TRADE STEADILY EXPANDING

Industrial and Commercial Progress Slow, but None the Less Definite.

MANY MILLS AND FURNACES RESUME

Fall Business Fully Equal to Last Year, Although Collections Are Not Quite So Prompt.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Industrial and commercial progress is slow, but none the less definite. Low temperature and some injury to crops provide the only influence of the week and this has little effect on manufacturers and traders, who have started to prepare for increased business.
