Local Packers Guarantee, Employment to Nonunion Men.

Tuesday afternoon notices to this effect were posted in all parts of the four packing plants in South Omaha:

To Employes—You may consider your po-sitions permanent regardless of any strike settlement and you will be rotained in your places just as long as your services are satisfactory.

These notices are printed in three languages and are posted about the Cudahy, the Armour, Omaha and the Swift plants. When the men in the plants read these notices they seemed relieved to a great extent. The posting of the notices was coused by the statement issued by Presi dent Donnelly that the packing house strike is still on and that the men under him will not return to work until an honorable settlement has been reached.

Regarding the statement issued by President Donnelly, M. R. Murphy, general manager of the Cudahy plant, said last evening:

"We are working along as if nothing had happened and at the present time have all the men we need. New men are coming to the plant every day. Bome of our old men are coming back and asking for places As long as their places have been filled, have nothing for them and they are It will make no difference with told so. the Cudahy company whether the strike is declared off or not, we will continue business. At present we have 1,300 men workus, and that is about the average for this time of the year. We have given the men in our house the assurance that who are capable and want to remain here to work will be provided with permanent positions. To show you that we are not crippled in any way I want to call attention to the fact that we bought 2,600 hogs on the South Omaha market today, and will slaughter every one at this plant."

R. C. Howe, general manager of the Ar mour plant, said that as far as his com pany is concerned the strike has been over for some time. "Our men," said Mr. Howe, "have been given notice that they have permanent positions, and that they may ain with us just as long as their work is satisfactory. What more can we do?
