COPY OF BALLOT PREPARED

Democratic Electoral Ticket Comes Ahead of the Populist.

W. C. T. U. ENDORSES JUVENILE COURT

Captain Killian Sends Check to Cover Discrepancy in His Accounts as Adjutant General of the State.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 14.—(Special.)—The copy for the sample ballot has been prepared by the secretary of state and is ready for the printer. The democratic electoral ticket will come second on the ballot, which fact is liable to create a storm of protest from the populists. The fusion state nominees are bracketed as in former years.

Following the electoral tickets comes the preference for United States senator. The name of Elmer J. Burkett is the only one which appears on the ticket.

W. C. T. U. Endorses Juvenile Court.
The Nebraska Women's Christian Temperance union gave unqualified endorsement to the juvenile court bill at this morning's session, pledging its support to the State Board of Charities and Correction.

The resolution which had been read in the convention the day before including a questionable commitment to Governor Mickey was refused by the sifting committee and did not again come before the house. A score of resolutions were passed, among them one pledging the support of the Nebraska organization to the Willard temple bonds, another denouncing the Bishop Potter subway scheme; another urging the women to discontinue the use of patent medicines that contained alcohol, another urging the unions to agitate for the enforcement of the state anti-cigarette law, and two others urging agitation against Mormonism and a petition to congress not to seat Senator Reed Smoot.

Over an hour was given to the discussion of county option and the advisability of the union's endorsing it, but no favorable action was taken, not because the women opposed this, but because it is the policy of the union not to entangle itself with any political party or faction, and the general resolutions covered all that the plan for county option included.

At the afternoon session Grand Island was selected as the site for the next meeting. Several other towns extended invitations to the women, but could not land the prize. These were selected delegates to the national convention, to be held in Philadelphia. Mrs. Sue D. Chase of Haigler; Mrs. J. E. Carns of University Place, Mrs. Helen Hornby of Valentine, Mrs. E. M. Correll of Omaha, Mrs. L. S. Corey of Lincoln, Mrs. Russell of Lincoln was elected a delegate-at-large.

Killian Squares Account.
The investigation of the books of the office of the adjutant general during several past administrations is still bearing fruit. This morning Governor Mickey received a check from Captain J. W. Killian of Chicago for $4,111. This was to pay up a discrepancy in the accounts of the captain while he was adjutant general of the state.

The report which Examiner Wiggins has completed and read to Governor Mickey, but which has not yet been formally filed, will in all probability clear former Adjutant General Barry of any irregularity while in office. From reliable sources it is learned that Mr. Wiggins has written to General Barry complimenting him for the manner in which he has handled the matter, though calling his attention to one or two small items amounting in all to about $90, which needed some explanation. General Barry was in Lincoln recently and it is reported he explained away all but one of the items and would do the same later. This item is said to have been a difference in the amount of the money received from the government with that to pay the soldiers and the amount really paid out.

Governor Holcomb, who was the chief executive at the time the Nebraska Guard soldiers were mustered into the service, said today that both he and General Barry kept an account of the money received from the government and the money paid out, and he felt sure that both reports taken together would explain any apparent discrepancy.

While the report of Mr. Wiggins has not been formally filed with the governor and will not be given out by him until it is formally filed, it is not known for sure how General Barry will come out, but it is pretty certain that General Barry will get a clean bill.

Senae Negro Into Confession.
By the use of a skull and crossbones, the police this morning secured a confession out of William Eekies, colored, that implicated him in crimes committed during the last several years. The skull was in the office of the chief of police and was covered with a dark cloth. When the negro was brought into the sweatbox he at first refused to talk. The cloth was taken off the skull and straightway the colored man came out of his shell. He was headed off and in the presence of the skull told all he knew and implicated many others in some petty crimes.

Corshuckers' Incident.
Tomorrow morning the university football team will leave for Omaha to play Creighton college in the afternoon. A large crowd of rooters, along with the university band, will accompany the team, as a special very low rate has been made by the railroads.

Confidence in the team has not been shaken by the defeat suffered at the hands of Colorado last Saturday, and the students expect the Corshuckers to win the game by a good score.

Coach Booth has received word from Assistant Coach Westover, who has been in Denver with Richardson, the big Nebraska guard who was injured in the Colorado game, informing him that the two men will not leave Denver for several days yet. Richardson was improving steadily at the time the letter was sent.

Candidates at Tekamah.
TEKAMAH, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—A number of the republican state candidates, who are making a tour of this part of the state, stopped off here between trains yesterday. They were met at the train by James Laird, former state auditor, John P. Nesbit and a number of others, who escorted them around town, and introduced them to all of the business men and a great many others. Those in the party were Congressman J. J. McCarthy, Candidate E. M. Searle, for Auditor; H. M. Eaton, for commissioner of public lands and buildings; A. Galusha, for secretary of state; R. A. Smith, for representative of the Twelfth district; J. C. McElhinney, for representative of the Thirteenth district; and P. E. Taylor, candidate for county attorney for Burt county. They left on the afternoon train for Oakland, very favorably impressed with the outlook for a large republican majority from Tekamah and Burt county this fall.

Arrested for Cruelty to Wife.
PLATTSBOROUGH, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Constable Sam Aaron arrested George Mick, a farmer living near Greenwood, on a warrant sworn out by his wife charging him with cruelty. It seems that for several months Mick has been drinking too much liquor and when under the influence of it ill-treated his spouse. In Judge McDonald's court they decided to divide the proceeds of the farm and George promised

INVESTIGATION GETTING WARM

Some Personalities Mark the Hearing at the Winnebago Agency.

