St. Louis Defeate Brooklyn. St. Louis Defeate Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 27.—For eight innings at Washington park today it looked as if the Brooklyns were to again be shut out, but in the minth Hanlon's nine managed to bring two men over the plate. The St. Louis men tailled four runs during the nine innings off Scanlon's pitching and some loose fielding. The new men on the St. Louis team, Murch, Hill and Butler, all played good ball. Attendance, 800. Score. ST. LOUIS BROOKLYN.

David Brain, infielder of the St. Louis National club, was awarded one-third of the $3,500 that Buffalo secured for his release in February, 1903.
Secretary Bruce was directed to notify President Bert of the Pacific National league that the money was due the New York American League club under the Newton decision or that the player will be incligible. The same decision was rendered regarding the Yerkes case to the St. Louis National club from Providence.

The commission refused to reconsider the $35 claimed by Huelsman from Spokane.

The purchases by the St. Louis National League club from Louisville were referred prior to a decision in any of the cases.

A request was received from the Pacific Coast league that the drafting period for players in its league should hot commence until December. The secretary was directed to reply that the commission had no power to change the national agreement, but that it favored the proposition and would submit the same to the joint annual meeting in January.

LINCOLN, Sept. 27.—(Special Telegram.)
—Booth's Cornhuskers encountered a stiff argument today in the Lincoln High school eleven. Nebraska won, 17 to 0, but the high school lads gave their heavier opponents a hard fight. Halves of only ten minutes each were played. Booth put in his second team in the opening half and neither side could score, although the advantage in ground gaining was in favor of the high school. In the second half the variety scored three touchdowns, two by Fenlon and the third by Bender, Fenlon running forty yards and seventy yards, and Bender pulling off a sixty-yard sprint. NEW HAVEN. Conn., Sept. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Yale had a new foot ball sensation today when Cotton, the former University of Nebraska guard, appeared and was placed at tackle on the second eleven opposite the 'varsity captain, Jim Hogan, He tore up the 'varsity offense and overwanted the regulars from scoring during the play this afterneon. Cotton weight 219 and has entered the law school. The Yale coachers have not yet seen Marquis Demores, who says that he is going to report, bu the scion of French nobility says that he has some conditions in studies to clear away before he can don his togs. Some of the giants of the eleven say that the marquis may be handled roughly when he gets into the scrimmages. 'Varaity Line.
