

FAIR PASSES TO BE CUT OUT

Secretary Furnas Proposes to Put Matters on a Business Basis.

SOME TALK OF DROPPING THE RACING

University Students Are Coming Up In Force to Cheer the Foot Ball Team in Contest with Creighton.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Ex-Governor Furnas came in last night to attend a meeting of the State Fair board, and expressed himself as being well pleased with the last state fair.

The Convention of the Holy Child Jesus is to have a new home. Four blocks on the south side of a street near Twenty-seventh have been purchased and it is the intention to erect a large brick building there.

Charity Association Election. The City Charity association last night elected a new board of directors to conduct the work during the coming year.

Oil Inspector Has Balance. The report of Chief Oil Inspector Church for September shows that during that month he collected $1,771.30, spent $880.20 and paid into the treasury $991.01.

ON THE SAFETY OF OVER-EATING

The Rule of Choosing the Lesser of Two Evils Applies to the Way You Eat.

I want to know how a man is to know when he has had enough? The Pilgrim Fathers, I believe, had a quaint saying to the effect that you should always rise from the table feeling as if you could eat some more.

What is disease? It is simply uneven balance between waste and repair. Some organ lacks strength to carry on the special work for which it was created.

THE BEST READY-MADE SUIT IN THE WORLD AT $10.00 AND $12.00

Best Swanson Co 15th & Douglas

Correct Dress for Men and Boys.

MONEY CHEERFULLY REFUNDED.

Cleverly Custom-Made Suits and Overcoats

EXCLUSIVE PRESENTATION OF VERY CHOICEST PRODUCTS FROM THE TAILOR SHOPS OF

The Stein-Bloch Co. Hackett-Carhart & Co. B. Kuppenheimer & Co.

Out-of-the-Common Designs, Perfect-Fitting Shapes—Positively the Best Ready-to-Wear Suits and Overcoats that Experienced Tailor-Men and High-Grade Equipment Can Produce.

FOR MEN AND YOUNG MEN $15, $18, $20, $22.50, $25 and $30

An Immense Trousers Business—New and Exclusive Designs—Stirring Values—$5.00, $6.50 and $7.50

All to the Good Paragon Pants are Art... The New Fall Peg Top and Spring Hipped Trousers at $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00.

1913, which is considered a mighty good showing, making the oil office one of the state's good investments.

Folk to Speak at Lincoln. Joseph Folk of Missouri will address the people of Lincoln on the afternoon of Monday, October 24, and at the same time George W. Barge will deliver an address.

Call an Iowa Pastor. Rev. Charles H. Rogers of Mason City, Ia., has accepted the call to become pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church of this city, and will shortly come to Lincoln.

Circular on Revenue Law. Secretary Allen of the state republican committee was in Lincoln this morning attending to routine matters connected with the governor's office and took back to headquarters with him copy for a circular to be printed shortly, giving an analysis of the workings of the revenue law.

University Students Coming. It was definitely decided this morning that a big delegation of university students will go to Omaha Saturday morning to cheer the Cornhuskers on in their game against Creighton university.

A big mass meeting was held in the chapel this morning, at which sufficient enthusiasm was stirred up to more than guarantee the necessary number to take advantage of the reduced rates.

Prohibitionist Pulls Out. E. H. Carson, nominee on the prohibition ticket for state superintendent, this morning notified the secretary of state of his resignation.

Meeting of Teachers. The annual meeting of the Superintendents' and Principals' association will be held in Lincoln October 20, 21 and 22.

Challenge for Debate. The chairman of the democratic and populist committees tonight issued a statement to Chairman Burrows of the republican state committee asking that he arrange with them a series of debates on state issues between Governor Mickey and Candidate Berge.

POPULISTS ENDORSE DEMOCRAT In Return for Congressional Candidate Secure Senatorial.

KEARNEY, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Markwood Holmes of Lexington, chairman of the populist congressional committee, and Peter O'Brien of this city, secretary of the committee, yesterday signed a certificate of nomination as a populist nominee for W. B. McNeel of North Platte, the democratic congressional nominee.

NEBRASKA SYNOD IS BUSY

Presbyterians at Grand Island Hear Report of Year's Work.

