FAIRBANKS AND ROOT HERE Both Big Guns Will Make Addresses

> in Omaha During the Campaign.

Chairman Rigg of the speakers' bureau of the republican state committee has announced that Senator Fairbanks and Secretary of War Root are among the well known public men scheduled to address Nebrasks voters this fall. The dates for their appearances in the state have not been set, but their presence is assured. As at present contemplated, there will be two campaign trains, one having Senator Fairbanks as the leading feature and the other with Speaker Cannon on board. The itineraries have not been completed, but they will include Nebraska. T. H. Doran of Burwell, who is the republican candidate for representative in the Forty-ninth district, was among the from Council Bluffs with correspondingly callers at state headquarters. "For sixteen years we have had a list representative in the state legislature,' said Mr. Doran, "but we hope to change bash, the only line with its own station this in November. The last time the successful man had a majority of only sixtyeight, and this year we think we can win "The fact that the democrats and bash city office, 1601 Farnam St., or address populists have decided to concentrate every bit of strength on the legislative tickets and ease off on the state ticket will make it hard, however. W. J. Bryan is at the helm in this move, but it is doubtful whether he can command anything like his old following."

Yield. General Manager Mohler of the Union Pacific, who has returned from his westtern trip, says that contrary to reports, corn is doing splendidly. It has been re-ported that the crop would suffer from several causes. Too much cool weather was given, as one of the unfavorable factors which prevented the corn from ripening and it was said there was danger that it would be overtaken by the heavy frosts. Too much rain, it was alleged, also has had a bad effect on the crop in some places. without Mr. Mohler says that so far as the weather.
