NEBRASKA DAY AT THE FAIR!

Antelope State to Be the Center of Interest at St. Louis.

THOUSANDS WILL TAKE PART IN SHOW

Governor Mickey and Staff, with State Officers and Other Distinguished Citizens, to Be Members of the Delegation.

Nebraska will be well represented at the World's Fair on the special day set aside in its honor Tuesday, October 25, according to G. W. Wattles, president of the commis-sion from this state. Many from Omaha, Lincoln and from all parts of the state have announced their intention of taking advantage of the $8.50 rate for the round trip and assisting in making a good showing on Nebraska day. The commissioners have devoted much hard work to advertising and endeavoring to create interest in the event, and Mr. Wattles feels that their efforts will be met with success. More than 2,000 invitations have been sent to residents of the Antelope state as a means of calling special attention to the desirability of their presence in St. Louis next and urged to be present. Appropriate badges have been made, and some have been distributed by Commissioner Wattles and his assistants. Others may be obtained at the Nebraska pavilion in the agricultural building at the fair.

A special train on the Burlington, leaving Lincoln on the night of the 24th, will convey Governor Mickey, his full staff of colonels and the other state officers. At Omaha it is probable that they will joined by Mayor Moores and members of the city and county government.

A splendid program for Nebraska day has been arranged at the fair, where the magnificent and unique exhibition of this state has attracted much comment. President Francis will make an address at Festival Hall at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and speakers from the state will respond. From to 6 a reception will be held at the Nebraska pavilion, where all past, present and future residents of the state are expected to assemble.

The details of the program are to be announced later. Everything possible will be done to make the attendance large and to provide for the comfort and entertainment of the Nebraskans.

NOTES FROM FEDERAL COURT November Terms Will Have Plenty of Work, for the Dockets Are Long.

The November term of the federal courts will convene in this city November 14. A petit and grand jury both will be drawn for the term and the sessions promise to be a long one. A large number of criminal cases are to be looked into by the grand jury, including two or three murder cases on the Indian reservations, and a dozen or more bootlegging cases, as well as two or three postoffice defalcation cases and a dozen or more of the strike cases and three counterfeit cases. The civil docket is also a long one and promises to become longer, as filings are being constantly added. The time of filing notices for trial will expire

Asmus Boysen, a resident of Iowa, has brought suit in the United States circuit court against James Cunningham and about twenty other defendants to quiet title to certain premises in Burt county, Nebrasks. The land in question is valued at $10,000. The plaintiff is at present in possession of the property, which is a ranch property, but the defendants claim an equity title in the property' which the plaintiff denies. Hence the suit to quiet the title and let the plaintiff remain in peacea-

Discharges in bankruptcy were yesterday granted by Judge W. H. Munger in the United States district court to Frank C. Hamilton, Creighton, Knox county; Didymus D. Dayton, College View, Lancaster county, and Patrick J. Holden, Yutan, Saunders county, Nebraska.

Alexander D. Roisb, an accountant of Omaha, yesterday filed his voluntary application in bankruptcy in the United States district court praying that he might be relieved from his several indebtednesses. His liabilities are scheduled at $43.65 and his assets at $313.26.

GEORGE WANTS TO BE A HERO Young Man Modestly Offers to Serve His Country in the Navy.

That patriotism still burns bright in the breast of young America is shown by a letter just received at the regular army recruiting office in this city. The letter comes from a town in Iowa and is written in a very neat hand and reads as follows:

To United States Recruiting Office: Gentlemen—Having past the 15th year and longing to enlist, and being governed by such a desire from childhood, I offer to say that I shall report myself for examination at your office Friday, the 14th day of said month. I have always been a great lover of my country and thrilled by the devastation in the far east, which has created in my bosom a stronger patriotic feeling than ever; therefore I would wish to offer my services to my native land, and if the opportunity offers, will be glad to take part in any heroic expoits that may come to pass in the near future.

Gentlemen, I also have to say that I will never play the coward and will also never rebel against my superiors. Hoping that my wish shall be fulfilled, I am very respectfully yours.

Unfortunately for the young patriot, it in a very neat hand and reads as follows:

Unfortunately for the young patriot, it was his intention, evidently, to enlist in the navy, but the recruiting detachment had left the city just prior to his arrival and the letter was turned over to the army recruiting officials, and as there is a paucity of opportunities for "heroic" ex ploits in the army branch of the service just now, George has not yet presented himself for enlistment.

Trusties Try to Escape. During the progress of the evening meal the county jail Sunday several "truses" tried to make their escape through a aperture used for the passing of meals and other things. The prisoners were taking their way through the kitchen then discovered by Jailer Roach. The ten were prisoners who had a few days yet is serve. The passage through which the risoners made their way leads into the TROUP DISSOLVES HIS ORDER Judge Removes Restraint Placed on the Nebraska Bitulithic Paving Company.

The first stage of the Ure paving injuncon suit was completed at 2 o'clock, when Judge Troup granted the order dissolving the temporary restraining order and allowing the Nebraska Bitulithic company to proceed with the work on Thirty-second venue. The attorneys for the plaintiff took exception to the decision. They desire to have the hearing at as early a date as possible on the suit, but it is thought the case cannot come up for a week or two.

H. E. Wilcox of Bedford, Ia., confessed in police court he had lived in the wide, wide world twenty-four years and had never until Sunday seen a pair of brass knuckles. Wilcox was arrested as a suspicious character and when searched at the city jail a pair of brass knuckles was found in one of his pockets. He was arreaigned before Police Judge Berka on the charge of carrying concealed weapens, but told such a straightforward story to the police magistrate that he was discharged and told to go his way. Wilcox raid he was on his way help husk Nebraska's corn crop. The prisoner explained the possession of the concealed weapons by saying he found them in an empty box car and thought they were parts of a machine.