ALL BRANCHES ARE SHOWING PROGRESS

Omaha Theological Seminary is Subject of Report and Addresses by Several Ministers of the State.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—At the close of the afternoon session of the Presbyterian synod of Nebraska, Tuesday afternoon the visiting clergymen and laymen were entertained at supper in the basement of the church by the women of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

The evening session was opened by the moderator, Rev. Dr. Braden, who delivered a eloquent and interesting sermon on Psalms, 46, 2. Upon the close of the service the pastor, Rev. H. C. Swearingen, D. D., of Lincoln and Rev. Dr. T. K. Hunter of Dundee Place church, Omaha, assisting.

The report of the special committee relative to the Omaha Theological seminary was presented by Rev. C. A. Arnold of appreciation of the good work of foundation laid at this place.

The report of the committee on ministerial relief was read and received. The report showed the average amount paid to widows of former clergymen in the synod was $150 per year and the average, entire, $190 per year.

The chairman of the democratic and populist committees tonight issued a statement to Chairman Burrows of the republican state committee asking that he arrange with them a series of debates on state issues between Governor Mickey and Candidate Berge.

POPULISTS ENDORSE DEMOCRAT In Return for Congressional Candidate Secure Senatorial.

KEARNEY, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Markwood Holmes of Lexington, chairman of the populist congressional committee, and Peter O'Brien of this city, secretary of the committee, yesterday signed a certificate of nomination as a populist nominee for W. B. McNeel of North Platte, the democratic congressional nominee.

those who, through sickness or other conditions, could not provide for themselves. Notice of the appeal of Rev. Green D. Heyden from the decision of the local Presbytery, the Niobrara, was received.

Many Reports Received. Following the report of the committee on ministerial relief, in the sessions of the Presbytery synod of Nebraska, Rev. Dr. R. M. Stevenson presented the report of the college at Bellevue and showed a healthy growth in the number of students in attendance and in the method of administration.

The report of Dr. Sexton, synodical missionary, was rendered at this point. Dr. Sexton reviewed the development of the Presbyterian church in Nebraska, the increase in the number of churches, ministers and members that has taken place during the nineteen years of his service in that office.

The report on the work of the Young People's societies was presented by Rev. Galsbury of the Third Presbyterian church of Lincoln and addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Swearingen of the First church of Lincoln, Rev. William Hardestad, field secretary of the Christian Endeavor society, and Mrs. Conklin of Omaha, all of whom sought to stir the membership to larger and more efficient work for Christ and the church.

The report of the special committee relative to the Omaha Theological seminary was presented by Rev. C. A. Arnold of appreciation of the good work of foundation laid at this place.

The report of the committee on ministerial relief was read and received. The report showed the average amount paid to widows of former clergymen in the synod was $150 per year and the average, entire, $190 per year.

A number of the visiting clergymen attended the annual session held in this city about ten years ago, and were very much pleased with the new Presbyterian church erected last winter and dedicated about Easter time, and with the surroundings.

Two blocks from the church a $100,000 court house has already been laid, and across the street from the same the Carnegie library.

Among those present is Rev. Dr. Baird of Plattsmouth, who holds the distinction, much commented upon during the session and highly appreciated by the members, of having been in the ministry in one city, Plattsmouth, for thirty years and having been stated clerk of the state synod for the same length of time.

The synod then took up the report on evangelistic work by Chairman Rev. Canahan of Central City, supplemented by an address by Rev. Moore of Omaha, and a vigorous discussion followed.

The report of the committee on ministerial relief was read and received. The report showed the average amount paid to widows of former clergymen in the synod was $150 per year and the average, entire, $190 per year.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—That the Union Pacific road intends to make many improvements on the Manhattan branch within the next few months is evidenced by the fact that a gang of surveyors are at work surveying a new line which will run direct north of Holmerville, this county, and connect with the old one at Cedar Creek. It is the intention of the company to do away with the old line, which follows the river bottom and which has been damaged considerably in years gone by on account of floods.

The proposed piece of new roadbed at this point will make a cutoff of about two miles and will give the company a splendid track on high ground free from damage by floods. The new line will be about five miles in length.

Republican Rally at Hartington. HARTINGTON, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—The republican rally here Tuesday night was a signal success. The court room was filled to overflowing. Brief addresses were made by State Candidates Eaton, Galusha, McEwen and Searle.

Successor for Treasurer Morgan. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Jacob S. Johnston of Superior has been appointed as grand receiver for the Ancient Order of United Workmen to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Frank J. Morgan of this city.

