TWO WOMEN ARE SWINDLED

Sharper Gets All Their Money and Leaves Them Stranded.

APPLY TO FRIENDS TO ASSIST THEM

Man Offered Them Position Conducting Boarding Cars, Took Their Money to Buy Supplies and Then Skipped.

The police are trying to secure the arrest of W. H. Williams, alleged to be a smooth swindler, who succeeded in buncoeing Mrs. Whiteside and daughter of Aurora, Neb., out of $275 in this city a few days ago. After securing the money Williams skipped, leaving the women here, and they were compelled to apply to friends for assistance to enable them to return to their home in Aurora.

Williams, It appears, became acquainted with the Whitesides through a relative in Lincoln. To Mrs. Whiteside he represented that he was engaged in buying supplies and engaging crews for Western Union Telegraph company boarding cars, the company having large forces of men employed out along the various railroads extending its lines. He suggested that Mrs. Whiteside and her daughter take charge of a number of boarding cars on one of the ratiroads and the inducements offered by Williams decided Mrs. Whiteside to accept.

Mrs. Whiteside and daughter accompanied Williams to Omaha to make certain purchases which he claimed were necessary, but on reaching Omaha he induced the women to come to Council Bluffs, where Williams last Friday registered at the Grand hotel as W. H. Williams and family of El Paso, Tex. They were assigned two rooms, Mrs. Whiteside and daughter occupying one and Williams the other. Under pretext of making the purchases for Mrs. Whiteside Williams secured from her $270. This was the last seen of him.

HORSE TRADE OCCUPIES COURT J. G. Winslow Thinks He Got the Worst of It.

In the district court the greater part of xesterday was taken up with the hearing before a jury of the suit of J. G. Winslow against T. S. Fenlon, involving a horse trade. The plaintiff seeks to recover $125, the price which he paid for a mare which he alleges did not come up to the representations of the defendant, who sold the animal to him. A few days after Winslow purchased the mare, it lay down and died, and in his testimony yesterday he declared that even if the animal had lived it would not have been suited for farm work, as represented by Fenlon. The case was not concluded when court adjourned for the day. Mrs. Fannie M. Graybill began suit for divorce from John A. Graybill, to whom she was married in Fremont county, Iowa, February 22, 1880. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and that her husband deserted her last March. Further she charges her husband with forcibly taking from her a few days ago and concealing their youngest child. All Ready for Revival.

The mammoth proportions of the tabernac'e now nearing completion on the Woodbury property at the corner of First avenue and Seventh street, in which Evangelist Williams will hold his revival meetings can be well understood when it is stated that the building itself will take over 40,000 feet of lumber, while the platform will take 15,000 feet and the seats will require another 20,000, making a total of 75,000 feet of lumber. The building is 140x 100 feet and is expected to seat between 2.500 and 3,000 persons.

Ira E. Hicks, the musical directors of the meetings, arrived last evening and will at once commence the organization of a chorus choir of 300 voices. The choir will have its first rehearsal Saturday evening in the tabernacie. The Woman's Christian association is looking for a suitable site for the new hospital which it is planning to build in this city. While the association owns property on Ninth avenue, on part of which the present hospital is located, this site is now not considered desirable from the factthat the land is low. The association has recently decided that it would be preferable to build the new hospital on a more elevated site and several locations, it is said, are now under consideration. Yesterday Mrs. O. H. Lucas, president of the association, and members of the board looked over the Saguin property at the corner of Washington and Oakland avenues and over the Casady property on Washington avenue near First street. The question of a site, it is said, is to be determined at the October meeting of the association.

