China's Attitude Significant. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 17.—Important developments regarding China's attitude towards the belligerents are anticipated here in well-informed quarters. There are rumors of closer relations between China and Japan, of the possibility of the Japanese turning over Fort Arthur, when captured, to China, or their restoring Manchuria to the Chinese, etc. Although these reports are not confirmed they lead to quite a general belief that some sort of negotiations are going on behind the scenes of which the outside world has little cognizance.

No News from the Front. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 17.—6:35 p. m.—No fresh news has been received from the front, although the cooperation will be a full military encampment of 500 Patriarch's Militant at the Mechanic's pavilion, where all requisite arrangements of tents, coats and other equipment have been made for the reception of the delegates.

The Novos Vremya bitterly denounces the suggestion, peace advanced by M. Meshchersky in the Gaidednik, as a means of defeating the selfish ends of Great Britain and Germany, both of whom, M. Meshchersky asserts, are interested in weakening Russia and Japan.

The Novos Vremya announces that the Russian people would tolerate the self-humiliation of the empire before Japan. The emperor's congratulatory message to General Kourapatkin is regarded as effectually putting an end to the stories of imperial displeasure with Kourapatkin's generalship at the battle of Liao Yang.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The western collegiate foot ball season opened today, the University of Lombard meeting the University of Chicago here on Marshall Field grounds. ## WATSON SPEAKS AT PADUCAH

Populist Candidate Says Republican and Democratic Platforms Are Alike.

SETS HARD TASK FOR MR. BRYAN

Asks Him to Point Out Difference Between New York State Platform and Parker's Acceptance Speech.

PADUCAH, Ky., Sept. 17.—The populist campaign in Kentucky was opened today. Hon. Thomas E. Watson, candidate for election, delivering the principal address. The occasion was the district convention, at which J. P. Lackey was nominated for congress by the populist in the First district. Mr. Watson said:

The national campaign is now in its third month and no democratic expert in political chemistry has yet been able to discover where the populist Rooseveltism differs from the liquid called Parkerism. So far as I can see the difference between the two old parties are defining the same line of battle, but Parker is the harder to hit because he dodges, hits two, and comes back. You can locate Theodore, and you can bombard him with stationary siege guns, but you want a flying battery when you go after Alton B. Parker. I trained for twenty years in the school of the master and I would be a marvel indeed if the favorite pupil did not somewhat resemble the master.

Task for Bryan.

In April, 1904, Hon. W. J. Bryan hired a tall Chicago lawyer to prepare an acceptance of telling the American people what a fraud the New York democratic platform was. What that lawyer's object was was Alton B. Parker.

Mr. Bryan will now compare that fraudulent New York platform with his "difficult dodger" speech of acceptance, and point out the difference between the two old parties.

Take the question of imperialism. I defy any man to point out, in plain English, the exact difference, in principle or policy, between Roosevelt and Bryan.

Take the question of the tariff, the trusts, government by injunction, and the question of the labor question. Bryan can bolt down to a clear-cut contract. Theodore speaks in generalities. He is in it for another, but each of them reaches the same camping ground, and each tries to spread his blanket over the other's.

How about the labor question? Is there any difference between the two? In his national platform for 1902 the democratic party promised to support child labor in factories. Fifteen years was the age limit fixed. Yet all over the south, where the democratic party is supreme, child labor is as fixed as African slavery ever was. Child labor is the result of the platform pledge in behalf of the helpless boys and girls of the south.

As to the money question, which the democratic party declares to be paramount, no one will now contend that any practical difference exists between Roosevelt and Parker.

Parker and Money Issue.

But here is a curious thing: Parker telegraphs his surrender to the gold standard without saying whether that standard is right or wrong. He voted for Bryan and in free silver. He does not say whether he is for the gold standard or the free silver. He is for the gold standard and the free silver. He is for the gold standard and the free silver. He is for the gold standard and the free silver.

Secretary Shaw at St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw addressed a mass meeting in Festival hall on the World's fair grounds tonight, his speech being the opening gun of the republican campaign in Missouri. Speeches were also made by Cyrus P. Wallbridge, gubernatorial nominee, and H. S. Hadley, republican candidate for attorney general of Missouri.

CAMPAIGN SPEAKERS AT WORK

Halsted and Young Talk to Roosevelt and Fairbanks Commercial Travelers League. NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Murat Halsted, the veteran newspaper editor, and Colonel Lafayette Young, editor of the Des Moines, Ia., Daily Capital, were the chief speakers at the meeting of the Roosevelt and Fairbanks Commercial Travelers league here today.

