BOYLES COLLEGE

You cannot rend the future. You don't know what day an opportunity to fill some splendid position may be offered you. But that position may require a person who has been trained—one who knows Stenography thoroughly—or one who has an expert understanding and grasp of Bookkeeping.

Suppose you delay entering Boyles Business College for a month and that opportunity to fill a lucrative position is placed before you a month before you are able to fill it, a month before we can recommend you for that position (and our prestige with Omaha business men causes our recommendation to carry much weight)-a month before you have finished our course? What do you gain by the delay? What good are these precious moments that you are letting slip by doing you?

Right about face! Stop procrastinating! Stop putting it off! Resolve today that you will see us about this to-morrow!

How We Can Make the Above Offer.

In the first place, no institution in the west affords an equipment and faculty of experienced teachers comparable with the N. B. C. This school has been established twelve years and has the written endorsement of the leading business and professional men of the city for its thoroughness of work, fair and honorable treatment accorded its students.

HOW we are able to give FREE MEMBERSHIP to our students in the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. is OUR business, and not that of a competitor whose first and last thought is the possession of another dollar. Everybody knows that the advantages and benefits enjoyed by members of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are a hundred fold greater than possibly could be given by any business college that may advertise their "free gymnasium, athletics," etc. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. employ expert, high-salaried instructors, and our students are privileged to enjoy the benefits. THE DIFFERENCE simply lies in the truthful representation of matters. And there is such a thing as having an interest in young people and their welfare after the moment they pay their tuition. And there is such a thing as business and professional courtesy, as well as honorable methods of advertising. HOW we can give these free memberships is by reason of the school's eminent success during the past twelve years, and now give our students this, another superior advantage. WHY we give them, among other reasons, is, to meet the advertised representations made by some institutions of "fully equipped symnasiums" (?)"

CREGG SHORTHAND

At the World's fair, St. Louis, a shorthand writer of the Gregg system is now giving some marvelous exhibitions of writing shorthand in any language, dictated by any one who may come. The writer is not familiar with these foreign languages, yet such is the perfection of the system that he writes the language on a blackboard in full view and reads back with accuracy. By no other system of shorthand has this ever been possible. FOR VERY GOOD REASONS, the N. B. C. is the only school in Omaha that is making a specialty of this system.