Business Men Propose to Start an Investigation of the Financial Affairs of Des Moines in Search of Leaks.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Sept. 28 .- (Special.)-It Is now anticipated that the state of Iowa will profit from $100,000 to $250,000 by reason of the dispersion of the vast estate of the late James Callanan. He had no direct heirs and the state will collect 5 per cent tax on all the property which goes to his nephews and nieces. The lowest estimate on his fortune is $3,000,000, which would give the state nearly $150,000 on the tax in a lump sum, while many estimate his property at not less than $5,000,000, which would give the state an increase of $250,000 when the estate is settled. This will take a year or two. The bequests will not materially reduce the estate and the interests of the state in the collection of the tax will be carefully looked after. This tax has been yielding the state about $150,000 a year on an average. The collection on the Callanan estate will probably be the largest ever made by the state. It will go into the general fund.

Investigate City Affairs.

Efforts are being made by an association of leading business men to employ the services of ex-Mayor MacVicar to make an investigation of the financial management of the city. In the matter of handling many of the funds of the city it is common belief that the city is being systematically deprived of value received, and an association has been formed to secure an investigation. The same association threatens also to start a weekly paper to make public what it finds, claiming that no paper in the city will publish the facts.

Ex-Congressman Disgruntled. Ex-Congressman F. E. White of Webster, twice a candidate on the democratic ticket for governor of lows, is out in a letter in which he announces that he will never again take part in political campaigns. APPRAISERS AWARD DAMAGES

Wide Variation Between Claims and Awards in Ditch Case. ONAWA, Ia., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The appraisers on the big Monona-Harrison ditch have filed their estimate of damages occasioned by the establishment of the ditch. There is a vast discrepancy between the amount of damages claimed and the damages allowed by the appraisers. The damages claimed in Harrison county were $37,-00, allowed $5,128; damages claimed in Monona county were $136,640, aflowed $25,728. Judge Addison Oliver filed a claim for $40,000 damages and the appraisers awarded him $140. It is believed the judge will hardly accept the award. The largest claim allowed was to the Chicago & North western Railway company, $6,700 in Moona county and $2,500 in Harrison county. The joint boards of supervisors of Monona and Harrison counties will drive over the proposed route the latter part of the week so as to have a better understanding of the situation, and on Monday. October 4, 1904, they will meet in joint session at Onawa to further consider the proposed improvements. A representative of a Chicago oond and brokerage firm is in Onawa today investigating the value of the lands in the proposed drainage district.

Popular Excursions Carry Hundreds to the Grounds of the State College.

TWO DAYS TO BE GIVEN TO VISITORS

Laying of Cornerstone of New Cen tral Hall and Address by Governor Will Be the Features.

AMES, Ia., Sept. 28 .- (Special.)-It is now against William Smith et al, Mary J. a foregone conclusion that Ames will be Roadabeck against Harrison county and heat to the largest crowd of visitors next Friday and Saturday that it has ever been its lot to entertain. The annual harvest home excursion this year to the college extends over more than twice as much territory as it has any previous time. In anticipation that the attendance would be more Paul and C. M. Beeble against J. N. | than doubled the management of the institution decided that the crowd could be handled a great deal more satisfactorily by way Company, Tim Ryan against the same extending the jubiles over two days. Thus by dividing up the crowds the terrible jam which occurred at the college last year can be avoided.

Friday, September 20, these in touch with the Northwestern line will be accommo dated, no other road to run excursions until Saturday. That day all other lines in the onger than any other man in the state of state will bring hundreds of visitors to spend a day at Ames, inspecting and incently renominated by the republicans for vestigating each and every department of justice of the peace of Le Roy township, the college, which will bid them thrice welcome. Very reasonable rates have been made on every road, and it affords the people of the state an opportunity that should be taken advantage of to come and see and learn what a great college and school they are supporting.

Will Lay Cornerstone. A very entertaining program is being pre pared for the occasion, which will include a speech by Governor Cummins. The laying f the cornerstone of the new central hall Moines college and Ames will be fought on the Ames gridiron, and on Saturday after the season. Ames won the state championship last year and has a team this year that will make a good record. There will day on the college farm and also a special exhibit of road making machinery. This occasion is one which farm and city people take advantage of to see the college, note its work and enjoy a feetival picnic on the large college campus. It will be a crowd hard to handle, but special provisions are being made to feed it and no one will be required to go home hungry. Transporta-
