NOW FOR WINDUP WITH COLORADO SPRINGS

Millionaires and Rangers Meet for Last Time Today in Game Watched by Entire Western League.

Pa Rourke, his base ball team and the little boy who sits on the center field fence are coming down the home stretch with brakes off, colors flying and the eyes of the base ball world on them. They hit a Barney Oldfield gait yesterday afternoon at Vinton street and plucked another game from the Saints, and now are framing up for this afternoon's game with the Colorado Springs team, which game will be watched with all the interest there is in Omaha and the Western league circuit, as Jimmy Ryan has a longing in his heart for the pennant. As the Millionaires won yesterday at Sioux City and Hallman's Denverites went to the bad at Des Moines, it can easily be seen why Pa's boys went to bed before the curfew whistle blew last evening so as to be up and doing this afternoon.

A number of prominent Omaha rooters met last evening and arranged to attend the game in a body this afternoon, taking with them Dimmick's orchestra.

Yesterday afternoon's game was a one-sided affair. Diehl, the Saintly pitcher, was hit for nine safe ones and the same number of runs in the three innings he pitched. In the fourth he was relieved by Garvin, who was replaced at first by Diehl, McConnell going behind the bat for Garvin. This proved a wise move, as Garvin managed to keep the score down to a reasonable limit. Dolan went out of the game in the fourth. Thiel was changed to short-stop and Freese sent out in left field. Notwithstanding seven errors by the Rangers, four of them by Howard, the Missourians made but four runs. For four innings they made neither hit nor run.

Gending occupied the center of the batting stage yesterday, making one single, two doubles and a triple out of four times up.

Yesterday was ladies' day and another generous attendance of the fair ones cheered their favorites when they slid to the plate or made a hit. Umpire Kelly is proving quite a matinee idol.

This afternoon's game will be called at the usual time of 3:45. Attendance, 1,509.

Colorado Springs This Afternoon.

Here's the game both teams want. It's the last one scheduled with Colorado Springs, and as the season's playing has been very close it is needed by both. If Omaha wins, it will leave the thirty scheduled games divided between them. And, also, if Omaha wins, it will cinch the pennant for 1904. Its importance to either team cannot be exaggerated. Therefore, it will be fought for with vigor. Brown is due to pitch for Omaha, and Villeman for Colorado Springs. Villeman is the last pitcher who won from Omaha, and he wants to do it again. The teams:
