guard action on a large scale. General Sackharoff reports that the Japaness army is moving from Bentslaputze towards Fu pass, a village six miles northeast of Mukden and near the right bank of the Hun river. The river at this point is shallow, and probably for this reason the locality has been acceted by the Japanese for crossing. If the Japanese gain a foothold at Fu pass General Kouropatkin's position at Mukden will be insecure, as the Tew York. At Moville-Sailed: Bavarian, for Mon-real, Anchoria, for New York.