News of Nebraska. GENEVA, Oct. 13.—Work has been commenced on the building for the Skinkie electric light plant.

YORK, Oct. 13.—Hon. C. Spurlock of Omaha, former senator from Cass county, spoke on state issues at Arboretum in this county last night, where he was greeted by a very large audience.

BEATRICE, Oct. 13.—Eighty-three students are enrolled at the German Lutheran seminary at Seward. More students are constantly arriving. The school possesses two pipe organs and seven pianos and a corps of fine instructors.

GENEVA, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Edward Elmore, wife of the Northwestern agent, fell and broke a limb. She slipped in the wet boards of her portico.

NEBRASKA CITY, Oct. 13.—The members of the Christian Science church have purchased lots at the corner of Twelfth street and First avenue, where they will build a fine church building next spring.

BEATRICE, Oct. 13.—The senior class of the Beatrice High school yesterday elected officers as follows: Miss Harriet Schackelton, president; Miss Edith Bradt, vice president; Lawrence Weaver, secretary; Miss Jessie Lovetridge, treasurer.

SEWARD, Oct. 13.—A new pipe organ is to be installed in the German Lutheran church here this week. The instrument was built by Edmund Glöschel of Evansville, Ind., and was installed by him. It has 83 pipes in all, with eighteen stops.

GENEVA, Oct. 13.—The physicians are kept busy setting broken bones. Charlie Madison fell into a hole and broke his arm. John Miller, 36 years old, fell from a tree on the school grounds, broke his leg and heel. The latter is quite serious.

COLUMBIAS, Oct. 13.—Roy Westbrook and Lyle Lawrence, both pupils of the high school, are laid up for repairs as a result of an encounter with the festive foot ball. The former has a broken collarbone and the latter sustained a compound fracture of the right arm.

city and his loss cannot be definitely ascertained. Larson's loss is about $30 and is fully covered by insurance. Esty is also insured. The fire caught from the inside of the building and its origin is unknown.

HARVARD, Oct. 13.—The Harvard city councilman under consideration three propositions for an electric light plant. One on a petition signed by 100 or more property owners for the voting of bonds and city ownership, and two by private parties for a franchise and individual ownership.

GENEVA, Oct. 13.—The body of John Shaffer, who for years lived on a homestead in Madison precinct, near Geneva, and who died in Allegheny county Pennsylvania, arrived here yesterday and the funeral was held today from the home of J. E. Westcott. It was Mr. Shaffer's request to be sent here and buried beside his wife.

BEATRICE, Oct. 13.—Dr. J. B. Fulton, owner of probably the finest kennel of bloodhounds in the west, yesterday received a fine bloodhound from England. A pair of dogs from the doctor's kennel last week aided the officers in locating Karl Karrer, the man who robbed the bank at Treylon, Ia., by following him to his home after an exciting chase.

LEIGH, Oct. 13.—Ed Marwin, an employe of A. B. Hussey's ivory stable, was severely kicked by a horse this morning. The horse struck him in the breast above the heart with sufficient force to render him senseless. Physicians were called and would give out no information, but it is understood that they consider his chances for recovery very small.

NORFOLK, Oct. 13.—Emil Spoor was arrested here because he pounded up a neighboring woman with a broomstick. He beat her severely over the head and after several furious rounds he was declared winner of the mill. He swears that he ought to have that right. His wife always wants him to beat her, and he saw no reason why women should differ in cardinal points.

NEBRASKA CITY, Oct. 13.—A telegram has been received in this city by Mrs. J. W. Peasman announcing the death of her son Horace in Deadwood, S. D., from poisoning caused by eating sausage while he was on a hunting trip near Deadwood. The young man was born and raised in this city and was a son of the late Mayor J. W. Peasman, who was a squatter governor of Nebraska in the early '80s. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

NEBRASKA CITY, Oct. 13.—Richard Simonson, a laboring man, was found dead last night at his home in this city. He was sitting in a chair and had probably died several hours before he was found. His family is out of the city and their exact whereabouts is unknown. A coroner's jury was impaneled this morning, and after hearing the evidence of witnesses gave a verdict that Simonson came to his death by the excessive use of alcoholic drinks.

When This You See Remember

Advertisement for Uneda Biscuit, featuring an image of a biscuit box and the text 'Uneda Biscuit' and '5c'.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY