Twenty-Seven to Nothing.

BELLEVUE, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—By a series of fine smashes, in which superior beef was relied upon to make the gain, the Fort Crook foot ball team tried to win a score off of the Bellevue college eleven today and failed, the college boys skinning them to the melody of 27 to 0.

Frequent off sides and fumbles characterized the first dozen downs of the game, but almost from the word go the collegians and the best of it and probably would have piled several more into the soldiers had not numerous knockouts interfered with the progress of the game. Crook won the toss and Conley kicked fiercely in the direction of the posts, the ball landing in the hands of one of the Bellevue guards, just fifteen yards from the place from whence it started. The collegians advanced the ball back down the field, when Brown passed it over by a fumble, twenty yards from goal. Notwithstanding the fact that weight and strength were on their side, the soldiers allowed themselves to be held for downs and Moore placed the oval behind their line just ten minutes after the calling of the game. Brown failed a difficult goal. A few more off sides, then Murtaugh got in his work for Bellevue on a rapid action play between guard and tackle, adding five more to the score.

When time was called for the intermission-the soldiers looked considerably tired and rumpled.

In the second half Crook showed some disposition to regain lost ground. Two new men were introduced, with the result that the Liliputians were crowded to within five yards of the line, when another fumble gained them the ball and Murtaugh carried it nearly the length of the field to a touch-down, making the longest run of the game. Moore kicked an easy goal and three minutes later kicked a touch-down from center, the collegians beating their adversaries to the ball. Moore soon kicked a touch-back for the sake of variety just as time was called. Netherly had induced the soldiers to give him the ball again on a fumble and repaid them by dodging their ST. LOUIS. Some men are classed as lazy, shiftless, unreliable, careless; they lack ambition, energy, courage, and are disheartened, who really can't help being tired, worn out and a miserable failure. Many of these men are in failing health, unable to determine the nature of their aliments, and their condition baffles their physician, too. The sufferer may eat well, sleep well and possibly never complain, but an unaccountable languer clings to him which he cannot shake off, robbing him of all ambition for business or pleasure.
