

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Despite Less Active Demand for Cash, Futures Advance. IMPROVEMENT ONE POINT ALL ROUND. Corn Weak for September, but Steady for Other Dec.

OMAHA, Sept. 30, 1904. The cash demand for grain in many of the markets shows a decided slackening. This is one of the factors in aid of the bear movement, but the talk of short crops, the demand from other sections of the world and the light southwestern receipts are counteracting the bear movement.

At the opening sentiment in the wheat pit was rather bearish. The cause of the bearish feeling was the receipt of shipments from Argentina, liberal receipts in the northwest and weaker in foreign grain markets. Initial quotations on the latter were a shade higher to 4 1/2c lower.
