Chief Marshal of the Day John L. Smith and the committee in charge met last evening and completed arrangements for the Labor day parade. As the Omaha and South Omaha unions are expected to send large delegations, the parade promises to be the largest demonstration of union labor ever held in Council Bluffs. There has been some talk of the Omaha unions changing their plans for Labor day and holding their picnic with the Council Bluffs unions at the Union Driving park instead of at Courtland Beach. This, however, Marshal Smith said last night, had not been fully determined. The parade, as on the two previous years, will be participated in by the members of the Council Bluffs lodge of Elks and the people from the street fair and carnival. will comprise three divisions, each headed by a band, and the line of march taken up at 10 o'clock.

TEMPERANCE HALL DEDICATED Building Occupied by Legion Was

Formerly a Saloon. The long frame building facing on Wilew avenue and extending from Main to Pearl street, which was formerly a saloon was last evening formally opened as head quarters for the Senior Lo; al Temperance Legion. The building has undergone complete transformation and last evening with its many lights, pretty paper, dainty lace curtains and handsome furniture presented a pleasing picture. There was a large attendance of young people and quite a few adults. During the evening a musical program, in which the Misses Ruth Harl, Etta Baird, Aura Sweet and Genevieve Ward assisted, was given. The new temperance drink, "fruice," was served from a prettily appointed table, over which Mrs. G. G. Baird presided.

The opening of the new club rooms last evening was also in the nature of a recoption to Miss Harl, daughter of Attorney C. M. Harl, who will leave today for Chicago to enter a deaconesses' training school. Through Miss Harl's efforts mainly was the furnishing of the legion's club rooms effected.

The organization, which starts out with a membership of seventy-five, has as its officers: President, Miss Lillie Peterson; first vice president, Miss Lizzie Wallace; second vice president, Louis Barr; recording secretary, Miss Etta Baird; corresponding secretary, Miss Ethel Shubert; treasurer, Warren Ingalls; planist, Miss

A three-cornered fight involving the own-ership of the billboards and bill posting business in Council Bluffs is now being waged in the district and justice courts of this city. Yesterday the trouble, which had been brewing for several days, reached an interesting stage when A. A. McCann began replevin proceedings in the district court to recover possession from Constable Alberti, of Justice Ouren's court, and City Marshal Richmond, of the various billboards throughout the city, and all the paraphernalia used by Fred Woodward in the bill-posting business. Woodward, about a year ago purchased the business from C. W. Nichols, who styled himself "city bill poster." Woodward left the city about a week ago and said to be lying sick in a hospital in Des Moines. Nichols attached the greater portion of the billboards and other material clonging to Woodward, claiming that the latter was indebted to him in the sum of 1900. Emil Schurz also broug it attachment proceedings, claiming Woodward was in debted to him for services as attorney McCann, whom it was supposed had been left in charge of the business here by

SOME FRICTION WITH THE MANAGEMENT

Shippers of Live Stock Complain, of Delays on Branch Lines of the Iowa Railroads and Seek Redress.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 29 .- (Special.)-Superintendent E. H. White, of Estherville, in charge of the Iowa live stock exhibits at the St. Louis exposition, returned from St. Louis today, where he has been looking after the lowa exhibits. It has developed that there is serious friction between his department and the national mmission, and that President Francis is deeply offended at some things which have been done in behalf of the Iowa live stock breeders. The rumors that the exposition ompany would abandon the live stock exhibits, the delay in beginning the live stock barns, the changes of dates for entries, the fact that the exposition was not accumulating any surplus, all alarmed the exhibitors and it became common gossip that the premiums would not be paid. The Iowa live stock exhibitors were demanding that they receive some definite assurances, and according to Secretary Conaway, of the Iowa commission, on behalf of the Iowa people, addressed a note to President Francis, asking him as to the exact status of affairs and asking for a definite statement as to the probability of the exposition paying the cash premiums offered in the live stock departments; also in regard to various rules and regulations which were deemed oppressive by the breeders. President Francis dld not reply to the letter for over a week, and then curtly referred Mr. Conaway and the Iowa people to the superintendent of the live stock department, at the same time starting a movement to protest against Conaway being allowed to remain in charge of Iowa affairs at St. Louis. The Iowa breeders are dissatisfied

To Nominate for Congress, Mayor J. C. Williams of Oskaloosa will probably be nominated for congress by the emocrats of the Sixth district at their convention to be held in Oskaloosa on Tues day. A number of others have been con idered candidates, including former Congressman General James B. Weaver, and John P. Reese, who made the race two years ago, but it is believed that neither one will be named. The mayor of Osknooss is a strong man at home and as he lives in the same county with Major Lucey. ne will likely be the nominee.

not be doubted after perusal of such testimony as that of C. W. Van Antwerp, Fulton, N. Y., who says: "Your remedy (Schiffmann's Asthma Cure) is the best I ever used. I bought a package of our druggist and tried it and one box entirely cured me of Asthma, and I have not had it since. I can now go to bed and sleep all night with perfect comfort, which I have not done before for 25 years and I thank you for the health that I now enjoy. I hope that you will publish this letter, that others may learn of its wonderful virtues."