PARKER RETURNS TO NEW YORK

Will Make Another Visit Soon and Confer with Chairman Teggart. NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—It was said at democratic national headquarters today that Judge Parker will make another visit to New York within a week, or before the publication of his letter of acceptance, and that the personal relations between the nominee and his managers will be repeated as often as necessary.

Just why Chairman Teggart of the national committee found it necessary to leave the city on the eve of Judge Parker's visit was explained today by Mr. Fanning, Mr. Teggart's chief assistant at democratic headquarters. Mr. Fanning is vice chairman of the Indiana state democratic committee. Some weeks ago, he said, he visited that state and found that a conspiracy between state leaders and the national chairman was desirable. He promised them to induce Mr. Teggart to go to Indiana, and on his return to New York placed the matter before the chairman in such a manner that the visit was arranged.

On his next visit, it is stated, Mr. Teggart will be in New York.

CAMPAIGN IS OPENED AT CHICAGO

Grand Rally Under Auspices of Hamilton Club. CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The republican party of Chicago formally opened the political campaign tonight by a grand rally at the auditorium under the auspices of the Hamilton club.

Senator Foraker of Ohio was the principal speaker of the evening, and his speech provoked the greatest enthusiasm in the city. Marquis Eaton, chairman of the political committee of the Hamilton club, presided and delivered a short speech preceding that of Senator Foraker and George A. Knight of San Francisco.

Speaker of the House Addresses Two Large Audiences. PRINCETON, Ind., Sept. 17.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon in Vincennes this afternoon and in this city tonight, both audiences being large. His speeches were general in scope, but at Vincennes he gave especial attention to the pension question. He gave the republican party credit for practically all the pension legislation.

He said that the declaration of northern democrats in favor of liberal pensions are "for home consumption only." Should the democratic party secure control of the house of representatives, he said, he would be declared, he declared by the southern democrats, who have two-thirds of the democratic membership.

Parker Caution Committee Asks That Textbook Contain No Section on President. NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The following letter concerning the democratic campaign book was made public by George F. Parker, chief of the democratic literary department, tonight:

ROSEMOUNT, Neop., N. Y., Sept. 17.—My Dear Mr. Parker: The Times of this morning says that the party text book is all prepared and that it will go to the printer. I am sure that you will be glad to see it, but I feel that there is no word in it that reflects upon the personal honor and integrity of President Roosevelt.

Evening Post editorial indicates that but little care was taken in that direction towards myself by the compiler of the republican text book, but I feel that I am in a position to do better. I feel confident that you need no reminder, still my anxiety impels me to send this note. Very truly yours, ALTON B. PARKER.

CHAIRMAN TAGGART IS PLEASED

He Says the Democrats Will Carry Indiana. INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 17.—After a campaign lasting two days with the democratic leaders in Indiana, Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national democratic committee, said this afternoon:

"The condition of the organization in Indiana at this time is most encouraging. I have heard a great deal about apathy, but after a conference with the leaders I am convinced that there is very little of it, so far as they are concerned. The democrats of Indiana are in a fighting mood."

WRECK ON LAKE SHORE ROAD

Passenger Train Derailed in Chicago and Four Cars Are Demolished.

TWELVE PERSONS HURT, TWO FATALLY. Debris Takes Fire, but Blame is Extinguished—Train Running at High Speed to Make Up Lost Time.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—A passenger train on the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern was wrecked this afternoon at the crossing of the tracks at Root street. Accounts of the cause of the accident differ, some of the railroad people claiming that the train ran into an open switch, and others saying that the locomotive jumped the track because of a broken flange.

Twelve persons were injured, and several of whom may die. Following is a list of the casualties: The usual recollections, laudatory and condemnatory, were passed.

Republicans in mass convention have nominated William C. Rice for circuit judge. He is the present incumbent.

Receives Bad Scalp Wound. STURGIS, S. D., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—George E. Earley of this city met with an accident at Belle Fourche while working at the new elevator he is building there. The cut extends clear through the scalp to the skull bone.

Woman Killed in Hay Field. HURON, S. D., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. Duesler, wife of William Duesler, residing on a farm about four miles northeast of Cavour, was almost instantly killed Wednesday afternoon. Being short of help in the hay field, Mrs. Duesler went out in the afternoon to drive a team attached to a stacker, when one of the tugs of the harness broke, allowing one of the single trees to fly back, striking her in the breast, the blow resulting in death in a few moments.

