MANDAMUS SUIT IS FILED

Action Brought by County Democracy to Beat the Jacksonians.

PARTY SPLIT ON EVE OF ELECTION

Trate Democracy Man Brands Effort to Recall Rowell Convention as Rank Piece of Political Outlawry.

Democratic harmony reached the bursting point yesterday when the County Democracy filed a mandamus suit in the district court against its ancient enemy, the Jacksonians, to prevent the latter from recalling from its political tomb the convention that nominated Ed Howell for mayor in 1963 as the convention to name the candidates for water commissioner and members of the Board of Education.

The petition was filed this morning in the office of the clerk of the district court, to force the democratic city committee to insue a call for a convention to nominate five democratic candidates for the School Board and one democratic candidate for the Water Board, Judge William A. Redick, after reading the petition, for which James P. Connelly and Daniel Gilus were relators, and which was drawn up and presented by Attorney H. C. Brome, made an order the issuance of alternate writs of mandamus returnable Saturday morning at 9:30 in the court of Judge Day.

Twenty-nine alternate writs will be issued as soon as they can be prepared in the attorney's office and will be served by the sheriff. They will name the twenty-seven members of the committee authorized by the convention of April 11, 1908, and its secretary and chairman. The names of those to be served follow:

those to be served follow:

William P. Bullard, Alfred G. Ellick, John Sheehan, Charles W. Young, Anton Kreck, Olhrich J. Jelen, Michael Nittler, Alfred Feenan, Thomas Harrington, Edward Arnold, William Silk, George G. Seay, Lysle I. Abbott, Frank B. Johnson, Otto Baumann, Addison A. Arter, Frank Planck, W. H. Chadwick, George W. Shields, Joseph Sherry, John J. O'Connor, James Schneiderwind, Vincent Czerwinski, Charles Johnson, Lee Van Camp, Joseph P. Butler, Clement L. West, Ell Garrett, Joseph Rapp, Jr. What the Petition Contains.

The petition sets forth that under the law a convention should be called either to nomnate five candidates for the school board and the water board candidate or to elect delegates for a convention to be called to nominate these candidates. The petition further sets forth that the members of the city committee which acted in 1903. 'or some of them," desire to control the selection of the candidate for the water nmissionership and are afraid to trust the voice of the democratic voters. Further, that some of the committeemen chosen in 1903 who now presume to act are dead, others have ceased to affiliate with the democratic party, others have removed from the wards in which they were elected or have removed from the city. The petition, for these and other reasons, asks a peremptory writ of mandamus to command these men, as such committee, to issue a call for a convention as required by law. to give proper notice and to make rules and regulations, and to give such other relief as will be necessary to a free and unrestricted choice of candidates by demoeratic voters,

As the petition includes all of the memhers of the old committee, some of those served are not of the Jacksonian faction which gained control at the meeting of Tuesday evening but of the County Democracy, bringing the suit. For this reason the petition qualifies the declaration that the members are all in favor of a candidate for water commissioner who could not be elected at a primary. 19

"Mr. Gilvs, as a democratic voter," said party, have signed the petition. We demand a primary to select candidates for these offices. This is no election, and a nomination is a selection of the man for the water board. For this reason we feel that 7,000 or 8,000 democratic voters of this city should have a chance to say whom they wish for the place."

Rank Political Outlawry.

This move by the Jacksonians is the nkest piece of political outlawry I ever eard of," said a prominent and thoroughly rate county democracy man. "In the first slace, there is no precedent for it, and then it is wholly without reason. Why should the democrats be asked or forced to recall a repudiated convention, a convention whose nomince for mayor ran third in the race with the republican party split? That is what Howell, the product of this Howell convention, did. He being renounced by his party at the polls meant nothing but that the convention which foisted him on the party was rebuked. Then why should this convention again be called back from the grave and permitted to sway again its ghastly aceptre over the party? Might as well go back four years or six years and dig up a convention. There is no limit if this thing is allowed to go unrestricted. "The Herdman-Howell ringsters must not think they can tramp rough shod over us in this way. We will not stand for it." All of which goes to show once more the beautiful, peaceful spell of up-to-date harmony that prevails in the camp of the ocrats on the eve of election.

BOYS CAUGHT AT BURGLARY

Two Youths from Respectable Famllies Rifle Saloon Till-Discovered in the Act by Policeman.

Discovered in the act of rifling a till in Koenigsbruegger & Ewoldt's saloon, at 2311 Leavenworth street, at 3 yesterday mornstreet, aged 18 and 19 years, respectively, was placed against their names at the city waived preliminary examination and were bound over to the district court on a bond

About 3 o'clock this morning Officer Edgealli observed one of the lads crawling unfer the bar and hiding himself in the shadow of a doorway, and saw him take the money from the till. Calling one of the hearby residents to watch the front door, the officer ran to the rear entrance, where is saw a window had been broken. Peering through, he saw the celiar lights had been turned on and the burglars walking about. The young men tried to go out of the back window, but were surprised by keep still. "Go back boys," said Edgehill, kindly, "go back or I'll blow your heads off." The boys went back.

