

SACRED HEART DEDICATION

Church and Two Schools Are Set Aside by Catholics.

BISHOPS SCANNELL AND KEANE PRESENT

Work of Establishing These Institutions Represents Much Energy and Effort and is Pronounced a Splendid Achievement.

Within a period of four years the Catholics of the north side have converted an insignificant little frame building into a magnificent school church with a seating capacity of over 2,000.

The blessing ceremonies were in charge of the Right Rev. Bishops Scannell of Omaha and Keane of Cheyenne.

The solemn high mass was celebrated by the Rev. James Ahern of St. Agnes church, South Omaha.

Music was furnished by the united choir of St. John's church and that of Sacred Heart.

CHRIST LIFE BROAD AND STRONG

Christiansity Element of Strength and Progress, Says Dr. Jenks.

Dr. Edward Hart Jenks, first Presbyterian church, preached yesterday morning on the higher and broader life, taking his text from John 1:10.

"If any one thinks Christianity makes a man less a man, he is wrong. Jesus Christ states the purpose for which He came, that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

PATRONAL FEAST OF THE DIOCESE

Solemn Occasion Observed at St. Philomena.

Yesterday was the patronal feast of the Catholic diocese of Omaha and was observed at St. Philomena's cathedral by solemn high mass at 10:30 a. m.

No Overcrowding at St. Louis

Ample Accommodations at Reasonable Rates.

The alarming and altogether erroneous reports which have been circulated from time to time regarding the probable overcrowding of visitors to the exposition and the lack of accommodations may be easily discarded.

SOUTH OMAHA STRIKERS WAIT

Action in New York Discounted by the Local Union Men.

TUESDAY MAY BRING TEST OF LOYALTY

Apprehension as to Striking Courage of Men is Felt and Leaders Active to Prevent Any Break.

Very little interest was displayed in the strike by union men in South Omaha Sunday. Most of the union men remained at home and those who visited headquarters had little to say in regard to the situation.

MYSTERY AND WONDER OF GOD

Dr. Jennings Attributes Forces of Nature to Infinite.

In an effective sermon yesterday morning at the Hanscom Park Methodist church Dr. J. W. Jennings, presiding elder, attributed to the power and infinite presence of God the forces of nature.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE FAILS

Young Woman, Disappointed Because of Lover's Neglect, Drinks Carbolic Acid.

Seeing her lover engaged in conversation with another girl and hearing the bewildering strains of "Bedelia" from the raucous throat of a phonograph was a bunch of trouble that Mabel Burns, residing at 204 North Sixteenth street, could not stand.

DEPUTY SHERIFF INJURED

Thomas Bell, a colored deputy, is in one of the Omaha hospitals for trying to perform the "monkey" act.

MORE JAPANESE ARRIVE

A carload of men arrived in the city last evening for the packing plants.

NO GASOLINE NOR POLITICS

Careful Observer Retains Impression Gained from Mother in Early Childhood.

The Careful Observer and the Oldest Inhabitant were sitting beside the river, eating raw carrots and talking of the days of Old Lang Syne.

SMITH'S WATCH IS MISSING

George Smith of Council Bluffs and D. J. LaRoy of Chicago staggered into the police station last night and began to speak.

FROM OUR LETTER BOX

The following letter is from a recent issue of the Standard (Neb.) Leader:

This is my first visit to this part of the state of Nebraska, and I am amazed and delighted with what I have seen.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES

"By Right of Sword" at the Boyd.

"By Right of Sword" deals with certain not impossible but certainly highly improbable adventures of a young man from New York while on a visit to Moscow.

"A Little Outcast" at the Krug.

A novelty in connection with the present visit of Mr. George E. Gill's company, presenting his sensational play this season, is that the leading role is assumed by a former minister of the gospel.
