of Grand Circuit Races at Providence and See Some Fine Sport.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 29.—Four thousand persons attended the opening of the grand circuit meeting in Narragansett park today. While all of the events were decided in straight heats, several of them were extremely interesting. The world's pacing record for mares (2:54), without a pacemaker in front, was smashed by Dariel, the handsome little mare owned by C. H. Chapin of Rochester, N. Y. She made the mile in 2:05, lowering her own record of 2:05 1/2 by half a second. After a false start the pole was given and she went to the quarter pole in thirty-one seconds. The next quarter she increased her speed so that she reached the half in 1:04 1/2. At the three-quarters the watches clicked at 1:23 1/2. Without apparent effort she maintained her speed to the wire, the final quarter being made in :30 1/2, and the mile in 2:05 1/2.

Three of the four favorites headed the summaries, the only one to fall being Kent. New marks were made by Nathan Strauss of 2:04 1/2 and Monroe of 2:04 1/2.