When the patrol wagon arrived with extra officers the two submitted to arrest without the least show of resistence. Both acutely feit their shame and stood in the middle of the room with their heads down. Lynch backed away when the handcuffs were about to be placed on him, but that was the only move either made. Lynch works in the Union Pacific freight yards and Miller had been doing the same sort of work but of late has been out of a job. Both are from respectable families and no reason can be assigned for them doing such foolhardy work. Mr. Ewoldt, one of the proprietors of the saloon, who has known the boys since they were mere children and who has befriended them again and again, was very much affected when he discovered who the burglars were. "Why did you do it boys," he said with a catch in his voice, "why did you do it? would have given you the money rather than have this."

The money in the till, amounting to $27.25, was found on the stairs leading to the cellar where it had been dropped when the young men found themselves trapped.

The public schools showed a gain in attendance of 200 on the second day, reducing the disparity with last year's figures to The biggest defection is from Missions, Prohibition and the Sabbath the Lake and Lothrop schools, both situated in the district of the new Sacred Heart parochial schools. The latter are accredited with drawing away the attendance of about 175 pupils.

"The schools now are thoroughly organized and on a working basis," said Superintendent Davidson. "There are no cases of overcrowding and conditions generally are satisfactory.

COAL PRICES LITTLE LOWER According to Bids Submitted to City.

Tabulation of the bids for coal received by the Advisory board of the city show prices are a few cents less in nearly every case than a year ago. For anthracite a price of $9.90 is named by the C. W. Hull company, and for Weir City steam coal a figure of $2.80 by Sunderland Bros. Rock Springs coal is quoted at $6.80 by Sunderland Bros. and screened Missouri lump is named at $3.85 by Victor White. The awards will be made at another meeting of the board to be held in a few days. The figures for feed and forage for the fire and police department horses ran about the same as last year.

WILL ASK CONGRESS TO INTERCEDE

Omaha Association Resolves to Suppress the Liquor Traffic, Condemning Liceuse System as Impotent to Do It.

The Omaha Baptist association adopted resolutions immediately prior to its adjournment yesterday, urging congress to intercede on behalf of the Christian missions of the Congo Free State against the reported criminal oppression, instructing its officers to present the matter to the attention of Nebraska's senators, advocated the prohibition of the liquor traffic, denouncing the license system and denounced the Sunday newspaper in harmony with its view of Sabbath desecration.

The convention which had lasted for three days adjourned at 12:15 p. m. The association will meet next year at Wahoo, the time to be announced later. Rev. J. W. Conley, pastor of the First church of Omaha will preach the annual sermon then.

Those meetings which have been held at Grace Baptist church, Tenth and Arbor streets, have been largely attended by clergy and laity from the seven countles comprising the association.

The memorial committee reported twentyone deaths during the last year among the churches of Omaha district.

The following resolutions were adopted:
Whereas, reports received from the Christian missions of the Congo Free State indicate that the people of that state are suffering from criminal oppression for which the government of that state apparently is responsible, and
Whereas, a memorial asking for an impartial investigation of conditions existing in the Congo Free State under the rules of the Congo Sovernment, rules made by the powers that created that government, is now under the consideration of the United States senate.

Resolved, that the Omaha Baptist association records herewith its samest hope that the congress of the United States will take favorable action with reference to this memorial, and be it further Resolved, that the officers of this association be hereby instructed to bring this action to the attention of our United States senators from Nebraska.

Resolved, that the license system is vicious in principie and a failure as a ramedy. It cannot be enforced without sin. As a temperance measure is it a mockery and does not in any sense curtail the evil of the liquor traffic. It has not hindered the alarming increase in the use of intoxicating illiquors not diminished the lamentable and outcrying misery which results from the legalized saloon.

The cases were those of the United States on the relation of Chester B. Masslich, against James P. Saunders as treasurer of the city of Beatrice; The Bangor, Me., Savings Bank against The City of Beatrice; The Tompkins County, New York, National Bank against The City of Beatrice and Chester B. Masslich against The City of Beatrice.

These suits, representing approximately 15,000, were the outgrowth of a bonded indebtedness created by the city of Beatrice for paving improvements during the boom period of fifteen or sixteen years In the period of hard times folowing the city was unable to pay the nterest and bonds as they matured and onsequently an effort was made a few years ago to compromise with the creditors by the issue of refunding bonds at a lower rate of interest. A large majority of the creditors of the city agreed to the proposition, but C. B. Masslich, as attorney for the Bangor Savings bank and the Tompkins County National bank, would not agree to the proposed compromise. Several other cases were pending in this ourt on the same issue against the city of Beatrice, but these are practically disposed of now, the satisfaction of the several judgments being a practical dis-

GUARDIAN NOT SATISFACTORY dministrator of Estate and Custodian of Children Object of Neighbors' Wrath,

A citation was issued this afternoon from the office of the clerk of the county court to James W. Kranda of 1313 William street to appear Saturday morning and show cause why he should not be removed as administrator of the estate and guardian of the children of the late James Kranda.

This action is taken as a result of the decided displeasure expressed by the neighbors of the manner in which Kranda has performed the duties of his office. Wednesday night a neighborhood row resulted from a family affair in the Kranda home, and the police were invited to disperse almost a hundred of the people living in that part of town who had gathered and were taking a more or less active part in a disturbance of the peace.

At the time of his death the elder Kranda was a widower with several small children. He left real estate consisting of two houses and a life insurance policy. The younger man, shortly after his appointment as administrator and guardian, was married There is said to have been much friction since that time, ending in the outbreak of Wednesday night.