WINNEBAGO INDIAN AGENCY, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—General denials are being entered by the Homer merchants to charges preferred before the special inspector here by Father Schell regarding frauds on the Indians. These denials were signed yesterday and today by personal attacks on the priest. These personalities Inspector Wright protested against and refused to permit them to be incorporated in the evidence. Inspector Wright cautioned the witnesses and Father Schell to avoid personalities. This was the first time that the priest has shown downright anger during the inquiry.

C. J. O'Connor, merchant and banker of Homer, introduced account books testifying that the Indians were dealt with on the same basis as whites and that their accounts were accurately kept. He denied that notes once paid were ever paid a second time or presented for payment. He said that where it was taking a high risk to trust any particular Indian the charges were made a little higher than to others. The inspector said that this was done everywhere.

The statement sent to a Sioux City newspaper that the old Indians sit around under the trees bemoaning the issuance of the new order because they can draw only $10 a month is amusing. When it comes to telling about here and there the reporter shows more than Anna Eva Fay powers, but the statement that it would take an Indian with $3000000 him twenty-five years to collect it is ridiculous. The low order plainly states that the Indians may not draw amounts "exceeding $10 per month or in sums exceeding $10 unless approved by the agent." If the agent is advised that the money is wanted for and known to be for rightful purposes he can give authority for the Indian to draw his check for the entire $1000 or all he had in the United States depository.

The investigation will soon get down to actual instances and the inspector will then have something to work on of a definite nature. The investigation when it gets through with the matter of liquor sales, usurious notes and the snapping up and forging of pay checks, will deal with men in other towns regarding the leasing of Indian lands, and it is hinted that some officials of the state and government may have to face some charges.

State Fair Board.

At a meeting of the State Fair board held at the Lincoln hotel last night Secretary Furnas reported that gross receipts for the fair were $38,146.00; expenditures for premiums paid, $14,043.35; miscellaneous expenditures, $17,672.35, leaving a net balance of $1,430.30. While nothing definite was done on the proposition to locate the office of secretary permanently on the state fair grounds, it was discussed favorably. It was the judgment of the members also to employ for the live stock men Nebraska men wherever possible.

MASONS LAY THE CORNERSTONE

New Federal Building at Hastings Fairly Started.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The laying of the cornerstone of the new government building took place here this afternoon at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the Masons. There was no delay in the proceedings and the services were most impressive. The Hastings military band contributed to the musical program. After the invocation by Grand Chaplain Rev. G. A. Beecher of Trinity cathedral, Omaha, the cornerstone was lowered into its place. During the intervals Mrs. W. E. Barnes sang "The Red, White and Blue," "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America," and the American flag was slowly hoisted to the top of the derrick which was used for lowering the stone. Hon. W. E. Andrews of Washington, D. C., delivered the address. He spoke of what a magnificent building it would be and of its use. Mr. Andrews paid a high compliment to Senator Charles H. Dietrich, stating that it was to the honor of our fellow-townsmen that credit was due for the securing of the beautiful governmental structure which was being erected here today. This statement brought forth loud cheers and applause.

He also said that ever since the time of James Laird, every representative who had gone from the Fifth district of Nebraska to the national congress, regardless of politics, had made a strenuous effort to secure a government building for Hastings, but somehow all had failed until Mr. Dietrich took the matter in his own hands immediately upon becoming United States senator.

Arrested for Cruelty to Wife. PLATTSBOROUGH, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Constable Sam Aaron arrested George Mick, a farmer living near Greenwood, on a warrant sworn out by his wife charging him with cruelty. It seems that for several months Mick has been drinking too much liquor and when under the influence of it ill-treated his spouse. In Judge McDonald's court they decided to divide the proceeds of the farm and George promised to look for another place to live. After being placed under $600 bonds Mick, accompanied by his wife and children, went back to the farm to divide the earnings of the year and the household goods, but before the last articles were divided the wife broke down and the husband promised to do better in the future, and if each keeps the promise the Mick family will be a happy reunited family.

Boy Poisons Himself.

PLATTSBOROUGH, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Jesse Lee, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kruger, died last night from the effects of taking narcotic poison. The child got a bottle of medicine which had been left for Mr. Bates, father of Mrs. Kruger, and took a large quantity. Soon afterward the mother discovered what the child had done and at once summoned a physician, and while everything possible was done to save the little one he grew weaker until death relieved his suffering at 9:30. Mrs. Bates, grandmother of the child, died last week.

Republicans at Pender.

PENDER, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Hon. W. E. Andrews addressed a republican gathering at the opera house here Wednesday evening. He made a strong argument, dealing principally with the tariff issue, and was frequently interrupted with applause. Congressman McCarthy was present and also made a brief address. Arrangements are being made for a debate between Mr. McCarthy and his opponent, F. E. McKillop, to be held here early in November. Messrs. Searle, Eaton, Galusha and Mc-Carthy of the republican state ticket were also present at the meeting.

Runaway Girl Caught.

PERI, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—Miss May Eastbrook, the runaway Tecumseh lass, was taken home by her father yesterday morning. Young Hoadley, her partner in the escapade, has left for parts unknown. If found he will answer to the charge of kidnapping.

Stranger is Identified.

ADAMS, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The body of the stranger found on the Burlington tracks near Pith this week has been identified as that of "Wes" Wilson, formerly of Sterling, Neb. Wilson's father and brother were here and had the body disinterred for the purpose of satisfying themselves of its identity. He had been a farmer near Sterling. The cause of the death is still unknown to the authorities.
