NEBRASKA EXHIBIT GOOD ONE Highly Commended by Senator

Louis where he had been taking in the

"I am greatly pleased with what I have seen." he said. "but what impressed me more than anything else was the Philippine exhibit. The government has made a splendid exhibition and has shown conclusively :20 pm that the islands were not and are not in a position for self-government. I also was moving picture exhibition of Nebraska farms and farming. It was certainly a great idea and one of the best possible adsowing, planting, threshing, reaping and mowing—show interior views and give one an excellent idea of the agricultural pos-sibilities of the state. The fair is the best I have ever seen. I dld not see much of Chicago's fair for bankers in 1893 were staying at home attending to business most served several hundred distress warrants. Considerable opposition is being met from must, under the new revenue law, pay their personal taxes. Treasurer Fink is loth to take action in many cases where he delinquent is in a poor condit on financially and has a number of years' back taxes to pay. Mr. Fink has however, no choice under the law. The county is not getting much furniture or other personal property which might be disposed of by sublic sale. The delinquents, when they find there is no escape, have, as a rule, so far paid the amount of the tax and retained
