COURT HOUSE CORNERSTONE LAID

Occasion is Made a Festive One by People of Rushville.

RUSHVILLE, Neb., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—The cornerstone of the new courthouse for Sherman county was laid yesterday amid joy and festivities. At 10 o'clock a procession was formed on Main street, when all the fraternal societies, the local home company and several floats moved through the principal streets to the strains of the Sherman county band.

Find Remains of an Infant. ALLEN, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Last Sunday while William McClellan was camped in a deep gulch near the river, he discovered an old horse shoe called to a board. The board had been sanded to preserve its lastling qualities, which attracted Mr. McClellan's attention, and pulling it up, discovered it marked the burial place of a box about two by three feet.

BUILDING FOOD

To Bring the Babies Around.

When a little human machine (or a large one) goes wrong, nothing is so important as the selection of food which will always bring it around again. "My little baby boy 15 months old had pneumonia, then came brain fever, and no sooner had he got over that than he began to cut teeth and, being so weak, he was frequently thrown into convulsions," says a Colorado mother.