Cars Piled Up. The four cars next behind the baggage car were piled in a heap at the north end of the viaduct, and all of them badly smashed. An overturned stove in the rear was extinguished by the fire department before it had gained much headway. The engineer and fireman remained at their posts until the last and both men were pulled out from the debris unconscious.

NO PROTEST HAS BEEN FILED. Democrats Said to Object to Alleged Action of Judge Spence. (From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The civil service commissioner has not yet received any communication from the democratic congressional committee calling attention to an alleged assessment of federal officeholders of Iowa for campaign funds. The statement has been made that the chairman of the Iowa state republican committee, Judge Spence, has sent letters to federal officeholders hailing from the Hawkeye state calling for contributions of 3 per cent of their annual salaries for campaign funds. It is only a short time ago that the civil service commissioner issued a circular addressed to all clerks in the federal government in the classified service and out of it announcing that they were not compelled to make contributions to campaign funds and that any contribution made by them was a voluntary act. The democratic congressional committee has obtained a copy of Judge Spence's letter and a strong protest will be made to the civil service commissioner.

REBUILDING FOOD. Some Wonderful Things Food Can Do. What continued use of improper food will do by upsetting the nervous system seems almost beyond belief and it's just as surprising to see how a simple change from purely starchy and fatty to nourishing food will end all of these ills. Chicago man says: "My nervous system became so shattered that whenever I looked at a moving object my right eye turned out and the other cried and festered. I was so nervous that I was very absent-minded. My face was covered with pimples and I was constantly ashamed of my appearance. "The doctors said my blood was in a bad state and I had to give up my work. I was not only very nervous, but I was so tired that I could not get any sleep. I was completely disgusted with everything I was tired of living, although I had no cause to be, as far as friends and home were concerned. "When medicine failed I tried eating only the plainest foods, but this got tiresome and I did not seem to get enough nourishment until in my experimenting I gave the food called Grape-Nuts a trial. This seemed so different from the rest, it seemed crisp and full of nourishment and I ate it with cream for breakfast as well as dessert after the other meals. Almost immediately my nerves began to get stronger and steadier and sounder and I felt as though a great change was going on within me. "The first effect I noticed was my right eye did not seem so loose in my head, I could look without seeing double, and then I noticed that I took more interest in life and was not such a chronic kicker, my memory improved, physical endurance was greater and my sleep sounder and refreshing. "In a year's time I had recovered entirely from my ailment, and my mind was more complex than cleared and left me without any more pimples upon my face, all the old trouble with the eye is gone for good and to cut the list short, why, I have a sound nervous system, am stronger and healthier physically upon Grape-Nuts diet. I could write twice as much more about what this food has done for me. It is certainly a most wonderful food for the brain and nerves. Name given by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. NO PROTEST HAS BEEN FILED. Democrats Said to Object to Alleged Action of Judge Spence. (From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The civil service commissioner has not yet received any communication from the democratic congressional committee calling attention to an alleged assessment of federal officeholders of Iowa for campaign funds. The statement has been made that the chairman of the Iowa state republican committee, Judge Spence, has sent letters to federal officeholders hailing from the Hawkeye state calling for contributions of 3 per cent of their annual salaries for campaign funds. It is only a short time ago that the civil service commissioner issued a circular addressed to all clerks in the federal government in the classified service and out of it announcing that they were not compelled to make contributions to campaign funds and that any contribution made by them was a voluntary act. The democratic congressional committee has obtained a copy of Judge Spence's letter and a strong protest will be made to the civil service commissioner.

I was so nervous that I was very absent-minded. My face was covered with pimples and I was constantly ashamed of my appearance. "The doctors said my blood was in a bad state and I had to give up my work. I was not only very nervous, but I was so tired that I could not get any sleep. I was completely disgusted with everything I was tired of living, although I had no cause to be, as far as friends and home were concerned. "When medicine failed I tried eating only the plainest foods, but this got tiresome and I did not seem to get enough nourishment until in my experimenting I gave the food called Grape-Nuts a trial. This seemed so different from the rest, it seemed crisp and full of nourishment and I ate it with cream for breakfast as well as dessert after the other meals. Almost immediately my nerves began to get stronger and steadier and sounder and I felt as though a great change was going on within me. "The first effect I noticed was my right eye did not seem so loose in my head, I could look without seeing double, and then I noticed that I took more interest in life and was not such a chronic kicker, my memory
