Populist Candidate for President Addresses a Great Crowd at Houston.

DENIES CHARGE OF AIDING REPUBLICANS

People's Party, He Says, is Advo. esting the Principles of the Bryan Democrats Four Years Ago.

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 23 .- Thomas E. Watson, populist candidate for president, tonight delivered an address to a great crowd of people assembled from the surrounding country, several excursions being run. Mr. Watson is still suffering from an indisposition and appeared weak. He was given close attention

Mr. Watson said, in part: Senator James K. Jones of Arkansas found his voice & few days ago and spoke his little piece. The people's party, says Jones, is working for the republicans. He declares that in my Atlanta speech a preference was expressed for Roosevet against Parker. Neither in my Atlanta speech nor in any other have I made any such declaration.

speech nor in any other have I made any such declaration.

Poor Parker! His burdens were already heavy. Too much Cleveland, too much Hill, too much McCarren, too many slights put on Tom Taggart, too much Gorman, too much juggling with the good old English language, too much formans too much juggling with the good old English language, too much foxiness generally—but when Jones of Arkanans roled un, we could almost see the same old pick and shovel with which he dug the graves for the democratic national candidate in the memorable campaigns of 1896 and 1890. If our campaign hurts the democratic most this year that is not our fault. It is the fault of Jones and all the others who sold out the principles of democracy to Wall street at St. Louis. Had Jones and his crowd re-adopted the Omaha platform or something similar and then nominated some such democrat as Hearst or Bryan, the people's farty could not have done business in 1994 at all. It was the astounding betrayal of democratic principles by Jones, Hill & Co., which gave the people's party the opportunity to renew the fight for Jeffersonian democracy. Inasmuch as we are now advocating the same principles which Bryan democrats advocated for eight years, it seems a little hard that we should be abused as "assistant republicans." If anybody has so'd out, it would be reasonable to suppose that it was the crowd who dropped their principles. We have not dropped ours.

FROM OUR LETTER BOX

Letter from M. F. Harrington. O'NEIL, Neb., Sept. 22, 1904 .- To, the Editor of The Bee: In your issue of Sepember 13 the following editorial appeared; Mike Harrington makes a plea for a political gospel "which preaches the plain truth without exaggeration." And without taking his pen from the paper he goes on to declare that the present fusion candidate for governor is "the most uncompromising riend of just taxation, of reform legislation and of popular government that has ever been nominated for this great office by any political party since Neuraska was by any political party since Neoraska was admitted into the union." This is either a quick repentance or a victous reflection on some of the other great men who have aspired to the office of governor in Nebraska in years gone by.

As the purpose of this brief editorial is to throw cold water on the candidacy of if he is elected governor and a legislature Mr. Berge and to help the waning can- elected to support him, he will make these didacy of Mr. Mickey, I request that you great corporations pay the same rate of give my reply publication in your newspaper and I will likewise give it publication arrived in Chicago today on his way to the in the World-Herald and let the public judge whether or not those who are supence with the republican leaders in this porting Mr. Berge are justified in speakof him the good words that we are speaking at every opportunity. Permit me to say, Mr. Rosewater, and desire to give it the fullest publicity, that I give you great credit for the sincere work in behalf of tax reform that you have done through your newspaper and at other times, at considerable expense and sacrifice of personal time. I give you credit with having done more than your share in helping to educate the people of Nebraska upon the question of tax reform. No matter what others may say, you have convinced me, at least, that you are ab solutely in earnest in your effort to make the railroads of Nebraska bear their just share of the public burdens and I cannot understand upon what theory you give support to the candidacy of Mr. Mickey. It seems to me that it can only be upor partisan grounds. It seems that it is only through the desire to be "regular." True it is that you have illustrious examples of this kind in Nebraska at this time; but each man is enly responsible for his own acts. The tax reformer who supports Mr. Mickey ought to be able to give reasons for so doing. Upon the record of Mr. Mickey's adr is free from partifair prejudice give him

