Tebeau Protests Columbus Game.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—President George Tebeau this afternoon wired President Grillo of the American association protesting all Columbus games in which Householder, secured by Columbus from St. Paul participates. It is claimed that Householder was transferred to Columbus in violation of the rule forbidding clubs to use players transferred to them by another club in the association after four months of the season have elapsed.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—President Grillo of the American association, acting on a protest from President Tebeau of the Louisville club against Householder playing with Columbus, has decided that the St. Paul club has no right to sell Householder to Columbus. President Grillo said the games in which Householder has taken part as a Columbus player have as yet not been protested. Tebeau Protests Columbus Game,

HOME FOR THE SQUASH CLUB

Club Quarters and Court to be Erected at Seventeenth and Harney Sts.

within a very short time, probably within the week, work will be commenced on the erection of a building for the uses of the Omaha Squash club.

A committee representing the club has been at work for some time making the needed arrangements and now has the matter almost in shape for the actual start. The building will be put up at the corner of Seventeenth and Harney streets, on the Kountze lot, and will be fuxible feet in size, two stories in front, with the squash court running the entire height of the building equipped with living room, card rooms, bliffard rooms and other conveniences for the members, a commodious court for the game, and plunge bath, as well as shower bath, in connection with the locker room.

The Omaha Squash club has been in existence for about four years, it started with twenty young men, all enthusiasta and deeply at earnest in the game. These have added to their number from time to time until the club now numbers seventy-five of the best known young men in the city. The committee having the matter in charge is composed of Luther 1. Kountze, Sam Burns and Frank Kennedy.
