Successful Merchants Who are Giving Away Money.
 Mr. Menter of the firm of Menter & Rosenbloom company, who operate forty-two stores throughout the country, one of which is located at 205 Dodge street, this city, is quoted by the Union and Advertiser of Rochester as making the following statement:

"Yes, sir; we are going to give away $100,000. We have been selling clothing on credit for twenty years and have now an undivided surplus of $100,000.
 "This we are going to give away to our customers in our chain of stores. The work of distributing this large sum and doing it properly so that no favoritism shall be shown is not an easy task.
 "However, we have adopted a simple system, which we know will be fair.
 "We will give a coupon with every payment of $1, and these coupons will be redeemable in silverware, gold watches and other handsome and useful articles.
 "What we propose to do this season can be told in these very few words," said Mr. Menter: "We propose to sell stylish, dependable clothing for men and women, boys and girls, on easy credit terms at cash store prices, and in addition give away in our forty-two stores $100,000 in valuable presents."

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church will entertain their friends at a progressive high five party next Thursday evening at Turner hall, South 12th and Martha streets. Refreshments will be served and after the awarding of the prizes a general good time will be indulged in by the younger set.