In your very able argument before the State Board of Equalization you made it quite plain that the railroads of Nebraska are worth at least $350,000,000 and that upon this basis they ought to be assessed for $70,000,000. You then took the railroad stocks at 75 cents on the dollar, although you admitted that many of them were selling at a large premium, and no doubt you knew that the stock of the Northwest. ern, for example, was selling at $170 per But even at this low basis, you estimated the railroads of Nebraska at $317,000,000 and their assessable value at $63,000,000. You put these as the rock bottom figures and I fully agree with you. My own figures were in the neighborhood of $65,000,000 for assessment purposes, based on the one-fifth valuation. But the State Board of Equalization after all this was shown to them assessed the railroads at only $46,000,000. In other words, Mr. Rošewater, Mr. Mickey voted to assess the railroads this year at $17,000,000 less than your rock bottom figures, which figures you pointed out were too low. At the average rate of taxation in Nebraska this swindling of the people out of $17,000,000 of assessable value means that the people of Nebraska are swindled out of more than $600,000 in taxes in this state this year. And this does not include municipal taxes. The $600,000 which the railroads have dodged must be borne by the people of the state. And, in addition to this very large amount, you are authority for the statement that they are cheating the city of Omaha out of $400,000 per year of municipal taxes. I do not profess to have the knowledge which you possess as to the amount of municipal taxes that are being indirectly stolen every year by the railroad corporations, but with your knowledge on this question and your long life you are a competent judge and that the figures which you give are conservative. On this plain showing of your own then Governor Mickey has helped the railroads of Nebraska to evade more than $1,000,000 of taxes, which as a matter of common honesty they ought to pay this year. This railroad corporations from the people of the state. The outlaw who steals in defiance of law is branded as a criminal and if the evidence be clear is punished. Mr. Rosewater, is it not morally as dishonest to steal by evasion of law as to steal in defiance of law? Is it not as dishonest to steal with a long brain as with a long hand? Is the railroad heeler who helps to steal this money from the people of the state any more dishonest than the church deacon who by his vote makes it possible for the ratiroad to commit this crime against the public? If tax reform is right between elections is it not right on election day? What is the use in denouncing the railroads for tax dodging for ten months of the year and then turning in and helping to elect their stool pigeons when election day comes around? The Bee has well said that this question of taxation is bigger than political parties. With that I fully agree. This is well illustrated in Wisconsin, where the raliroad corporations two years ago supported the democratic candidate for governor in their effort to defeat Robert M. La Foliette, and having failed in these methods, this year they have nominated a bolting republican and are making a three-cornered fight. I care so little for party in this reform that if Mr. La Follette thought that it would do any good I would gladly spend a week of my time at my own expense helping to make the fight for him. Why should not you and every other tax reformer take the same view of this matter? This question could not be justly put to you if the fusionists had nominated men who are under railroad control. But

bears testimony to the fact that he is a man of honor and truth and one whom the rallroads of Nebraska have not money enough to buy. He is making this campaign at his own expense, paying his railroad fare like the rest of us. He is not mortgaged in advance to the transportation companies. In every speech that he makes he declares bodly his purpose to use the influence of the office of governor to secure just taxation of railroad property and to reduce freight rates in Nebraska. He seeks no favors from the corporation managers. In Lincoln, the corporation stronghold of the state, he bodly proclaims his purpose to make the Burlington railroad pay taxes on its terminal property, the same as the merchants and laborers pay. He is coming to Omaha to tell the people of your city and the Baldwins, the Spratlins and Mandersons that taxes on their terminals in Omaha as you pay on the Bee building and as the professional men, the merchants, the mechanics, the manufacturers and the laborers of your city pay. Will John H. Mickey do that? Nobody knows better ... an you, Mr. Rosewater, that he will do nothing of the kind. I have no degire to make any personal attack upon Mr. Mickey. But we have a right to judge a man by his public record and by his associates in public life. Berge stands out in the sunlight, manfully announcing that equal and exact justice must be done to the corporations and to the people. Mr. Mickey stands for the dark and slimy rule of greedy corporations and oil room lobbyists that have disgraced Nebraska for thirty years. M. F. HARRINGTON.

That Cuticura Soap, Gintment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the stand-ard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world. The grandest testimonial that can be offered the Cuticura remedies is their world-wide sale, due to the personal recommendations of those who have used them. From a small beginning in the simplest form, against prejudice and opposition, against monied hosts, countless rivals, and trade indifference, Cuticura remedies have become the greatest curatives of their time, and, fact, of all time, for nowhere in the history of medicine is to be found another approaching them in popularity and sale.
